"I used to play here [Arkansas] once a year, so I know a little bit about the program and with Bobby Petrino leading it now, Arkansas should be in good hands.

"It's impressive [Arkansas' facilities]. It's hard to beat what Arkansas has. I had a chance to go through the Hall of Fame room where all the trophies are on display. The Razorbacks certainly have a great history, that's for sure."

Lovie Smith, Chicago Bears head coach

ARKANSAS' PRO DAY WORKOUT LAST SPRING DREW A BIG CROWD OF NFL COACHES AND SCOUTS.

Arkansas' Smith looks to outrun the shadows

Steve Megargee
Rivals.com College Football Staff Writer

► MORE: New offense brings new opportunities for Arkansas QB Dick

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Arkansas running back Michael Smith still remembers when he couldn't even win a race with his sister. He will spend this fall trying to outrun the shadow created by two famous predecessors.

Smith ranks among the shortest players in college football, but nobody in the nation has bigger shoes to fill. Smith, a 5-foot-7 junior, has the unenviable task of stepping in for first-round picks in Darren McFadden and Felix Jones, who combined to rush for more than 2,800 yards in each of the past two seasons.

He won't have to face that burden by himself because Brandon Barnett and converted linebacker Chip Gregory also will get plenty of carries in an offense that shouldn't be quite as run-oriented under new coach Bobby Petrino. True freshman De'Anthony Curtis, a four-star prospect and Rivals100 selection, could enter the mix when he arrives on campus this summer.

But it's the diminutive Smith who exited spring practice as the Razorbacks' top running back after rushing for 157 yards and a touchdown in Saturday's Red-White Game.

Smith said he learned plenty about the game by watching those two 1,000-yard rushers from the sideline. He admired their speed, fearlessness and upbeat approach.

"They always had a smile on their face even if things were

2008 SEASON PREVIEW NOTES

Casey Dick enters his senior season eighth on Arkansas' all-time career passing yards list with 3,270 yards and third with 34 touchdown passes. He will be taking snaps from 2007 Rimington Trophy winning center Jonathan Luigs.

NEW ERA: Bobby Petrino is entering his first season as Arkansas' head coach. He came to Arkansas from the NFL's Atlanta Falcons after spending the four previous years as the head coach at Louisville. In his 24th year as a coach, including his 20th on the collegiate level and four in the NFL, he was 3-10 with the Falcons after going 41-9 at Louisville. His teams at Louisville went 9-4 in 2003 and played in the GMAC Bowl, falling to No. 14 Miami (Ohio); 11-1 in 2004 with a Conference USA title, a win over No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, and a No. 7 final ranking; 9-3 in 2005 with a spot in the Gator Bowl, where the Cardinals fell to No. 12 Virginia Tech, and a No. 19 final ranking; and 12-1 in 2006 with a Big East Conference championship, a win over No. 12 Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, 24-13, and a No. 6 final ranking.

The 2006 Cardinals ranked second in the nation in total yards (475.3 yards per game) and fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.8 points per game). His 2004 squad led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), and set an NCAA record by scoring 50 or more points in five-straight games.

In addition to Louisville, Petrino's college experience includes stops at Arizona State, Nevada, Utah State and Auburn. In addition to coaching the Falcons, his NFL experience includes two years working as the quarterbacks coach and one as the offensive coordinator with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Among active NCAA Bowl Subdivision head coaches with at least four years experience, Petrino ranks second in the nation in career winning percentage (.820).

RIMINGTON TROPHY WINNER BACK TO ANCHOR THE LINE: Senior Jonathan Luigs was recognized as the top center in the nation last year when he received the Rimington Trophy. A runner-up for the award as a sophomore in 2006, the 2007 winner was also named a first-team All-American by CBSSports.com, the Football Writers Association of America, Rivals, The Sporting News, Phil Steele College Football, CollegeFootballNews.com and Walter Camp. Luigs, a 6-4, 314-pounder from Little Rock, Ark., also earned the Jacobs Trophy, which goes to the top blocker in the Southeastern Conference.

He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (286.5), rank 17th in total offense (450.0) and 13th in scoring (37.3). The total offense and scoring averages, and 3,750 rushing yards set school records, along with a 5.96 yards per carry average. In addition to being a Rimington Trophy finalist as a sophomore in 2006, he was an AP third-team All-American and first-team All-SEC. He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (228.5), rank 29th in the nation in total offense (378.0) and 31st in scoring (28.9).

Junior cornerback Jerell Norton led the team with five interceptions last season. The Razorbacks had 20 picks for the season, which is the ninth-best season total in school history and the most for the program since the 1987 squad had 22.

CASEY DICK CLIMBING ARKANSAS' CAREER PASSING CHARTS: Senior quarterback Casey Dick has made steady progress throughout his career. He started all 13 games in 2007 and has made 18 consecutive starts. As a junior, he was 150-of-262 (.573) for 1,695 yards with 18 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. For his career, he is 268-of-493 for 3,270 yards with 34 touchdowns with 20 interceptions and a .544 completion percentage.

Here is where Dick ranks on the school's career charts and where last year's numbers place among Arkansas' all-time season bests.

ARKANSAS

TEJADA TURNS IN RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCE IN FIRST YEAR AS HOG KICKER: Sophomore Alex Tejada had a huge impact as a freshman. Arkansas' place kicker converted 58-of-60 extra point attempts and was 17-of-23 on field goals, and led the team with 109 points scored. His .739 field goal percentage was the ninth-best in school history while the 17 field goals made tie for sixth-best. The 23 attempts also tie for sixth-best.

Tejada's 17 field goals made are the most for a Razorback since Todd Latourette made 17-of-24 in 1998. The last Hog to make more than 17 was Todd Wright, who was 20-of-23 in 1989.

Tejada was 13-of-15 from 39 yards and closer.

His PAT attempts and conversions are school season records, and his 109 points in a season set a school record for a kicker, which also ranks second all-time to Bill Burnett's 120 points in 1969.

D-LINE COULD BE STRENGTH OF DEFENSE: While replacing all four starters in the secondary and building depth at linebacker, Arkansas' coaching staff may lean on the defensive line to set the tone on that side of the ball.

Returnees on the line include junior end Adrian Davis, senior nose tackle Ernest Mitchell, junior tackle Malcolm Sheppard, senior end Antwain Robinson, sophomore tackle Patrick Jones, sophomore end Damario Ambrose and senior tackle Marcus Shavers. All seven lettered on defense last year.

Sheppard started 12 games, Mitchell started 11, Davis nine and Robinson six.

Experience on the defensive line (2007, listed in order of games started):

| Pos. | Player | G-GS | Tackles | TFL | Sacks |
|------|------------------|-------|---------|---------|--------|
| DT | Malcolm Sheppard | 12-12 | 42 | 10.5-32 | 0.5-4 |
| NT | Ernest Mitchell | 12-11 | 66 | 10.5-46 | 3.5-31 |
| DE | Adrian Davis | 13-9 | 65 | 10-53 | 3.0-27 |
| DE | Antwain Robinson | 13-6 | 35 | 5.5-44 | 3.0-37 |
| DT | Marcus Shavers | 12-0 | 13 | 1.0-1 | |
| DE | Damario Ambrose | 11-0 | 13 | 3.0-15 | 1.0-11 |
| DT | Patrick Jones | 7-0 | 11 | 0.5-1 | |

SMITH'S TURN TO CARRY THE LOAD: Junior running back Michael Smith has spent the last two years as a backup behind All-Americans Darren McFadden, the 2006 and 2007 Doak Walker Award winner, and Felix Jones.

Last year, he had 46 carries for 303 yards and three touchdowns with an average of 6.6 yards per carry. As a freshman in 2006, he had 35 carries for 247 yards and three touchdowns with an average of 7.1 yards per attempt.

His career numbers are 81 carries for 550 yards and six touchdowns with an average of 6.8 yards per rush. He also has five receptions for 68 yards (13.6) and six kickoff returns for 159 yards (26.5).

Junior Jerrell Norton, senior Walner Leandre, junior Rashaad Johnson and senior Jamar Love were the backups, respectively.

Senior nose tackle Ernest Mitchell is one of seven returning lettermen on the defensive line. Of that group, he had the most tackles last year (66) and tied for the most tackles for loss (10.5).

Senior linebacker Elston Forte is one of four returning linebackers from last year's two-deep depth chart. He was second among the returnees last year with 51 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss.

Norton led the team last year with five interceptions and was second with 11 passes broken up while recording 34 tackles. Leandre had 29 tackles and two PBUs. Johnson had 53 tackles, two interceptions and a forced fumble. Love had 22 tackles, three sacks and four passes broken up.

Other returning lettermen include sophomore cornerback Ramon Broadway, senior cornerback Shedrick Johnson, senior safety Dallas Washington and sophomore cornerback Isaac Madison.

Broadway had 19 tackles in 13 games a year ago, Johnson had seven tackles in 13 games with one start and Washington had 22 tackles in 12 games.

MOST PICKS IN 20 YEARS: Arkansas intercepted 20 passes in 2007, the most for the Razorbacks in 20 years. Last year's total ties for the ninth-best season mark in school history. The last time Arkansas had more was in 1987 when the Razorbacks had 22.

Jerrell Norton was the leader with five, followed by Materal Richardson and Michael Grant with three each, and Matt Hewitt, Kevin Woods, Adrian Davis and Rashaad Johnson with two each.

Norton, Davis and Johnson return in 2008.

LINEBACKERS GROWING UP: Weston Dacus, last year's second-leading tackler with 102 stops and the leader at his position, is a big loss at middle linebacker, but four of the top six linebackers are back.

The returnees are senior Elston Forte and sophomore Ryan Powers at the weak side spot, junior Wendel Davis in the middle and sophomore Freddy Burton at the strong side position. Of those four, Davis saw extensive action as a sophomore last year while Powers and Burton earned time as freshmen.

Davis missed spring practice with an injury, but all four saw action in at least 12 games last year with a combined nine starts. They also combined for 132 tackles with five tackles for loss.

Forte was the leader with 51 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss, followed by Davis with 39 stops, Burton 23 and Powers 19.

DAVIS SOLID AT PUNTER: Senior Jeremy Davis is coming off a good year at punter, averaging 40.0 yards on 60 attempts, marking just the second time in the last seven years Arkansas' leader has averaged 40 or better.

Davis, who has a career long of 55 yards, punted for a total of 2,403 yards, the 12th-best single-season total in school history. Davis, from Fort Smith, Ark., has 85 career punts for 3,382 yards. His career average of 39.8 ties for the 10th-best in school history.

ARKANSAS ATOP THE BOWL LIST: Arkansas is on top of the bowl appearance list for the SEC Western Division since 1998. Over the last 10 years, Arkansas has earned eight bowl bids. The Razorbacks have made three trips to the Cotton Bowl (2000, 2002, 2008), two to the Citrus/Capital One Bowl (1999, 2007), and one each to the Las Vegas Bowl (2000), Music City Bowl (2002) and the Independence Bowl (2003).

SCORING STREAK: Arkansas has scored in a school-record 148 consecutive games. The Razorbacks have not been shut out since a 28-0 loss to LSU in Baton Rouge, La., on Nov. 18, 1995.

Over the last 10 years, Arkansas has scored 20 or more points in 92 of 123 games (.748). The Razorbacks are 44-13 (.772) when scoring 20 or more points over the last seven years.

HEAD COACH

BOBBY PETRINO

HEAD COACH BOBBY PETRINO | FOOTBALL STAFF

Long before his first game as head football coach at the University of Arkansas, Bobby Petrino's positive impact on a tradition-rich Arkansas program and a passionate Razorback fan base was abundantly evident. From the boisterous welcome offered from assembled fans at a late-night nationally-televvised press conference announcing his hiring to the record attendance numbers at Razorback Clubs in all corners of the state last spring, there is no question that Petrino's arrival in Fayetteville has energized and unified the state behind their beloved Razorback football program.

It is easy to see why Razorback fans are so excited. Petrino is one of the most successful college football coaches in the nation. In his four previous years as a collegiate head coach at the University of Louisville, he won 41 games, led the Cardinals to four-consecutive bowl games, including a victory in the Bowl Championship Series' 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl. His .820 winning percentage ranks second only to USC's Pete Carroll among active NCAA Bowl Subdivision coaches with at least four years experience. His 41 wins rank tied for seventh in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history for most victories by a coach in his first four seasons.

Entering his fifth season as a collegiate head coach and his first at Arkansas, Petrino blends 21 years of collegiate coaching experience with stints in the National Football League as both a head coach and assistant coach to total 25 years of coaching experience.

In addition to Louisville, Petrino's college experience includes stops at Arizona State University, the University of Nevada, Utah State University and Auburn University. His NFL coaching tenures have come with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Atlanta Falcons.

His reputation for engineering high-octane and quick-strike offenses is well deserved. His teams have consistently ranked among the nation's best in total offense and scoring. Although sometimes perceived as a coach that focuses primarily on the passing game, in reality Petrino adheres to the philosophy of balance between offensive production on the ground and through the air. Consider that in the last 10 years of his college coaching career spent as a head coach, an offensive coordinator or both, Petrino's offenses have boasted 70 100-yard rushers and 41 300-yard passers. That equates to 111 defining offensive individual performances in 120 total games.

In his coaching career, Petrino has worked with countless players who went on to play professionally, including an impressive list of NFL quarterbacks. As a head coach, he helped develop quarterbacks Stefan LeFors (2003-04) and Brian Brohm (2004-06) at Louisville. As a coordinator or assistant, he tutored Jason Campbell at Auburn (2002), Chris Redman at Louisville (1998), Jake Plummer at Arizona State (1993), and Doug Nussmeier (1990-91) and John Friesz (1989) at Idaho.

On Dec. 11, 2007, Petrino was named the 30th head coach in Razorback football history. The announcement marked Petrino's return to college football, the very landscape that put him on the coaching map.

RAZORBACKS

Prior to his most recent tenure as the head coach of the Falcons during the 2007 season, Petrino enjoyed four ultra-successful seasons (2003-06) at Louisville. His teams posted a combined record of 41-9 in his tenure for a winning percentage of .820.

In 2006, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 12-1 record, including a 24-13 win over nationally-ranked Wake Forest in the BCS FedEx Orange Bowl. Louisville vaulted to as high as No. 3 in the polls during the season and finished with a final No. 6 national ranking in the Associated Press poll, the highest ranking in school history. Louisville had three victories over top-15 ranked teams, including wins over No. 15 Miami (31-7), No. 3 West Virginia (44-34) and No. 12 Wake Forest (24-13). The 12 victories also set a new school mark, breaking a record Petrino had held in part previously with 11 wins in 2004. The Cardinals won their first Big East Conference title, ranked second in the nation in total yards (475.3 yards per game) and fourth in the nation in scoring offense (37.8 points per game). Louisville also led the Big East in pass offense average (290.0) and first downs (296). Seven Louisville players earned first-team All-Big East honors, the most of any league school.

In 2005, Petrino led Louisville into the Big East Conference and guided the Cardinals to a 9-3 record and their first New Year's Day Bowl game since 1991. Louisville ranked ninth in the nation in total offense (482.1) and third in the nation in scoring offense (43.4). The Cardinals scored at least 30 points in 11 of 12 games, including eight games of more than 40 points, four games of 50 or more points and three 60-point outings. Seven Cardinals earned All-Big East honors in the school's first year in the league, including Bronko Nagurski and Ted Hendricks Award winner Elvis Dumervil. Dumervil led the nation in sacks (20) and forced fumbles (10) on his way to consensus All-America honors. Running back Michael Bush led the nation in scoring (14.4), scored 24 touchdowns and became the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1999.

Petrino's 2004 Louisville team went 11-1, won the Conference USA championship and beat No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, to end the season ranked No. 7. The

PETRINO PHILOSOPHY

OFFENSE "Offensively, we want to be very aggressive. What I like to do first is establish the fact that everybody expects to score every single time they take the field on offense. That is the expectation. I believe in a balanced attack. I do believe you have to be able to run the football when you want to, run the football when you have to. I believe you have to be able to throw the football when you want to, and throw the football when you have to. When you can do both, then you can definitely be the aggressor and that's what I want."

DEFENSE "Defensively, we're going to concentrate, first and foremost, on the sound principles of defense—being able to shed blocks, run full speed to the ball, tackle well and create turnovers. We want to be able to do that above and beyond scheme and be tremendously sound in scheme. In saying that, in defense, I believe it's very important to stop the run, number one, and hit the quarterback, number two."

SPECIAL TEAMS "Special teams wise, we want to base everything on speed. Our ability to be aggressive speed wise, be able to cover, get down the field and be great in our return game (is our goal). We will work tremendously hard on all three phases and then be aggressive in all three phases."

PETRINO POINTERS

- > 2004 Louisville team set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five straight games
- > 2002 Auburn offense led SEC in passing efficiency and third down conversions
- > 1998 Louisville team recorded biggest turnaround in the nation, improving from 1-10 to 7-5
- > 1996 Utah State offense set school record by averaging 468.5 yards of total offense

Cardinals led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), surpassed 40 points nine times, scored 50 points seven times and set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five-straight games. Petrino tied a then-school record for most wins in a season and had a perfect 8-0 record in league play. The Cardinals outscored their conference opponents 453-156 on their way to the school's third Conference USA crown. In the process, school records fell in points scored (597), points per game (49.8), total offense (6,448), touchdowns (80), rushing yardage (3,005), rushing touchdowns (47) and completion percentage (71.3). Under Petrino's tutelage, quarterback Stefan LeFors led the nation in completion percentage (73.5) and passing efficiency (181.74), narrowly missing NCAA records in both categories. The gaudy offensive production also allowed placekicker Arthur Carmody to set an NCAA single-season record with 77-consecutive extra points. Defensively, Louisville led the league and ranked No. 15 in the nation in total defense. The Cardinals were one of only three teams to rank in the top 15 nationally in both total offense and total defense. Louisville had the best combined ranking of any team when taking into account both sides of the ball. For his efforts, Petrino was named the 2004 Conference USA Coach of the Year.

The groundwork for the record-setting success to come was laid in Petrino's first season as a head coach at Louisville in 2003. Taking over a team that had finished 7-6 the season before, Petrino guided the Cardinals to a 9-4 record and a GMAC Bowl berth. The nine wins were the most by a first-year Louisville coach. It didn't take long for Petrino to set the tone in his first collegiate coaching stint. In his first career game as a head coach, Petrino led Louisville to a 40-24 win over arch rival Kentucky. Louisville led the league and ranked among the nation's best in total offense, rushing and scoring. The Cardinals ranked fifth in the nation in total offense (488.9), 10th in rushing (228.2) and 15th in scoring offense (34.6) in Petrino's inaugural season. Louisville set six Conference USA records including the mark for total yards after the Cardinals raked up 779 yards, including 445 rushing yards, in a 66-45 win over Houston.

Prior to Louisville hiring him as its head coach, Petrino served one season as the offensive coordinator at Auburn in 2002. In his one season with the Tigers,

RAZORBACKS

Auburn went 9-4, including three wins over top-10 ranked opponents, and won a share of the SEC Western Division title. The Tigers led the Southeastern Conference in pass efficiency and third down conversions, and were third in scoring, rushing and total offense. Petrino's influence on Auburn's offensive fortunes resulted in significant improvement as the Tigers improved to No. 31 nationally in scoring offense (31.3) and No. 38 in total offense (358.8) after finishing No. 86 and No. 73 in the same two categories, respectively, in 2001. Auburn completed its season with a victory over No. 10 Penn State on New Year's Day in the Capital One Bowl.

Before going to Auburn, he spent three seasons in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was the quarterbacks coach in 1999 and 2000, and the offensive coordinator in 2001.

While with the Jaguars, he worked with quarterback Mark Brunell, who threw for 3,640 yards in 2000, which was the second-highest total in team history, and 3,309 yards in his 2001 season as offensive coordinator. In 1999, Jacksonville advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

In his first stint at Louisville, he was the offensive coordinator for the Cardinals in 1998. In that one season, Louisville was the top-ranked NCAA Division I-A team in scoring and total offense while recording the biggest turnaround in the nation. The Cardinals improved from 1-10 in 1997 to 7-5 in '98.

Petrino and quarterback Chris Redman helped the Cardinals set school records for points scored (444), scoring average (40.4), touchdowns (62), passing yards (4,498), passing touchdowns (33) and total yards (6,156). Redmen passed for 300 yards or more eight times on the season while reserve quarterback Mike Watkins also topped the 300-yard passing mark once. Louisville scored 60 or more points three times that season (wins over Cincinnati, 62-19; Western Kentucky, 63-44; and East Carolina, 63-45).

The Helena, Mont., native was the offensive coordinator at Utah State for three years (1995-97) before going to Louisville. While in Logan, Utah, he helped Utah State set school records by averaging 468.5 yards of total offense and 317.5 yards passing during the 1996 season. Prior to his arrival, USU averaged just more than 300 yards per game in total offense. In 1996, the Aggies also racked up a school-record 273 first downs, an average of nearly 25 first downs a game.

In 1994, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Nevada. The Wolfpack ranked second in the nation in passing (330) and total offense (500) per game, and was third in the nation with 37.6 points a game. During his one-year stint at Nevada, the Wolfpack boasted 10 100-yard rushing performances and six 300-yard passing efforts. Nevada posted a 9-2 record and won a share of the Big West Conference title.

In 1992 and '93, he was the quarterbacks coach at Arizona State where he assisted in the development of future All-American and NFL star Jake Plummer. While with the Sun Devils, Petrino also worked with then-ASU quarterback and current UA quarterbacks coach Garrick McGee.

Prior to his two years at Arizona State he was the quarterbacks coach (1989) and offensive coordinator (1990 & 1991) for three seasons at the University of Idaho. He was the wide receivers coach at Weber State in 1987 and '88.

Petrino literally grew up in the coaching profession. His father, Bob Petrino Sr., coached at Carroll College in Helena, Mont., for 26 seasons, earning 163 victories and 15 conference titles. As a child, Petrino Jr. would race after school to the practice field to observe his father during his legendary career.

Bobby Petrino officially started his coaching career as a graduate assistant for his father at Carroll College in 1983. After a graduate assistant stint as quarterbacks coach at Weber State in 1984, Petrino returned to be the offensive coordinator for his father in 1985-86. Carroll had the top-ranked offense in the NAIA ranks in both of his seasons, thanks in large part to the play of Bobby Petrino's younger brother Paul, who was a four-year starter at quarterback at Carroll College. Paul Petrino now serves as Arkansas' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Before Bobby Petrino coached for his father, he played football for him at Carroll College. Petrino played quarterback and twice earned NAIA All-America honors. He led the Fighting Saints to three straight Frontier Conference championships and was named the league's most valuable player in 1981 and 1982. He also played four years of basketball at Carroll. Petrino earned a bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in mathematics from Carroll College in 1983.

Born March 10, 1961, Petrino and his wife, the former Becky Schaff, have four children: Kelsey, Nick, Bobby and Katie.

MIKE SUMMERS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE

Mike Summers is entering his 29th season as a collegiate coach and his first at Arkansas after joining head coach Bobby Petrino's staff as assistant head coach and offensive line coach on Jan. 3.

Summers was on Petrino's staff all four seasons at Louisville (2003-06) and spent the 2007 season on Petrino's staff with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons as the offensive line coach.

In his last year at Louisville, three of his linemen earned first-team All-Big East Conference honors (Renardo Foster, Kurt Quarterman and George Bussey). Summers' line spearheaded the attack for a unit that ranked second in the nation in total offense with 475.3 yards a game, seventh in passing (290.0) and 12th in rushing (185.3).

In 2005, guard Jason Spitz earned All-Big East honors, was a third-round NFL draft choice of the Green Bay Packers and started 13 games in 2006. Five other Cardinal offensive players earned all-league honors, including tackle Travis Leffew.

His 2004 line helped Louisville set a school record with 3,005 rushing yards and 47 touchdowns while allowing only 20 sacks and leading the nation in total offense. Louisville also set school records for total offense (6,468 yards) and points scored (597) with six Cardinals earning first-team All-Conference USA honors.

In Summers' first season at Louisville, his line improved from allowing 46 sacks the year before (2002) to just 13. The Cardinals also set what was then a school rushing record, and ended the season fifth in the nation in total offense (488.9) and 10th in rushing (228.2).

Before going to Louisville, he spent two years at Ohio (2001-02) where his offense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing in 2002 (239.8) and No. 6 in 2001 (240.1). The Bobcats also allowed only 14 sacks in 2002 and 11 in 2001.

In 2000, he was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. From 1997-99, he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of the South in Seawannee, Tenn., where his offense ranked fifth in the nation in rushing and second in the conference in total offense during his three seasons.

He was at Oregon State from 1991-96, where he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. The Beavers led the Pac-10 in rushing four straight years and he was named the league's top "Offensive Backfield Coach" in 1993.

He began his career at Kentucky (1979-81) and Texas A&M (1982-84), where he worked with the offensive line. He also spent six seasons at Northern Illinois (1985-90), coordinating an offense that set 51 school records.

Born June 16, 1956, the Lexington, Ky., native played defensive back at Georgetown (Ky.) College and earned his bachelor's in business administration in 1978.

He and his wife Kathy have a daughter, Amy, who is a Louisville graduate. Kathy is the daughter of legendary University of Kentucky basketball coach Joe B. Hall.

PAUL PETRINO

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / WIDE RECEIVERS

Paul Petrino, the younger brother of head coach Bobby Petrino, is in his first season as Arkansas' offensive coordinator after joining the staff on Dec. 14.

The younger Petrino coached with his brother at Louisville from 2003-06 and in 2007 with the Atlanta Falcons of the National Football League. He was the receivers coach in Atlanta after working the four previous years as offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Louisville. Playing for Petrino in Atlanta, Roddy White enjoyed the best season of his NFL career with 83 catches for 1,202 yards.

His teams at Louisville averaged 41.1 points a game over his four seasons, including 34.6 in 2003, 49.8 in 2004, 43.3 in 2005 and 37.8 in 2006.

He has 17 years of collegiate coaching experience in addition to spending a year in the NFL.

While he was at Louisville, the Cardinals and Texas Tech were the only two schools in the nation to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense for four straight seasons (2003-06). In 50 games at Louisville, 41 of those victories, his teams scored 40 or more points 28 times, 50 or more 14 times and 60 or more seven times.

In 2006, when the Cardinals went 12-1, won the Big East Conference title, beat No. 12 Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, 24-13, and finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation, Louisville was second in the country in total offense (475.3), seventh in passing (290.0) and fourth in scoring (37.8). One of his players, Harry Douglas, made 70 receptions and set a school record with 1,265 yards in earning first-team All-Big East honors.

In 2005, Louisville (9-3) was ninth in the nation in offense (482.1) and third in scoring (43.4) with six offensive players earning first-team all-conference honors. Running back Michael Bush led the nation with 24 touchdowns while receiver Joshua Tinch was a first-team All-Big East selection and receiver Mario Urrutia was second in the nation in yards per catch.

The 2004 team, which won the Conference USA title, beat No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl, 44-40, finished 11-1 and ended the year ranked No. 7 in the nation, led the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8), and set an NCAA record by scoring 55 or more points in five straight games.

The Cardinals set school records for total yards, rushing yards and points in a season (597) in 2004. Louisville scored 50 or more points seven times. Receiver J.R. Russell earned all-conference honors for the second straight season after catching 73 passes. Russell had 75 receptions for a school-record 1,213 yards in 2003, when the Cardinals went 9-4.

Petrino began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Carroll College in his hometown of Helena, Mont. He worked for his father, Bob, Sr., at Carroll in 1990 and 1991.

He moved to Idaho for the next three years (1992-94) where he coached receivers (1993-94), running backs (1992) and special teams. As running backs coach in '92, he coached Sherriden May, who earned All-America honors and led all I-AA players with 150 points scored while rushing for 1,111 yards.

He moved to Utah State for the next three seasons (1995-97) as receivers coach and special teams coordinator. In '95, receiver Kevin Alexander finished second in the nation in receptions and third in receiving yards.

In 1998, he went to Louisville for two years and his first stint on the Cardinal staff. In 1998, with Bobby coaching quarterbacks and Paul coaching receivers, UL set then-records for points (473), scoring average (39.4), touchdowns, passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass attempts, completions and total offense.

As receivers coach and special teams coordinator, Louisville was 7-5 in 1998 and '99 and earned bowl bids both seasons. Under Petrino's watch, Arnold Jackson had 90 catches for 1,165 yards in '98 and 101 receptions for 1,209 yards in '99.

Petrino coached three wide receivers who set single-season yardage records at Louisville. Jackson totaled 1,209 yards in 1999, Russell broke the record in 2003 with 1,213 yards and Douglas set the record in 2006 with 1,265 yards.

From 2000-02, he was the quarterbacks coach at Southern Mississippi. In his three seasons, the Golden Eagles went 8-4, 6-5 and 7-6 with two bowl bids.

Born in Butte, Mont., on May 25, 1967, he was a four-year starter at quarterback for his father at Carroll College from 1985-88. He set 16 school records and earned Kodak All-America honors and was named the Football Gazette NAIA Division II Player of the Year as a senior. In his four seasons, Carroll was 36-6 and won four Frontier Conference titles. Petrino was an all-conference and all-region selection all four years and was a two-time All-American.

Petrino and his wife Maya have two daughters, Anne Mari and Ava, and a son, Mason. Anne Mari and Mason are twins.

WILLY ROBINSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SAFETIES

Willy Robinson, a former defensive coordinator in the NFL and in college, is in his first season as defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Arkansas after joining the staff on Feb. 6.

Robinson has 30 years of coaching experience, including 12 as an assistant in the NFL and 18 years in the collegiate ranks.

The defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers in 2004, he was the secondary coach for the St. Louis Rams in 2006-07 where he coached former Razorback Darius Vinnett. He was the senior defensive assistant and secondary coach in New Orleans in 2005 after coaching the defensive backs for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2000-03. He was also the secondary coach for the Seattle Seahawks from 1995-98.

In 1999, he was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State, where he coached the Pacific 10 Conference's top scoring and pass efficiency units. OSU was also No. 9 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (98.9), No. 30 in scoring defense (23.1) and No. 48 in total defense (355.6).

With the Rams in 2006, he helped St. Louis improve its pass defense to third-best in the NFL and eighth-best overall in the NFL, allowing only 189.7 passing yards a game, which was the lowest for St. Louis since 1998 (176.9).

While with the Seahawks, he helped Shawn Springs and Daryl Williams earn Pro Bowl berths.

Robinson coached the secondary at the University of Miami in 1994 before going with head coach Dennis Erickson to Seattle. Robinson also coached with Erickson at Oregon State and in San Francisco.

Before going to Miami, Robinson spent 14 years at Fresno State, his alma mater, under head coach Jim Sweeney. The Bulldogs advanced to six bowl games during his tenure. At Fresno, he coached the secondary (1980-86), outside linebackers (1987-89) and later the secondary again along with handling special teams (1990). In 1988, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and then served as sole defensive coordinator in 1992-93 before going to Miami for the 1994 season. Miami played for a national championship against Nebraska in the 1995 Orange Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fresno State in 1978 and earned his first full-time position the following season as outside linebackers coach at San Jose State.

The Fort Carson, Colo., native played two seasons (1975-76) at the College of the Sequoias (Calif.) before transferring to Fresno State, where he played defensive back in 1977-78 and earned first-team All-Pacific Coast Conference honors as a junior and second-team honors as a senior.

Robinson is married to wife, Susan, and has two daughters, Brittany and Mallory, and a stepson, Morgan.

BOBBY ALLEN

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Bobby Allen is entering his 11th year on the staff at Arkansas, his first under head coach Bobby Petrino, but his second as the defensive line coach. A two-time co-defensive coordinator at Arkansas (1998 and 2000), he coached the cornerbacks last year, but coached the line in 2001.

Allen was a part of former head coach Houston Nutt's staff from 1998-2007. This is his 26th overall season as a collegiate coach. He coached the Razorback cornerbacks from 2003-07 along with the free safeties from 2003-04.

Under Allen's guidance, the Razorback secondary ranked among the best units in the nation in defending the pass in 2007. Arkansas led the SEC and was second in the nation in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 97.8. The Hogs ranked second in the SEC with 20 interceptions, including 11 by Allen's cornerback unit. Arkansas' secondary had three games with four or more interceptions.

In addition, two UA cornerbacks — Michael Grant and Jerell Norton — ranked in the top five of the conference's passes defended category. Grant led the SEC with 21 (1.62) passes broken up during the season while Norton ranked fourth with 15 (1.15). Norton led the team, tied for fourth in the SEC and tied for 40th in the nation with five interceptions (.38 per game) for 174 yards and a touchdown. His season mark of 174 yards on interception returns ranks second on UA's all-time list.

Grant led the cornerbacks and ranked fifth on the team with 75 tackles (61U, 14A). He also tacked on three interceptions for 15 yards. Grant's efforts earned him a spot on the All-SEC second team.

In 2006, cornerback Chris Houston, an honorable mention All-American, spent the season containing some of the best wide receivers in the nation. The junior held USC's Dwayne Jarrett to his lowest receiving output in 34 games and stifled other standouts, including Tennessee's Robert Meachum, Auburn's Courtney Taylor and Vanderbilt's Earl Bennett. Houston notched 45 tackles and a team-leading three interceptions for 129 yards and a touchdown. He also broke up a team-leading 13 passes.

In 2005, cornerbacks Michael Coe, Houston, Michael Grant and Richardson finished first through fourth, respectively, on the team with a combined 29 passes broken up. Coe and Grant also tied for second on the club with three interceptions each, and those four had a total of 117 tackles, helping the Razorbacks rank 34th in the nation in total defense by allowing 341 yards per game.

In 2004, free safety Vickiel Vaughn was first on the team in tackles with 66 while freshman cornerback Darius Vinnett ranked fifth with 54 stops.

In 2003, UA ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference and 21st in the nation by holding opponents to 187.0 passing yards per game. The Razorbacks also intercepted 17 passes, the third-most in the league.

Since joining Arkansas' coaching staff on Dec. 11, 1997, Allen has served as defensive coordinator (1998, 2000), coached the inside linebackers (1998-99), the middle and strong side linebackers (both in 2002), and the defensive line (2001) before handling the cornerbacks and free safeties in 2003 and 2004. The past three seasons (2005-07), Allen worked with cornerbacks exclusively.

Allen has held or shared UA's defensive coordinator duties on two separate occasions. He served as co-defensive coordinator with Keith Burns in 1998 and shared the duties with John Thompson during the 2000 season. When Burns left UA following the 1999 regular season, Allen was named the Razorbacks' defensive coordinator for Arkansas' meeting with Texas in the 2000 Cotton Bowl.

In 1998, Allen helped direct a Razorback defensive unit that ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense, 10th in turnover margin and 13th in scoring defense. In 2000, Allen helped guide a Razorback defense that allowed just 292.1 yards per game to lead the Southeastern Conference and rank 12th nationally in total defense.

Allen began his coaching career at Colorado where he served as a graduate assistant during the 1983 and 1984 seasons. After helping Minnesota to an Independence Bowl berth as a defensive secondary graduate assistant in 1985, Allen landed his first full-time position when he was named defensive coordinator at Drake, where he served from 1986 to 1988.

Allen was a standout prep quarterback at Seneca Valley High School in Gaithersburg, Md., where he was named the Washington, D.C., area player of the year as a senior and also excelled in baseball and basketball. He went on to earn three varsity letters while playing three positions – kicker, quarterback and outside linebacker – at Virginia Tech, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in marketing in 1983.

Born March 5, 1959, Allen is married to the former Marcela Garcia. The couple has one daughter, Daniela, and three sons, Christian, Brandon and Austin.

KIRK BOTKIN | FOOTBALL STAFF

KIRK BOTKIN

DEFENSIVE ENDS / SPECIAL TEAMS

Former Razorback tight end Kirk Botkin is in his first season as an assistant after joining head coach Bobby Petrino's staff on Jan. 3. Botkin will coach the defensive ends and special teams after spending the two previous years coaching linebackers and special teams at Louisiana-Monroe.

He spent four years playing in the NFL and has worked as a special teams coordinator the last seven years, two at ULM and the previous five at Jacksonville State University.

At ULM in 2007, he helped the Warhawks record their first non-losing season in 14 years (6-6) with a win at Alabama.

From 2001-05, he was an assistant at Jacksonville State under former Arkansas head coach Jack Crowe. He was the offensive tackles and tight ends coach from 2001-03 and linebackers coach and defensive consultant in 2004 and '05 while also working as special teams coordinator all five seasons. His last two years, he was also the assistant head coach.

Highlights at JSU include winning I-AA Ohio Valley Conference titles in 2003 and 2004. He also coached an All-American punt returner and seven all-conference performers, including two at linebacker, four on the offensive line or at tight end, and one punter.

Special teams highlights include allowing no blocked punts at ULM while blocking 11 field goal or PAT attempts in 2006 and 2007, and an average of four punts and four field goal or PAT blocks a year in his five years at Jacksonville State.

The Baytown, Texas, native lettered at Arkansas from 1990-93. A team captain in '93, he was Arkansas' first All-Southeastern Conference selection, earning all-league honors as a tight end in 1992 and 1993. He was also named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

Botkin led the Hogs with 33 receptions for 257 yards in 1992 and had 23 catches for another 257 yards in 1993. For his career, he had 87 receptions for 819 yards and five touchdowns.

He helped Arkansas earn an Independence Bowl bid in 1991, he played in the 1993 Blue-Gray Game and he ended his career seventh on Arkansas' career receptions list.

He spent four years in the NFL, including playing for Bill Parcells in New England (1994), Jim Mora in New Orleans (1994-95) and Bill Cowher in Pittsburgh (1996-97). He helped the Steelers win an AFC Central Division title and advance to the 1998 AFC Championship Game.

After an injury ended his career, he began his coaching career at his hometown high school of Robert E. Lee High in Baytown. He worked with the tight ends and receivers in 1999 before going to Rice where he coached tight ends as a graduate assistant in 2000.

Botkin is married to the former Rebecca Holloway of Hazen, Ark. They have three children – Lane, Ty and Brynn.

TIM HORTON

RUNNING BACKS / TIGHT ENDS / RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Former Razorback Tim Horton is in his second season on the Arkansas coaching staff and his first under head coach Bobby Petrino. Horton is Arkansas' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator after serving as the running backs coach in 2007.

After returning to his alma mater on July 18, 2007, he helped Arkansas finish 8-5 with a spot in last year's Cotton Bowl. He coached All-America running backs Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. McFadden was the Heisman Trophy runner-up and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He and Jones each rushed for more than 1,000 yards for the second straight season. McFadden ran for a school-record 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns with averages of 140.8 yards per game and 5.6 yards per carry. Jones rushed for 1,162 yards and 11 touchdowns with averages of 89.4 yards per game and 8.7 per attempt.

Before returning to Arkansas, where Horton played from 1986-89, he was at Air Force for spring 2007, at Kansas State for the 2006 season and at Air Force for the seven previous years.

He came to Arkansas after taking the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coaching position at Air Force in January 2007. During the 2006 season, he was the running backs coach at Kansas State, helping the Wildcats earn a Texas Bowl appearance.

Prior to his one season at KSU, he spent seven seasons at Air Force (1999-2005). He was the receivers coach for six years (1999-2004) and the running backs coach for one.

He worked with former Falcon stars Matt Farmer, Ryan Fleming, Alec Messerall and Jason Brown.

Horton was recognized by the Colorado Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes as one of its coaches of the year in 2004.

He began his coaching career at Appalachian State in 1990 and helped guide the Mountaineers to a 67-32 record during his eight years, including Southern Conference championships in 1991 and 1995, and five appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

From 1990-92, Horton coached Appalachian State's receivers and tight ends before taking over as the Mountaineers' running backs coach in 1993. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

A graduate of the University of Arkansas, Horton earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1990. While at Arkansas, he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter as a split end and punt returner for the Razorbacks under head coach Ken Hatfield. He caught 49 passes for 942 yards and one touchdown in his career, including hauling in 23 catches for 453 yards as a senior in 1989. Horton also returned 78 punts for 657 yards in his collegiate career.

Horton's four years at Arkansas proved to be among the most successful in school history as the Razorbacks compiled a 38-11 record, won back-to-back Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989 and appeared in four straight bowl games. In fact, Horton's graduating class remains tied for the school record for the most wins in a four-year period.

A two-time academic all-conference selection, Horton was a second-team all-conference selection in 1989 and served as the Razorbacks' team captain that season. In high school, Horton was a two-time all-state running back at Conway (Ark.) High School.

Horton and his wife Lauren have one daughter, Caroline, and one son, Jackson. Horton is the son of former Arkansas player, Razorback assistant coach, UCA head coach and current Razorback Foundation vice-president Harold Horton.

REGGIE JOHNSON

LINEBACKERS

Reggie Johnson is in his first year with the Razorbacks and is coaching the linebackers after joining the staff on Jan. 3.

Johnson was on head coach Bobby Petrino's staff at Louisville from 2003-06 and remained on the Cardinals' staff in 2007.

The Hollandale, Miss., native coached the defensive line in 2003, the linebackers in 2004-2005 and 2007, and the inside linebackers in 2006.

In his first season, Marcus Jones recorded a team-high 10 sacks and earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. In 2004, his first year with the linebackers, Robert McCune led the team in tackles for the second straight season and was a first-team All-Conference USA pick. McCune was a fifth-round NFL Draft selection by Washington. Johnson also worked with Brandon Johnson, the team's second-leading tackler, who was a fifth-round draft pick for the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2006, Johnson coached just the inside linebackers, including Nate Harris, who was the team's leading tackler. Harris signed a free-agent contract with Kansas City.

In 2007, Lamar Myles led the team with 128 stops after finishing second on the club in 2006. Myles along with Malik Jackson signed free agent deals with Jacksonville and Oakland, respectively.

Johnson was a four-year letterman at Louisville from 1987-90. His senior year, he helped the Cardinals finish 10-1-1 with a 34-7 victory over Alabama in the Fiesta Bowl. He was fourth on the team with 82 tackles.

He had a career-high 91 tackles as a junior in 1989 and ended his career with 252 tackles.

After earning his bachelor's in political science from Louisville in 1996, he began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at UL (1997-98) while earning his master's in athletic administration in 1998.

His first full-time coaching position was at Alabama A&M. He coached the defensive tackles in 1998 and '99, and the inside linebackers and was special teams coordinator in 2000.

Johnson moved to Texas-El Paso where he coached defensive ends in 2001 and linebackers in 2002 before joining Petrino's staff at Louisville in 2003.

Johnson and his wife Eulice have two children, Sydney and Jordan.

GARRICK MCGEE

QUARTERBACKS

Former Oklahoma quarterback and Jacksonville Jaguars assistant Garrick McGee is in his first season as the quarterbacks coach at Arkansas after joining Bobby Petrino's staff on Jan. 3.

McGee spent the last four seasons (2004-07) at Northwestern University where he was the receivers and punt return coach his first two seasons, and the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator in 2006 and '07.

Directing the Wildcat's spread offense, McGee's 2007 unit led the Big Ten and was No. 11 in the nation in passing with 307.9 yards per game, and led the Big Ten and was No. 31 in the country in total offense with 427.7 yards per game.

In 2005, his receiving corps had three wideouts ranked in the top 10 on the Big Ten season receptions list for the first time in school history. That same season, Northwestern became just the second in Big Ten history to average more than 500 yards per game with 500.3 per contest, which ranked fourth nationally. The Wildcats led the Big Ten with 306.8 yards passing per game, which also ranked seventh in the nation.

His first season at Northwestern (2004), Wildcat receivers averaged 237.3 yards per game, NU's best since 2001. He coached two All-Big Ten receivers in Mark Philmore and Shaun Herbert.

McGee was the receivers and kickoff return coach for head coach John Robinson at Nevada-Las Vegas in 2003.

In 2002, he was the receivers coach at Toledo, helping the Rockets earn a spot in the Motor City Bowl with a Mid-America Conference West Division title. Toledo's receivers combined for 309 receptions for 3,611 yards and 25 touchdowns with Carl Ford becoming the first 1,000-yard receiver in school history with 79 catches for 1,042 yards and a school record-tying nine scores.

Toledo was fifth in the nation in total offense with 472 yards per game, setting school records for total offense (6,752 yards) and passing yards (3,611).

The Tulsa, Okla., native began his coaching career at Langston (Okla.) University where from 1996-98 he first coached defensive backs before moving to quarterbacks, receivers and special teams. He also worked as the equipment manager and assisted with track and field.

He was the receivers and kickoff return coach at Northern Iowa in 1999, helping UNI set school records for total offense (5,253 yards) and passing yards (3,722).

In 2001 and 2002, he was an offensive assistant and quality control coach with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He worked as an assistant to the quarterbacks coach under Petrino, helping quarterbacks and receivers with fundamentals, and assisted in all phases of special teams.

Prior to the 2005 season, McGee was one of 10 coaches selected to participate in the NCAA Expert Coaching Academy. The program is designed to teach and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in NCAA head coach positions at the I-A level.

McGee prepped at Booker T. Washington High in Tulsa for his father, Larry McGee, who is now deceased. He played at Arizona State in 1991 and '92 under Petrino, went to Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 1993 and transferred to Oklahoma. He played two years for the Sooners and ended his career fourth on OU's career passing list with 2,449 yards. He was named the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year by the league's coaches in 1994.

McGee graduated from Booker T. Washington in 1991, earned an associates degree from Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 1993 and his bachelor's from OU in 1996.

LORENZO WARD | FOOTBALL STAFF

LORENZO WARD

SECONDARY

Former Virginia Tech assistant Lorenzo Ward is in his first year with the Razorbacks as the secondary coach after joining the staff on Jan. 3.

Ward was on the staff with the NFL's Oakland Raiders in 2006 after spending the seven previous years as an assistant under Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech.

A former player at Alabama, he coached the secondary at VTU from 1999-2005 with five of his players earning All-Big East honors and one making the All-Atlantic Coast Conference squad.

Virginia Tech's defense led the nation in total defense, was third in pass defense and second in pass efficiency defense in 2005. The 2004 defense ranked fourth in the nation in pass defense and in interceptions. In 2002, the Hokies led the nation with 24 interceptions. The 2001 defense was No. 2 in the nation in total defense while the 2000 unit was No. 3 in interceptions. The 1999 defense was No. 3 in total defense and No. 7 in pass efficiency defense.

In 2006, Ward was an assistant defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coach under Art Shell with the Raiders. He coached the cornerback position, and gunners and vice on special teams.

From 1994-99, he was an assistant at Tennessee-Chattanooga, including a two-year stint (1998-99) as defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach. He coached the DBs from 1994-96 and the running backs in 1997. He also coached kickoff coverage and the punt team.

Ward played at Alabama from 1986-89, helping the Crimson Tide go 33-15 with an SEC title in 1989. The Sporting News named him Special Teams Player of the Year in 1990 as Alabama's unit was ranked No. 1 in the nation. Ward and Alabama played in the 1986 Sun Bowl, 1988 Hall of Fame Bowl, 1988 Sun Bowl and 1990 Sugar Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Alabama in 1991 before going to Newnan (Ga.) High School as an assistant in 1992. He worked with the DBs at both Alabama and at Newnan, where he also coached the track team. He was a graduate assistant, working with the outside linebackers, in the fall of 1993 before going to Tennessee-Chattanooga.

Ward earned his bachelor's in physical education from Alabama in 1991. Married to the former Tara Tubbs, they are the parents of Lorenzo Donovan Ward, Jr.

JASON VELTKAMP

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jason Veltkamp is in his first season as the head strength and conditioning coach after joining the staff on Jan. 3.

The Bozeman, Mont., native spent the four previous years (2004-07) as the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Louisville, including the first three years with head coach

Bobby Petrino. Over his first three seasons with the Cardinals, Louisville earned trips to the Liberty, Gator and Orange bowls. In his time at Louisville, he coordinated the development of 19 future NFL Draft selections.

Before going to Louisville, he was the director of strength and conditioning at the University of Utah from 2001-03 after working as an assistant from 1999-2000.

While with the Utes, the football team won two Mountain West Conference championships and earned three bowl bids, and had wins over Southern California in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl and Southern Mississippi in the 2003 Liberty Bowl. The men's basketball team also won three conference titles and earned three NCAA Tournament bids with Veltkamp organizing their workouts.

Veltkamp began his career in 1995 as a student assistant and volunteer coach working with the offensive line at Carroll College in Helena, Mont. A little more than a year later he moved into strength and conditioning as the coach for the Helena Ice Pirates Junior "A" hockey team for the 1996 season. He returned to Carroll and assisted with spring practice before working at Utah State as a graduate assistant from 1997-98. His time at USU saw him work with 14 sports, including football, basketball, volleyball and track.

Athletes he has worked with include three NFL first-round draft picks in defensive tackle Amobe Okoye (Houston), offensive tackle Jordan Gross (Carolina) and quarterback Alex Smith (San Francisco). He also worked with basketball center Andrew Bogut (Milwaukee). Other professional athletes he has worked with include Jason Spitz (Green Bay), Steve Smith and Maake Kemoeatu (Carolina), Elvis Dumervil (Denver), Michael Bush (Oakland), Kolby Smith (Kansas City) and Kerry Rhodes (New York Jets) in football, and Michael Doleac (Minnesota) in basketball.

The Carroll College graduate was a four-year starter for the Fighting Saints, where he played for Bob Petrino, Sr. A two-time all-conference selection in 1993 and 1994, he was also a team captain in 1994.

Veltkamp earned his master's degree in exercise science from Utah State in 1998 and is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He is also a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

He and his wife Kristen have two sons, Caden and Colton.

ARKANSAS

DEAN CAMPBELL

DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS

Dean Campbell is in his first year as the director of high school relations after joining head coach Bobby Petrino's staff on Jan. 3.

Campbell, who is from Austin, Texas, earned a bachelor's degree in management from Texas in 1972. He joined the staff after spending the last seven years as an assistant coach at Air Force (2000-06) where he coached running backs the first five years and defensive backs the last two. He coached at Texas Tech from 1992-99 and at Rice from 1989-91.

He began his career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M in 1973 and '74, and stayed at A&M as a full-time assistant from 1975-77 as defensive backs coach.

After a year coaching defensive backs at New Mexico (1978), he went back to A&M to coach the same position from 1979-81. From 1982-85, he coached DBs at Texas before switching to receivers in 1986.

Campbell coached defensive backs at North Carolina in 1987. He coached DBs at Rice in 1989, but was the defensive backs coach and passing game coordinator for the Owls in 1990 and '91. He coached linebackers at Texas Tech in 1992 and DBs from 1993-99. From 2000-04, he was the running backs coach at Air Force, but moved back to the secondary and coached DBs in 2005 and '06.

Career highlights include the offense at Air Force ranking in the top five nationally in rushing each season he coached the running backs (2000-04) with a No. 1 ranking in 2002, the defense at Texas Tech ranking 25th in the nation in pass defense in 1999 when the Red Raiders allowed the second-lowest number of touchdown passes in the nation (eight), Texas Tech ranking eighth in the nation in total defense in 1998, the defense at Texas Tech ranking 18th in the country in pass defense and No. 5 in lowest pass completion percentage in 1996, the defense at TTU ranking third in the nation in pass defense and first in lowest pass completion percentage in both 1994 and '95, Texas ranking No. 2 in the country in pass defense in 1983 with two consensus All-Americans in the same secondary for the first time in NCAA history (Jerry Gray and Mossy Cade), Texas ranking No. 1 in the nation in total defense in 1983, and Texas A&M ranking first nationally in total defense in 1975, second in 1974 and fourth in 1976.

Campbell played at Texas three years and lettered as a receiver and on special teams in 1970 and '71, helping UT win the national championship in '70 and Southwest Conference titles in '70 and '71. Campbell has participated in 18 bowl games over his career - three as a player and 15 as a coach, including the Cotton (1970, 71, 72, 84, 95), Bluebonnet (1979, 85), Sun (1976, 82, 93), Independence (1981, 98), Liberty (1975), Freedom (1984), Copper (1995), Alamo (1996), Silicon Valley (2000) and San Francisco (2002).

The Stephen F. Austin High School graduate is married to Cindy and they are the parents of daughter Cris and son Scott.

MARK ROBINSON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Mark Robinson is in his first year as Arkansas' director of football operations after spending the last four years as a football operations assistant at Texas A&M.

He joined head coach Bobby Petrino's staff on Jan. 3.

Robinson earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Appalachian State in 2003 and began his career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M during the 2003-04 academic year.

At A&M, he assisted with the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, practice, game day operations, recruiting and coaching. He assisted the staff with recruiting letters and videos, worked with the compliance office, handled player guest tickets, coordinated various activities and functions related to bowl games, assisted with recruiting weekends and official visits, put together a player policy manual and supervised team building activities.

As a volunteer assistant during the 2003 season, he was responsible for quality control during practices, assisted with the creation of the playbook and supervised the player lounge.

Robinson played football at Appalachian State from 1998-2002. The Mountaineers were ranked in the top 10 in the nation in I-AA and earned playoff bids all five seasons. He set the school record with a 615-pound squat lift and received the Strongest Player award on the team his senior year.

The Greensboro, N.C., native is married to the former Valerie Lynch. They have one daughter, Caroline, who was born in March 2008.

CHIP LONG

GRADUATE ASSISTANT (OFFENSE)

Beginning his first season with the University of Arkansas, Chip Long serves as a graduate assistant coach working with the offense for the Razorback football staff.

In his role as a graduate assistant, Long will work with the Arkansas tight ends under the tutelage of offensive coordinator Paul Petrino.

Although this is Long's first season at Arkansas, it is not his first with members of the Razorback coaching staff. Prior to landing in Fayetteville he spent two seasons at Louisville and worked with the wide receivers and quarterbacks. His first year with the Cardinals was spent with Petrino and the second with Jeff Brohm.

A receiver and tight end for North Alabama, Long was a multi-year starter and in 2005 earned All-America, first-team All-South Region and first-team All-Gulf South Conference honors.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Long received his bachelor's degree in history with minors in both psychology and business administration.

DEREK MOORE

GRADUATE ASSISTANT (DEFENSE)

Joining the Arkansas coaching staff in a new capacity this fall is Derek Moore, who has been named a graduate assistant working with the defense. A former player for the University of Arkansas, his playing career was cut short due to injury and he has spent the past three seasons acting as a student coach.

As a graduate assistant coach, Moore's responsibilities include assisting defensive coordinator Willy Robinson with on-field and off-field activities.

Moore signed and joined the Razorback roster in the fall of 2003, a season in which he redshirted. In his second season in Fayetteville, he was a regular in the defensive line rotation before suffering a traumatic leg injury which ended his playing career. Moore would stay with the team through the fall 2007 season as a student coach working with the defensive line for two seasons and the safeties for one. Moore also worked on opponent film breakdown, scouting reports and special team scout teams.

Prior to joining the Razorbacks, Moore was a letter winner in both football and track at Fort Smith's Southside High School. He received all-state honors in both 2001 and 2002.

Moore received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in the spring of 2008.

TIM CHENEY

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

When it comes to ordering, maintaining and distributing equipment, Arkansas can rely on the experience of Tim Cheney.

Entering his 19th year as the equipment manager, Cheney is in charge of all aspects of Razorback equipment. He and his staff handle the distribution to athletes and coaches, repairs and all the ordering and laundering. They are also responsible for coordinating with each coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts.

Cheney was involved with the Razorback program long before he became equipment manager. He worked four years as a student athletic trainer for long-time Director of Athletic Training Dean Weber, spending each year with the football program and working one season with baseball. He became an assistant in the equipment room before assuming his current position in 1990.

He has worked numerous bowl games at Arkansas, including five Cotton bowls, two Capital One bowls, the Orange Bowl, the Florida Citrus Bowl, the Holiday Bowl, two Liberty bowls, the CarQuest Bowl, two Independence bowls, the Music City Bowl and the Las Vegas Bowl.

Cheney also spent three years as a student athletic trainer at Pine Bluff's White Hall High School before graduating in 1984.

Born May 26, 1966, he and his wife, Tracey, have one daughter; Tye, 13, and one son; Tripp, nine.

WAQA DAMUNI

ACADEMIC COORDINATOR – FOOTBALL

Waqa Damuni is in his first year with the Razorbacks and eighth as an academic coordinator to student-athletes at the Division I level. Joining Arkansas from Colorado, Damuni's responsibilities with the Razorbacks include tracking NCAA initial and continuing eligibility, coordinating the academic affairs for football student-athletes, and assisting the coaching staff with on-campus recruiting and day-to-day operations.

Prior to landing in Fayetteville, Damuni made stops at Colorado, Memphis and his alma mater, Utah State, where he was an assistant director, counselor and graduate assistant, respectively. Some of the duties he has held include implementing a monitoring and reporting program for student-athletes and working with numerous men's and women's teams by assisting each of his coaching staffs via a shared academic vision of the university with prospective student-athletes.

Damuni was a counselor for the State of Utah-Juvenile Justice Services serving in different capacities including detention, family crisis intervention and community outreach services. He also served as the liaison between the Juvenile Justice Services and the Hispanic community in the Cache Valley area. He is fluent in Spanish after serving a two-year church mission in Monterrey, Mexico.

Damuni earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Utah State University in Logan, Utah. He received his bachelor's of art degree in sociology in 1998 with minors in social work and Spanish. He went on to earn a master's in business information systems in 2005. He began his football career as a tight end at Dixie Junior College in St. George, Utah, and was recruited to Utah State by Coach Bobby Petrino. A three-year letterman, he helped the Aggies win back-to-back Big West Conference championships.

A native of Laie, Hawaii, he is married to the former Val Tonga of Millbrae, Calif. They have six children – Emosi (10), Levani (9), Junior (7), Jovesa (6), Lavinia (4) and Lusiana (1).

DANN KABALA

ACADEMIC COORDINATOR – FOOTBALL

Dann Kabala, in his first year with the Arkansas football program as an academic coordinator, is charged with assisting the Razorbacks in their classroom progress.

Some of Kabala's duties include handling initial NCAA eligibility for incoming football recruits, monitoring the continuing eligibility of the football student-athletes, overseeing degree completion programs and assisting with the daily operations of the program. Kabala works closely with both academic services and the football coaching staff to ensure that each of the 100-plus Razorbacks is ready to play come game day.

He has worked with nearly every level of football from high school to professional. Kabala began his career as a football operations intern at Indiana University. He spent two seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars football operations department where he was first introduced to head coach Bobby Petrino and quarterbacks coach Garrick McGee. Kabala's duties with the Jaguars included salary cap management, contract advising, and travel and training camp logistics. Kabala spent the next three years at the University of Pittsburgh where he worked alongside current Arkansas Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long. As a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, Kabala had several duties regarding the academic standing of the Panthers as well as evaluating football prospect film, coordinating recruiting visits, assisting with summer football camps and working with the special teams. Kabala also spent two years as an assistant athletic director and wide receivers/defensive backs coach for Fox Chapel Area School District in Pittsburgh.

Kabala is a 2001 graduate from Indiana University where he earned a degree in sports marketing and management. After starting the NFL contract-advising company Axxess Sports & Entertainment, Kabala returned to school and earned a master's degree in business administration from the University of Pittsburgh in 2007. Kabala played college football at Johns Hopkins University, and was ranked eighth in the country in kickoff return average as a freshman.

KEVIN TRAINOR

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR MEDIA RELATIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

In his 14th year with the Razorbacks, Kevin Trainor is in his second year as associate athletic director for media relations and communications after working the previous four as assistant athletic director for sports information. Trainor, who is in his ninth year heading UA's media relations office, joined the Razorbacks in July of 1995 and served three years as assistant director before being promoted to associate in 1998 and to the sports information director's post in 2000.

Trainor oversees the media and public relations effort for Arkansas' 19 intercollegiate sports locally, regionally and nationally. He is responsible for developing and implementing public relations strategies for the athletic department. He also oversees administrative matters, including the production of media guides and game programs, and management of the department's Web site, ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

Trainor is the primary media contact for the football program. During his tenure in that position, Arkansas has boasted nine All-Americans, including 2006 and 2007 Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, 2007 Rimington Trophy winner Jonathan Luigs and 2003 Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award finalist Shawn Andrews. In 2006, he was recognized for his contributions to college football by the All-American Football Foundation with the Scoop Hudgens Outstanding Sports Information Director Award.

In his role as associate SID, Trainor worked closely with football and served as the primary contact for the 2000 SEC Tournament champion Arkansas basketball squad. He also served as the color analyst on the Razorback Baseball Radio Network for five years.

His collegiate experience includes 41 conference championships. He served as meet director for the 2006 SEC Outdoor Track and Field Championships at John McDonnell Field and as the assistant media coordinator for the 1995 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament. He has worked on the event management staffs of 13 Cotton Bowl games and the 1995 USF&G Sugar Bowl. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association of America (USBWAA).

Trainor earned his bachelor's in journalism from Arkansas in 1994. He also earned his master's from the UA in 2005.

Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, reside in Fayetteville and are the parents of Emma, seven, and Ellie, three. The Fredonia, Kan., native is the brother of former Arkansas All-American placekicker Kendall Trainor.

ARKANSAS

ANDREW WAGNER

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS VIDEO

Joining the University of Arkansas for the 2008 season is director of sports video Andrew Wagner, who comes to the Razorback program after spending eight years with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the National Football League.

A veteran of the professional ranks, Wagner's appointment as Arkansas' video coordinator is his first collegiate experience, but the 10-year veteran of the NFL knows what the top teams need to be successful.

Prior to arriving in Fayetteville, Wagner was an assistant video coordinator with the Jaguars where he broke down game film on opponents, maintained professional and amateur video tape libraries, created highlight tapes and maintained the computer servers that housed Jacksonville's archives. He joined the Florida team in 2000 and was a staff member of the Jaguars 2005 and 2007 wild card playoff teams. The 2007 squad advanced to the second round of the AFC playoffs.

Wagner's professional career began as an intern with the Indianapolis Colts in the summer of 1998. He would stay with Indianapolis for two seasons preparing video equipment for practice, capturing video at all Colt games and practices and assisting with the breakdown of opponent special team's film.

A native of Indiana, Wagner graduated from Bremen High School in Bremen, Ind., before attending Butler University where he earned a bachelor's of science degree in telecommunications in 1999. He was a member of the Dean's List at Butler. Wagner and his wife Karen reside in Fayetteville with their two daughters, Katelyn, 2, and Makenzie, 1.

DEAN WEBER

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC TRAINING

Director of Athletic Training Dean Weber is truly the dean of the football department. Other than former Arkansas Athletics Director Frank Broyles, no other person has been associated with UA football longer. The 2008 season is his 36th with the Razorbacks.

Weber's duties include serving as head athletic trainer for the football Hogs, and overseeing operations for the men's athletic training room.

A 1998 inductee into the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame, he and former assistant Kevin Pitts were also recognized that same year by the organization as the state's Athletic Trainers of the Year.

He is also a 2000 inductee in the UA Sports Hall of Honor and a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame. His professional career has made Weber noted for his work with athletic shoes as they apply to playing surfaces and his research on turf toe injuries.

In 1984, Weber was selected to the United States Olympic Team as athletic trainer after previously serving on the athletic training staff at the National Sports Festival three times.

Weber joined the Arkansas staff in March 1973, after serving as assistant athletic trainer at North Carolina. He worked for the Tar Heels for five years before moving to Fayetteville.

His career as an athletic trainer began during high school in Fairfax, Va., and continued into his college days at Bridgewater (Va.) College, where he graduated in 1967 with a bachelor of arts degree.

He has participated in 26 bowl games as an athletic trainer, including every Razorback bowl game since the 1976 Cotton Bowl. In addition, Weber has twice been on the athletic training staff at the Japan Bowl and worked with teams that went to the NCAA Final Four twice while he was at North Carolina.

Weber has two children, Matt and Ben, and 12 grandchildren, Drew, Taylor, Taylor, Caleb, Spencer, Abby, Kendall, Mason, Emily, Tyler Hays, Conner and newly born Eli David.

OUTLOOK: He ended the 2007 season as the backup to both Nate Garner and DeMarcus Love at right tackle and right guard, respectively. Heading into 2008, he is entrenched in a battle for a starting spot at right tackle with senior Jose Valdez. Aguirre and Valdez split time with the first unit in the spring.

2007: He lettered after earning snaps in five games as a sophomore. He saw action against Troy, North Texas, Chattanooga, Ole Miss and Florida International. Aguirre earned a pass blocking grade of 87.5 percent for the season. - He played five snaps against Troy, a season-high 22 against UNT, eight against Chattanooga, 10 against Ole Miss and eight against FIU. He had a perfect grade of 100 percent on both running and passing plays against FIU. In his 10 snaps against the Rebels, he had an average grade of 90 percent, earning 100 on passing plays and 88 on running plays. He also graded out at 100 percent on passing plays against UNT and had one knockdown block.

2006: He lettered after playing five games in his redshirt freshman season. He saw action against Southeast Missouri State, Ole Miss, Louisiana-Monroe, Mississippi State and LSU. He averaged a grade of 82.3 percent, including a pass blocking grade of 93.7 percent, while racking up six knockdown blocks in his limited play. - He logged a season-high 37 snaps on the offensive front against Southeast Missouri State. He garnered an 89-percent grade, including a 92-percent clip in run blocking and an 81-percent grade in pass blocking. He also earned three knockdown blocks. Against Ole Miss, he played eight snaps tallying one knockdown block. He posted a perfect 100-percent pass blocking grade against the Rebels. He carded a grade of 83 percent in the Razorbacks' non-conference win over Louisiana-Monroe. He posted a 100-percent grade in pass blocking while garnering one knockdown block. He tallied one knockdown block in the Hogs' division-clinching win at Mississippi State. He also played in Arkansas' regular-season finale against LSU.

2005: He worked with the scout team offense during his redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a standout on the offensive front for Coach Billy Hobbs at Cypress Bay. He was named to the Florida-Georgia All-Star Game. He was selected to participate in the Broward County All-Star Game and the Broward County-Dade County All-Star Game. Rivals rated him as the No. 63 offensive tackle in the nation. He was also ranked in the top 100 players in Florida by the same organization. He was also recruited by Florida International, Southern Illinois and Akron.

PERSONAL: Born May 8, 1987, he is the son of Angelica Aguirre. He is majoring in history and political science. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll in Spring 2008, Spring 2007 and Fall 2005. He was also named a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 academic year. His last name is pronounced A-gear-ee.

DAMARIO AMBROSE

DE, 6-5, 253, SO-1L
Mobile, Ala.
[Davidson HS]

OUTLOOK: A first-team SEC All-Freshman selection last year, he emerged from spring drills as the backup to redshirt freshman Jake Bequette at left defensive end. As he continues to develop strength and consistency, his snaps will likely increase. The defensive line is expected to be the strength of the unit. Last year, he backed up junior Malcolm Sheppard at the left end spot. An SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week selection (North Texas) last year, he had two solo tackles in the Red-White Spring Game. He also had five tackles, one solo and four assists, in the second major scrimmage and three, two solo and one assist with a three-yard sack and a fumble recovery, in the first major scrimmage. He finished the spring with 10 total tackles, including the sack, and the fumble recovery in the three major scrimmages.

2007: Ambrose made steady progress in his true freshman season. He worked his way up to No. 2 on the depth chart at left defensive end. Ambrose played in 11 games and logged 13 tackles—seven solo—with 3.0 TFL and a sack. Ambrose also had three quarterback hurries. He earned SEC First-Team All-Freshman honors as well as Sporting News Freshman All-SEC recognition. He played in every game except the Alabama and Chattanooga contests. - Ambrose played 16 snaps in the season opener against Troy with one quarterback hurry and then saw action for one snap against Kentucky. Ambrose's most significant playing time came against North Texas where he made a career-high eight tackles, four solo, in 44 snaps. He also registered 2.0 tackles for loss (-13 yards) against the Mean Green and a sack (-11). For his efforts, Ambrose was named the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week and Hogwired.com Defensive Player of the Week. Ambrose played three snaps against Auburn as a nose tackle in third-and-long situations as the Hogs dropped eight men into coverage. He played 10 snaps at Ole Miss and made one assisted tackle. Ambrose received quality playing time with 23 snaps vs. Florida International. He registered two tackles, one solo, with a quarterback hurry. Ambrose played five snaps but did not record any statistics vs. South Carolina. Ambrose made a solo stop on his only snap of the Tennessee game. He notched his third TFL of the season vs. Miss. State as he dropped tailback Anthony Dixon for a two-yard loss. Ambrose played but did not make a tackle in the Hogs' 50-48 triple-overtime win over No. 1 LSU in Baton Rouge. He also saw action against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: Despite being injured for portions of his senior season, he earned second-team all-region honors from The Mobile Press-Register for Coach Fred Riley at Davidson. He made 69 tackles with three sacks, four forced fumbles and nine quarterback hurries. Rivals ranked him the No. 19 prospect in Alabama and the No. 35 strong side defensive end in the nation. Named to the Press-Register's Elite 18 list, Scout rated him the No. 98 end in the nation and the No. 28 prospect in the state. He was a teammate of Arkansas receiver London Crawford. He was also a pitcher on the baseball team. He considered Alabama, Auburn, Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Southern Miss, Purdue, West Virginia and Oklahoma before signing with the Razorbacks.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 9, 1989, he is the son of Gail Ambrose. He is majoring in information systems. He was named to the SEC's Freshman Academic Honor Roll for 2007-08 and to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008.

BEN CLEVELAND

TE, 6-4, 252, SO-1L
Springdale, Ark.
[Springdale]

86

OUTLOOK: Looking to bounce back from a medical redshirt season, he was still slowed by his injury during the spring. He saw limited work in spring practice. Once back to 100 percent, he could move up the chart and get snaps as a tight end or an H-back. Cleveland could be a key weapon during the season. He had one reception for 20 yards in the Red-White Spring Game. In the second major scrimmage of the spring, he had two receptions for 22 yards with a five-yard touchdown from Alex Mortensen.

2007: He missed the season as a medical redshirt with a pinched nerve in his neck.

2006: He played extensively in his true freshman season, appearing in all 14 games and earning a start against Florida. He was utilized both in the traditional tight end and in flex-tight end formations. He also was a mainstay on UA special teams. He was named to the coaches' SEC All-Freshman team after hauling in a school freshman record-tying 12 receptions for 103 yards and two touchdowns. He ranked fifth on the team in receptions, seventh in receiving yardage and tied for third in touchdown receptions. His 12 catches were the most for a UA tight end since Jason Peters made 21 in 2003 and the most by a freshman tight end since current UA assistant coach Kirk Botkin also caught 12 passes in 1990. He made at least one catch in seven of 14 games, including multiple receptions in four contests. He caught the winning touchdown pass in double overtime to lead the Razorbacks to a 24-23 win over No. 22 Alabama. The 11-yard touchdown play was selected as the SEC Pass Play of the Year by Lincoln Financial Sports. He tallied three solo tackles on special teams. – He opened his Razorback career with two catches for 24 yards against No. 3 USC. He made a solo tackle on special teams in the Hogs' win over Utah State. After narrowly missing a score in his collegiate debut, he found the end zone for the first time in the Razorbacks' 21-19 win at Vanderbilt. Cleveland hauled in a 15-yard pass from former high school teammate Mitch Mustain in the third quarter to provide the winning margin. He also added a solo tackle on special teams against the Commodores. He made two catches for 18 yards and a touchdown in the Hogs' win over No. 22 Alabama. His 11-yard touchdown grab came in double overtime when he snagged a Mustain pass away from two defenders to tie the game. The extra point gave Arkansas the win. He also made a seven-yard catch in the first quarter against the Crimson Tide. He made one unassisted stop on special teams, but didn't earn a reception. He saw snaps at tight end and on special teams, but didn't earn a catch or a tackle in the Razorbacks' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. Cleveland hauled in a career-high three receptions for 15 yards in Arkansas' win over Ole Miss. He caught a pair of six-yard passes from Mustain and a three-yard pass from Casey Dick. He was the second-leading UA receiver in terms of catches against the Rebels. He played extensively, but didn't earn a catch against Louisiana-Monroe, South Carolina or No. 13 Tennessee. Cleveland hauled in two passes for eight yards in Arkansas' 28-14 win over Mississippi State. He caught one pass out of the backfield after lining up at H-back and the other at his normal position. Cleveland played multiple snaps at H-Back with Peyton Hillis out from the game due to injury. Cleveland was the target for several passes against No. 9 LSU, but he didn't earn a reception against the Tigers. He made his first career start in a two-tight end formation and made one catch for 18 yards in the 2006 SEC Championship Game against No. 4 Florida. Cleveland's catch earned the Razorbacks a first down. In the 2007 Capital One Bowl against No. 7 Wisconsin, he had one reception for five yards.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was named to the 2005 Arkansas Super Team by The Associated Press at tight end. He was also named to the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette All-Arkansas team as a tight end. He also played linebacker/defensive end for the Bulldogs. As a senior, he caught 23 passes for 338 yards and five touchdowns. On defense, he made 64 tackles as an end, including 39 solo stops. His high school squad went 14-0 for Gus Malzahn and won the state championship in his senior season. His final prep squad was also ranked No. 2 in the nation by one national high school poll. As a junior, he caught 17 passes for 242 yards and three touchdowns. He broke his collarbone midway through his junior season and saw limited action in the playoffs. He played in the Max Emfinger All-Star Game in Shreveport, La., following his senior season. He joined fellow Razorbacks Ramon Broadway and London Crawford in the all-star game. He was ranked as the No. 22 tight end in the nation and the No. 3 prospect in Arkansas by Scout. Hawgs Illustrated ranked him as the No. 5 overall prospect in Arkansas. Rivals ranked him as the No. 7 prospect in Arkansas and the No. 36 tight end in the nation. HawgsSports.com rated him as the No. 5 player in Arkansas. Cleveland was also recruited by Florida, Iowa, Colorado, Colorado State, Michigan State, Virginia and Mississippi State.

PERSONAL: Born May 27, 1987, he is the son of Rick Cleveland and Helen Wilson. His father played football at Cowley County [Kan.] Community College, the University of Colorado and briefly in the National Football League with the Denver Broncos. He is majoring in kinesiology. ROD COLEMAN

WR, 6-1, 192, JR-2L
Camden, Ark.
[Fairview HS]

OUTLOOK: With a new passing game installed this season, he could see more action than last year when he played in five games. He made strides late in spring practice. Coleman may be the best Razorback wide receiver at elevating himself to make the catch. Going into fall camp, he is listed second behind sophomore Marques Wade on the depth chart at one of Arkansas' three wide receiver positions. He had one reception for 50 yards in the Red-White Spring Game, the second-longest pass play of the game. The reception from Nathan Dick moved his White team from its 47 to the Red three and set up a touchdown two plays later. In the first spring scrimmage, he had three catches for 67 yards with a 45-yard score from Alex Mortensen. In the second scrimmage, he made one catch for 18 yards.

2007: Coleman saw action in five games and had one reception for 14 yards. He played against Kentucky, North Texas, Ole Miss, Florida International and Mississippi State. His reception came against North Texas. During 2007 spring practice, he worked at both receiver and cornerback.

2006: Coleman played in five games for the Razorbacks in his redshirt freshman season. He earned a letter after playing against USC, Vanderbilt, Alabama, Auburn and Louisiana-Monroe. He didn't earn a reception in his time on the field.

2005: He redshirted in his first season in Fayetteville.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He led his team to a 7-4 record as a senior spending time at quarterback and at wide receiver. He was named to The Associated Press Super Team. He was hampered by a sprained ankle in his senior season under Coach Buck James. As a junior he led Fairview High School to an 8-3 record. He rushed for 625 yards and 10 touchdowns. He passed for 675 yards and another 10 scores. He also caught two passes for 98 yards with both going for touchdowns. He accounted for a total of 22 touchdowns in his junior campaign. As a junior on the hardwood, he led his basketball squad to a 20-8 record. He averaged 15 points, five rebounds and two assists per game. He also was a prep track standout. He turned in a time of 48.26 in the 400 meters, a triple jump of 41-6 and a long jump of 21-7. Rivals rated him as the No. 8 overall player in Arkansas. He had a bench press max of 205 pounds and a squat lift max of 410 pounds in high school. He also registered a 35-inch vertical leap. He participated in the 2005 Arkansas High School All-Star Basketball Game at Bud Walton Arena in Fayetteville. He played AAU basketball with former Razorback teammate Darren McFadden. He was also recruited by Ole Miss, Vanderbilt, Nebraska, Tulsa and Memphis.

ARKANSAS

PERSONAL: Born Dec. 15, 1986, he is the son of Frederick and Angela Carroll. His full first name is Jeroderick. He is majoring in kinesiology.

GRANT COOK

OT, 6-6, 320, FR-SR
Jonesboro, Ark.
[Jonesboro]

72

OUTLOOK: Cook emerged from spring drills as the second-team left offensive tackle behind sophomore Ray Dominguez. He showed steady improvement in the spring. Cook will need to continue to work on his strength and flexibility. The offensive line is expected to be one of the team's strengths, and he should figure in that rotation.

2007: He redshirted his first season and worked with the scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: A member of the AP Arkansas Super Team as a senior for Coach Jim DeVazier at Jonesboro, he was rated as the No. 42 offensive tackle in the nation by Rivals. Rivals also listed him as the No. 7 prospect in the state while HawgSports.com named him to its Natural 21 list at No. 8. Scout ranked him the No. 50 offensive guard in the country, and Scout and Hawgs Illustrated both ranked him the No. 9 prospect in the state. He signed with the Razorbacks after also considering Oklahoma State, Missouri and Arkansas State.

PERSONAL: Born March 17, 1989, he is the son of Danny and Connie Cook. His brother Bryce attends the University of Arkansas Law School. His father played football at Arkansas State from 1975-79. He is majoring in communications. He was named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008.

LONDON CRAWFORD

WR, 6-2, 200, JR-2L
Mobile, Ala.

OUTLOOK: With a new passing game installed in the spring, Crawford should be a key figure in Arkansas' offensive fortunes this fall. Crawford had an outstanding spring and is Arkansas' top wide receiver heading into the fall. He goes into camp listed as the starter at one of the receiving spots in Arkansas' three-receiver set. In the Red-White Spring Game, he had eight receptions for 82 yards and a four-yard touchdown from Casey Dick. The eight receptions were the second-most in the game to D.J. Williams' nine. He missed the first spring scrimmage with a bout of tendonitis, but in the second, he had a huge day with a team-high tying eight receptions for a team-high 106 yards. He also led the way with two touchdowns, 11- and 31-yard receptions from Dick.

2007: He started the first six games of the year at split end and played in 11 total games. He did not play against Florida International and South Carolina after suffering a sprained knee against Ole Miss. He had eight catches for 147 yards and one touchdown on the season. Crawford added four rushes for 70 yards, an average of 17.5 yards on end-around plays. His reception total ranked ninth on the team while the yardage total was sixth. He also had five tackles on special teams. – He began the year as a starter with starts against Troy, Alabama, Kentucky, North Texas, Chattanooga and Auburn. He played in the next game against Ole Miss, but did not play against Florida International or South Carolina while nursing a sprained knee. He played in the final four games against Tennessee, Mississippi State, LSU and Missouri in the Cotton Bowl. He had no offensive statistics in the opener against Troy, but recorded one solo tackle and an assisted stop on special teams. He had a season-high three receptions for 47 yards with a long of 22 against Alabama. For the second straight week, he had a solo tackle and an assisted stop on special teams. He didn't have a catch the next week against Kentucky, but he had one rush for 13 yards and added a tackle on special teams. The next week against North Texas, he had two receptions for a season-high 70 yards with a touchdown. The TD came on a career-long 61-yard pass from Casey Dick in the first quarter. The UNT game started a streak of four straight games with a reception. He had one for 20 yards against Chattanooga that helped set up an Alex Tejada 47-yard field goal. Against Auburn, he had one catch for five yards, but with four minutes left to play, a deep Darren McFadden pass was intended for Crawford in the red zone. He was unable to make the grab but drew the pass interference call and earned the first down. Against Ole Miss, he had one reception for five yards before leaving the game with a sprained knee and missing the FIU and USC games. He returned but had no stats against Tennessee. He had two rushes for 52 yards, including a career-long 31-yard scamper, against Mississippi State. In the win at No. 1 LSU, he had one carry for five yards. He played but had no stats in the Cotton Bowl.

2006: Crawford was utilized in a variety of ways as a true freshman. He played in all 14 games, earning time at split end and on special teams. He hauled in five receptions for 117 yards and two touchdowns. Two of his five receptions netted at least 41 yards (41, 45). His 23.4 yards-per-catch average was tops on the squad. He also was a reserve on the kickoff return unit. He returned two kickoffs for 39 yards, including a 22-yard gain. He also earned a tackle on the season. – Crawford saw action in his first collegiate game against No. 3 USC. He didn't earn a catch against the Trojans. He played against Utah State, but didn't earn statistics. After minimal time in the Razorbacks' first two games, Crawford was instrumental in the offensive game plan in a conference win at Vanderbilt. He hauled in two passes for 45 yards, including a 41-yard gain that ignited a 93-yard scoring drive that ended with a UA touchdown. He netted seven yards on a pair of reverses. He scooted 29 yards on the first reverse only to have a penalty negate all but one of those yards. He also made the first kickoff return of his career, gaining 17 yards against the Commodores. He saw snaps at wide receiver and on the kickoff return team against Alabama. He was inserted as a kickoff returner alongside Felix Jones against the Crimson Tide, but did not return a kick. He took the field in several wide receiver sets, but did not make a catch in the Hogs' win at No. 2 Auburn. He snared his first career touchdown reception in the Hogs' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. He hauled in the 15-yard Casey Dick pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. He also rushed once for two yards against the Redhaws. Against Ole Miss the next week, he scored for the second straight game, combining with Dick on a 45-yard scoring play. His touchdown came on a fade route in the fourth quarter. He also tallied his first career tackle on special teams in the win over the Rebels. He played wide receiver and on special teams against Louisiana-Monroe. Crawford returned a kickoff for 22 yards in the Razorbacks' win over the Warhawks. He played wide receiver and on special teams against South Carolina. Crawford logged time in Arkansas' 31-14 win over No. 13 Tennessee. He played, but didn't earn a reception against Mississippi State. He saw time at wide receiver in the Razorbacks' regular season finale against No. 9 LSU. He was the target of Dick's fourth down pass attempt on the Hogs' final drive but the pass fell incomplete. He made a catch on the final play of the 2006 SEC Championship Game against Florida. Crawford gained 12 yards on the play. He saw field time against No. 7 Wisconsin, but didn't make a catch or return a kickoff against the Badgers in the Capital One Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He finished his senior season with 31 receptions for 837 yards and seven touchdowns in 10 games for Coach Fred Riley. He also returned kickoffs for his prep squad. He was held out of three games in his senior campaign with a hairline fracture in his toe. He made 21 catches for 546 yards and six touchdowns as a junior. He averaged 26.0 yards per reception in his junior season. Scout ranked him as the No. 30 wide receiver in the nation and the No. 11 player overall in Alabama. He was tabbed as the No. 24 prospect in Alabama by Rivals. He played with fellow Razorbacks Ramon Broadway and Ben Cleveland in the Max Emfinger All-Star Game in Shreveport, La. A track standout, he was the anchorman on his high school's 4x100 relay team. He benched press 300 pounds and squatted 400 pounds. He was also recruited by LSU, Auburn, Alabama, LSU, Louisville, Miami (Fla.) and Southern Miss.

RAZORBACKS

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 19, 1986, he is the son of James McCord and Dana Crawford. He is majoring in kinesiology.

KAREEM CROWELL

OG, 6-4, 333, FR-RS
Tallahassee, Fla.
[Godby HS / Hargrave [Va.]
Military Acad.]

OUTLOOK: Following a redshirt season in 2007, Crowell came out of spring drills listed as the No. 2 left guard behind senior Mitch Petrus. He is a talented athlete that has excellent flexibility for a player his size. The offensive line is expected to be one of the team's strengths this year and he should figure into the rotation.

2007: He redshirted and worked on the scout team. He also got bigger and stronger, going from 315 pounds to this year's weight of 333.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He attended Hargrave following high school and moved from defensive tackle to offensive guard after two games. He helped Coach Robert Prunty's squad go 7-3 in 2006. Rivals ranked him a four-star prospect and the No. 16 prep school player in the nation. As a prep senior for Coach Shelton Crews at Godby

High, Scout listed him as the No. 71 defensive tackle in the country. He originally signed with Louisville out of high school before attending Hargrave. He signed with the Hogs after also considering Miami (Fla.), Florida State, Troy and Louisville.

PERSONAL: Born April 6, 1988, he is the son of Para Davis. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

ANDREW DAVIE

TE, 6-5, 266, JR-2L
Little Rock, Ark.

OUTLOOK: The former minor league baseball player figures to be a key part of Arkansas' offense this season at tight end/H-back. An effective blocker on the edge in the running game, he also has good hands and is adept at running after the catch in the passing game. He enters fall camp listed as the second-team tight end behind sophomore D.J. Williams. He had a solid spring with two catches for 20 yards in the Red-White Spring Game. In the two other major scrimmages, he had five catches for a team-high 113 yards on April 11 and two receptions for 28 yards on April 19. In the first scrimmage, he had a long reception of 63 yards and a 22-yard touchdown catch from Casey Dick.

2007: Davie played in all 13 games with 10 starts, including the final five games of the season. He had 14 catches for the year for 115 yards with three touchdowns. He also made two tackles during the season. He was fifth on the team in receptions, tied for third in receiving TDs and eighth in yardage. - He logged time in the season opener against Troy but did not record any statistics. He blocked the way for Darren McFadden and Felix Jones to record 100-yard rushing performances and setting up Alex Tejada's four field goals. Davie hauled in his first career TD in the Hogs' loss to Alabama. Starting at tight end, he caught his first touchdown pass, a two-yarder from Casey Dick, with three minutes left in the third quarter. His TD was one of four unanswered touchdowns the Razorbacks scored during their second-half comeback. In the Kentucky game, Davie came off the bench to log time at tight end, but he had no stats. He blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard rushing performances and Tejada's two made field goals. He started at tight end against North Texas and made one catch for 11 yards. His catch, early in the second quarter, led to an Arkansas first down. He blocked the way for the Razorbacks to gain over 700 yards of offense. Davie started at tight end against Chattanooga, hauling in one catch for six yards. His catch led to a Jones rushing touchdown. At tight end, he blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard performances. He started at tight end against Auburn but did not record any stats. One Dick pass was intended for him but he was unable to haul it in. Against Ole Miss, Davie caught two touchdowns on Dick passes. His first, for one yard, came early in the second quarter. His second, a 14 yarder, came half way through the fourth quarter. Playing at tight end against FIU, he hauled in two catches for 22 yards, including a long of 13 yards. Both of his catches, early in the second half, propelled a drive that led to a Tejada field goal. Davie hauled in two passes for a total of 27 yards and a long of 16 against South Carolina. Both of his catches, early in the first quarter, were first downs and propelled Arkansas scoring drives. He started at tight end against Tennessee but did not record any stats. Davie made one catch for six yards starting at tight end against Mississippi State. He made one catch for eight yards and a first down against No. 1 LSU. Starting at tight end, he blocked the way for over 500 yards of offense and seven touchdowns. He started against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl and had three receptions for 18 yards.

2006: Davie appeared in all 14 of Arkansas' games as a tight end and as a regular on the kickoff return and PAT/field goal units. He earned one start at tight end against Vanderbilt. He made two catches for 13 yards on the season. Both of his catches came in the Razorbacks' non-conference win over Southeast Missouri State. - He logged time on special teams and at tight end against USC and Utah State. At Vanderbilt, Davie started for Wes Murphy, who was attending his grandfather's funeral. He earned his first career catch on a seven-yard reception in the third quarter of the Hogs' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. In the fourth quarter, he snared a ball for a six-yard gain. He played at tight end and on special teams in the Hogs' win over Ole Miss. He had a seven-yard reception wiped out by an illegal motion penalty in a non-conference win over Louisiana-Monroe. He made key blocks as part of the UA offensive front in the Hogs' win over South Carolina. He helped pave the way for Darren McFadden's 219 yards rushing against the Gamecocks. He played at tight end and on special teams in the Razorbacks' win over No. 13 Tennessee. He played on special teams and helped block for McFadden's 92-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in a win over Mississippi State. He logged time at tight end against No. 9 LSU, helping the Hogs rack up a pair of 100-yard rushers (McFadden - 182, Jones - 137). Davie played as a reserve tight end against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and against No. 7 Wisconsin in the 2007 Capital One Bowl.

2005: He spent his first season on campus working with the UA scout team offense in what counted as his redshirt campaign.

MINOR LEAGUE BASEBALL CAREER: He was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 32nd round of the 2001 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft. He played in the Cardinals' minor league system for four years. He played rookie ball for Johnson City in the Appalachian League from 2001-03. He had two home runs and 22 RBI in 2001, six home runs and 23 RBI in 2002, and eight home runs and 24 RBI in 2003. He played for the Frontier League's Evansville Otters and the New York-Penn League's New Jersey franchise in 2004. He homered three times and drove in 26 RBI for the Otters before homering once and driving in two in 10 games with New Jersey. He hit a total of 20 home runs and collected 97 RBI in his minor league career.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned three letters under Coach Danny Sullivan at Central Arkansas Christian High School. He was a team captain. He played tight end and fullback on offense and a defensive end and linebacker on defense. He was a three-time all-conference honoree, was named to the all-metro team in 2001 and was a three-time team MVP. He also lettered in basketball and baseball. He was a two-time all-conference honoree in basketball and a two-time all-tournament selection, a three-time all-conference selection and a two-time all-state honoree for baseball.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 5, 1983, he is the son of John and Vicki Davie. His father played football at Henderson State from 1973-77. He is married and his wife, Britnee, was a three-sport all-state selection in track, volleyball and basketball at Central Arkansas Christian in Little Rock. Davie is majoring in marketing management. He was named a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 academic year.

P, 5-9, 206, SR-3L
Fort Smith, Ark.
[Southside HS]

OUTLOOK: Following a solid season in 2007, Davis is slated to once again handle the punting chores in 2008. A former placekicker for the Razorbacks, he could also be used in that role if the need arises. Davis goes into his senior season with the 10th-best career average (39.8) in school history. He is also tied for the school record for most PAT attempts and conversions in a single game with nine against Southeast Missouri in 2006.

2007: Davis was Arkansas' punter in all 13 games and averaged exactly 40.0 yards on 60 punts to rank sixth in the SEC and No. 71 in the nation. He had six punts of 50 yards or more and had 19 punts downed inside the 20 with seven fair catches and seven touchbacks. Fifteen of his last 42 attempts were downed inside the 20. He had four downed inside the 20 against both Auburn and Chattanooga, three against Troy, and two against Missouri and North Texas. He was just the second Razorback punter in the last seven years to average 40 yards or better. Jacob Skinner averaged 41.8 yards in 2005. Davis also had one tackle for the season. – In his first game to punt since 2005, he had four for a 42.5-yard average in the opener against Troy. He forced a season-high two fair catches and had three downed inside the 20. He had seven punts for a career-high 44.7-yard average at Alabama to earn Hogwired.com Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had two 50-yard punts in the game, including a season-best 54-yarder. He averaged 38.9 yards on seven punts against Kentucky. Davis punted twice against North Texas for a 39.5-yard average with both downed inside the 20. He had five punts for a 38.0 average with four inside the 20 against Chattanooga. He forced one fair catch in three straight games against Kentucky, UNT and Chattanooga. He placed four punts inside the 20 for the second straight week against Auburn when he averaged 40.8 yards on a career-high nine punts. He averaged 37.0 yards on two punts at Ole Miss with one fair catch. He punted just once against both Florida International (37 yards and a fair catch) and South Carolina (36). He averaged 41.5 yards on four attempts at Tennessee and 41.7 on six against Mississippi State. He actually punted five times at Tennessee but suffered his only blocked kick of the season. In the win at No. 1 LSU, he averaged 36.4 yards on seven punts with a long of 53. Against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl, he downed two inside the 20 and averaged 38.8 yards on five punts.

2006: He appeared in 12 of the Razorbacks' 14 games, sitting out the first two games of the season (USC and Utah State) while teammate Stephen Arnold handled placement kick duties. He earned the starting placekicking job in pre-game warm-ups prior to the Vanderbilt game. He started out three-for-three in the field goal department, but struggled down the stretch, nailing only three of his next nine attempts. He was six-of-13 on field goal attempts for the season, including a career-long from 44 yards. Five of his seven field goal misses came from 40 yards or beyond. He also handled extra points for the Razorbacks in the final 12 games, hitting 46 of 48 attempts. He ranked third on the team with 64 points. He earned Hogwired.com Special Teams Player of the Week honors twice (Auburn and Southeast Missouri State). – He took over placekicking duties for Arnold after the two competed the week prior to the Vanderbilt game and in pre-game warm-ups. He earned his first collegiate experience at placekicker against the Commodores. The playing time was the first for Davis since punting against LSU in the 2004 season finale (Nov. 26), a span of 659 days between game action. He nailed three extra point attempts against the Commodores. He appeared to have hit his first collegiate field goal attempt from 44 yards, however Arkansas was called for an illegal formation. Following the penalty, Arkansas elected to go for it on fourth down rather than attempt another placement kick. He made his first career field goal (24 yards) and made one-of-two PAT attempts in the Hogs' win over Alabama. He missed a PAT in the third quarter, but later redeemed himself by kicking an extra point in the second overtime to clinch the 24-23 victory. Davis earned Hogwired.com special teams' honors for his nine-point performance in Arkansas' upset of No. 2 Auburn. He converted a then career-long 34-yard long field goal in the first quarter to open the scoring and closed the scoring with a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. In between the two field goal attempts, he converted three extra points. Davis became the fourth kicker in school history to convert nine PAT in a game when he split the uprights for nine points in Arkansas' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. He matched Chris Balseiro (2004), Kendall Trainor (1988) and Elvin Geiser (1933). He didn't attempt a field goal against the Redhawks. He scored eight points in Arkansas' 38-3 win over Ole Miss. He was perfect on five extra points and made one of two field goals against the Rebels. His first miss of the season came on a 54-yard attempt at the end of the half. He later connected on a career-long 44-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. The 44-yarder was the longest by a Razorback since David Carlton hit a 47-yarder at Tennessee in 2002. He was perfect on six extra points in Arkansas' 44-10 win over Louisiana-Monroe. Davis missed a 48-yard field goal in his only attempt of the game. He made one of two field goals and scored six points in the Razorbacks' 26-20 win over South Carolina. He converted on a 19-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter, but missed on a 41-yard attempt in the fourth quarter. He was perfect on three extra point attempts against the Gamecocks. Davis connected on a 28-yard field goal and four extra points in Arkansas' 31-14 win over Tennessee. His 28-yard field goal came in the fourth quarter and provided the final Razorback scoring in the win. He missed a 46-yard attempt and had a 24-yard field goal attempt blocked in the Hogs' 28-14 win over Mississippi State. He did connect on four PAT in the victory. Davis didn't attempt a field goal and made two of three PAT kicks against No. 9 LSU. He missed his first PAT attempt of the game, but made his final two extra point attempts. Davis missed a 40-yard field goal attempt, but connected on four extra points against Florida in the SEC Championship Game. He missed on his fourth-consecutive field goal attempt when he pushed a 30-yard attempt wide of the uprights on the Hogs' opening drive against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl. He was perfect on two extra point attempts against the Badgers.

2005: He traveled as a backup to punter Jacob Skinner, but did not see game action. The season served as his redshirt season.

2004: After backing Jacob Skinner for the first five games, he earned an opportunity to punt at No. 4 Auburn. He handled punting duties for the second half against the Tigers and the final five games of the season. He punted a total of 25 times for 979 yards for a 39.2 yards-per-punt average. He landed six punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line and forced eight fair catches. He also registered two 50+ yard punts. For his efforts he was named to the SEC Coaches' All-Freshman squad. – He punted three times for 136 yards (45.3 avg.) against the Tigers. He recorded punts of 38, 43 and 55 yards in his collegiate debut. His 55-yard punt was his first career kick inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He punted eight times for 290 yards (36.2 avg.), including forcing four fair catches, against No. 6 Georgia. He placed three punts inside the 20-yard line and launched a long punt of 53 yards. He tallied an average of 43.0 yards per kick on three punts (129 yards) against South Carolina. He forced one fair catch by the Gamecocks. His long punt against USC was 44 yards. He punted five times for 193 yards (38.6 avg.) in the Hogs' 35-3 win over Ole Miss. He launched a long of 44 yards. He landed one punt inside the 20 and forced one fair catch against the Rebels. He punted only twice for 83 yards in the Razorbacks' 24-21 win over Mississippi State. He earned an average of 41.5 yards per kick against the Bulldogs, including a long punt of 49 yards. He punted four times for 148 yards (37.0 avg.) against No. 12 LSU. He landed one punt inside the 20 and forced one fair catch against the Tigers. An LSU return man fumbled his punt in the second quarter and UA teammate Pierre Brown recovered to set up an Arkansas touchdown.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a three-year letterman at Fort Smith Southside High School as a placekicker and a punter. He was named to the all-state and all-conference teams his senior year and averaged 45.8 yards per punt. He made a career long 51-yard field goal in high school. He was elected co-captain of his team as a senior and also received all-state honors as a golfer.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 20, 1985, he is the son of Donny and Kim Davis. He is married and his wife is named Shannan. His father, Donny, played golf for the University of Arkansas. He is majoring kinesiology. He was a member of the SEC's Academic Honor Roll in both 2006 and 2007. CASEY DICK

QB, 6-2, 215, SR-3L
Allen, Texas
[Allen]

OUTLOOK: Dick enters his senior season with 18 consecutive starts at quarterback. His 34 touchdown passes rank third on Arkansas' career chart while his .544 completion percentage is seventh. He is also eighth with 268 career completions in 493 attempts for 3,270 yards. With a new passing game installed during the off-season, he could produce bigger numbers this year, especially if the spring is any indication. In the Red-White Spring Game, he completed 33-of-49 passes for 404 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. He had scoring passes of four yards to London Crawford and 11 yards to D.J. Williams. The game marked his third solid outing of the spring. In the first major scrimmage, he was 24-of-40 for 304 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. His TDs were 22 yards to Andrew Davie and 30 yards to Williams. In the second scrimmage, he was 26-of-39 for 309 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. He had touchdowns of 11 and 31 yards to London Crawford and six yards to Carlton Salters. In the three workouts combined, he was 83-of-128 (.648) for 1,017 yards and seven touchdowns with four interceptions. In the course of his career, the Razorbacks are 10-0 in games Dick has played and has not thrown an interception.

2007: He started all 13 games and was 150-of-262 for 1,695 yards with 18 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He had an efficiency rating of 126.63 and averaged 130.4 yards per game. Dick was fifth in the SEC and No. 62 in the country in passing efficiency, and ninth in the league in passing yards per game. His 18 touchdowns rank as the third-best single-season total in school history. His completions and attempts are seventh-best, the yardage total 10th and the .573 completion percentage ninth. In the final seven games of the year, he was 78-of-122 for 848 yards with 10 touchdowns, five interceptions and a .639 completion percentage. – For the second-consecutive season, Dick won his first season start at quarterback as Arkansas defeated Troy, 46-26, in the season opener in Fayetteville. He completed 11-of-20 passes for 108 yards. He completed a pass to five different targets, including picking up first-down yardage on five of his 11 completions. He wasn't sacked and didn't have a rushing attempt against the Trojans. Dick engineered eight scoring drives (4 field goals, 4 TD) against Troy. Dick tied a then-career high with three touchdown passes, going 11-of-23 for 145 yards in a three-point loss (41-38) at Alabama. He connected on scoring passes of 40 yards to Crosby Tuck, two yards to Andrew Davie and seven yards to Peyton Hillis. The touchdown pass to Hillis culminated a 21-point comeback and gave Arkansas the lead midway through the fourth quarter. He distributed the ball to six different players. For the second-consecutive game he wasn't sacked. Dick completed 13-of-28 attempts for 157 yards in a loss to No. 21 Kentucky. The Wildcats intercepted him twice. He was sacked once and lost eight yards on two rushing attempts. His longest completion of the game was a 25-yard pass to Hillis. Dick tied his then-career high in touchdown passes for the second time in three outings when he tossed three scoring passes in Arkansas' 66-7 win over North Texas. He completed touchdown passes of 61 yards to London Crawford, 37 yards to Robert Johnson and five yards to Lucas Miller in the first half. His 61-yard hookup with Crawford is a career-long completion. Dick completed 12-of-21 passes for 210 yards. He led Arkansas to points on seven of the Razorbacks' first eight offensive drives. The 210 yards through the air was the second-highest output by the UA quarterback in his career. Dick led the Razorbacks to a second-straight non-conference win as Arkansas topped Chattanooga, 34-15, in Little Rock. He completed 13-of-22 passes for 116 yards and one touchdown. He found six different receivers with his 13 completions. He was sacked twice and intercepted once against the Mocs. Dick also was tackled in the end zone on the Hogs' first offensive play for a safety after a shotgun snap sailed over his head. He connected with Hillis on a 24-yard touchdown toss in the first quarter. Dick completed 12 passes on 26 attempts for 111 yards and a touchdown in a 9-7 loss to No. 22 Auburn. His 13-yard touchdown pass to Lucas Miller gave Arkansas the lead with 96 seconds left in the game. Dick was sacked twice by the Tigers for a loss of 18 yards. He turned in one of the most proficient games of his career in Arkansas' 44-8 win at Ole Miss. Dick completed 11-of-17 attempts for 96 yards and a then-career-high tying three touchdowns, and earned Hogwired.com Offensive Player of the Week honors. He completed his first seven attempts of the game, extending his personal streak at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium to 19-consecutive completions after he closed Arkansas' 2005 win with 12-consecutive completions. Dick hit tight end Andrew Davie for a pair of scores (1 and 14 yards) and Hillis for a nine-yard touchdown. He led the Hogs on six scoring drives, including five touchdown drives, in the blowout win. Dick was sacked only once against the Rebels. He also suffered an interception late in the first half on a Hail Mary pass. Dick became the only UA quarterback in school history to earn two wins against Ole Miss in Oxford. He earned his eighth-consecutive start of the season against Florida International. Dick completed four-of-six passes for 36 yards before leaving the game due to an injury. He also threw an interception in his limited stint. Dick suffered a mild concussion early in the second quarter. Dick played every offensive snap in leading Arkansas to a 48-36 win over No. 23 South Carolina. He led the Razorbacks on seven scoring drives against the Gamecocks. He completed eight of his 10 pass attempts for 86 yards and two touchdowns. He hit Marcus Monk for a four-yard touchdown on the game's opening offensive possession. He later completed a 35-yard pass to Lucas Miller as part of a double reverse flea flicker out of the WildHog formation. Dick and the Razorback offense struggled in a loss at No. 22 Tennessee. Dick was 12-of-22 passing for 140 yards, and was intercepted twice by the Volunteers. He was replaced briefly by back-up Nathan Emert, but returned to the game. His longest completion on the afternoon was a 36-yard pass to tailback Michael Smith. Dick earned SEC and Hogwired.com Offensive Player of the Week honors for his record-setting performance in Arkansas' 45-31 win over Mississippi State. The quarterback tied a UA school record by throwing for a career-high four touchdowns against the Bulldogs. He became the sixth Razorback in school history to accomplish the feat. Dick completed touchdown passes of 19 (Monk), 30 (Farod Jackson), 35 (Robert Johnson) and 57 (Darren McFadden) yards against the Bulldogs. He completed 14-of-17 passes for 199 yards, registering the third-highest completion percentage (.824) in UA history for 13-19 attempts. With the performance, he vaulted from seventh to fourth in the SEC in passing efficiency. Dick turned in another efficient performance in leading Arkansas to a 50-48 triple-overtime upset of No. 1 LSU in Baton Rouge. Dick came close to leading the Hogs to an upset at Tiger Stadium as a true freshman, but he finished off the task as a junior. He shared time at quarterback with McFadden, who took 33 snaps in the WildHog formation. Dick completed 10-of-18 passes for 94 yards and one touchdown. He didn't throw an interception against the Tigers. His touchdown toss came on a 10-yard pass to Peyton Hillis in the first overtime period. Against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl, he was 19-of-32 for 197 yards with an interception and set career marks for completions and attempts in a game.

2006: After starting the season sidelined with a back injury and then biding his time behind freshman Mitch Mustain, he emerged as the Razorbacks' starting quarterback down the stretch. He played in a total of 10 games, including gaining the starting nod in the Hogs' final five games against Tennessee, Mississippi State, LSU, Florida and Wisconsin. He also played extensively in the Razorbacks' win at South Carolina. He completed 65-of-132 pass attempts for a team-leading 991 yards. He connected on nine touchdown passes and was intercepted six times. – Dick sat out the season opener against No. 3 USC while nursing a sore back. He returned to the field in a reserve role in the Hogs' win over Utah State. It was his first career relief appearance after starting his previous four games at the end of the 2005 season. He completed two-of-five passes for 59 yards against the Aggies, including a 38-yard toss to Marcus Monk. He didn't play in the Razorbacks' road win at Vanderbilt, the Hogs' home victory against No. 22 Alabama or Arkansas' upset of No. 2 Auburn. He saw his most extensive playing time of the season to that point in the Razorbacks' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. He entered the game in the second quarter and promptly led the Razorbacks to touchdowns on five-consecutive drives. On his sixth drive, Arkansas ran the ball on fourth down instead of attempting a pass conversion. Dick completed eight-of-nine passes for 98 yards and two touchdowns. He threw a six-yard pass to Chris Baker and a 15-yard pass to London Crawford in the win. He was sharp in his second-straight appearance in the Razorbacks' win over Ole Miss. He completed two-of-three passes for 48 yards and a touchdown against the Rebels. He lofted a 45-yard touchdown pass to Crawford to complete the scoring in the victory. He completed two-of-four pass attempts for 17 yards in the Razorbacks' 44-10 win over Louisiana-Monroe. Dick also had a career-long 13-yard run against the Warhawks. He came on in relief of Mustain in the Razorbacks' 26-20 win over South Carolina. He entered the game on the Hogs' second offensive series and played the rest of the game at quarterback. He completed 11-of-19 passes for 228 yards and a touchdown. He also threw one interception in the victory. He connected with Monk for a 50-yard touchdown at the end of the first half. He also rushed once for one yard in the victory. He started at quarterback and led Arkansas to a 31-14 win over No. 13 Tennessee. He completed 10-of-15 passes for 154 yards and a touchdown against the Volunteers. He connected with Monk for a 10-yard score in the first quarter. He also completed a 35-yard pass to Monk in the win. He made his second-consecutive start in Arkansas' 28-14 win over Mississippi State. Dick completed eight of his 17 pass attempts for 112 yards and two touchdowns. He found Damian Williams for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first half to give the Hogs a 21-14 lead. He completed a 35-yard toss to Monk on the back end of a double reverse pass in the third quarter. Darren McFadden took the snap, flipped to Felix Jones, who then tossed it back to Dick. The UA signal caller delivered a perfect pass to Monk for the score. Dick struggled in the Hogs' 31-26 loss to No. 9 LSU. He completed only three-of-17 passes for 29 yards, but did tally a touchdown pass against the Tigers. He found Monk on a 21-yard touchdown play in the second quarter. He suffered one interception in the loss. Dick earned his first career reception on a five-yard toss from McFadden. He completed 10-of-22 passes for 148 yards and a touchdown in the SEC Championship Game against Florida. He connected with Monk on a historical 48-yard touchdown play near the end of the first half. The 24th touchdown reception in Monk's career set a new UA record, breaking the mark of Anthony Lucas. Dick also threw a pair of interceptions against the Gators with one coming on a Hail Mary at the end of the first half. He struggled with his consistency, completing only nine-of-21 passes for 98 yards against Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl. He suffered one interception and was sacked once by the Badgers.

2005: In one of the most improbable rookie campaigns in Razorback history, he sat out the first seven games of the season before making his debut as the Hogs' starting quarterback against South Carolina. He became the first UA quarterback in history to take his first collegiate snap as a starter. He started the final four games of the season against South Carolina, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and LSU. He led the Razorbacks to wins over Ole Miss and Mississippi State. On the season, he completed 53-of-99 attempts for 584 yards and seven touchdowns. He threw four interceptions in his rookie season. – He made his collegiate debut as the Razorbacks' starting quarterback against South Carolina in the eighth game of the UA season. He handed the ball off to fellow freshman Darren McFadden for seven yards on his first snap. He completed his first career pass on a five-yard toss to Cedric Washington on third down during the same drive. He finished the game with 137 yards on 12-of-24 passing and an interception. He connected with Peyton Hillis for four yards in the second quarter for his first career touchdown pass. He earned SEC Freshman Player of the Week and Hogwired.com Offensive Player of the Week honors after leading the Razorbacks to their first SEC win of the season at Ole Miss. He completed 17-of-24 passes for 175 yards and did not throw an interception against the Rebels. His .708 completion percentage tied for 10th on the UA single-game record list. His three touchdowns were not only then a career best, but the most by an Arkansas quarterback since Matt Jones tossed four against Louisiana-Monroe in 2004. He completed his final 12 passes and captured three second-half scoring drives against the Rebels. He connected with Marcus Monk for touchdowns of 23 and 24 yards. He also completed a four-yard scoring pass to Hillis. He led the Hogs to their second-consecutive victory with a 44-10 win over Mississippi State. He completed 12-of-23 passes for 124 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He connected with Marcus Monk and Peyton Hillis for touchdowns while also throwing two interceptions (one on a pass batted down at the line of scrimmage). He nearly engineered an upset of No. 3 LSU before Arkansas fell 19-17 in the season finale in Baton Rouge. He was 12-of-28 passing for 148 yards. He threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Washington and connected on a 55-yard completion to Monk.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He completed 133-of-248 passes for 1,942 yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior. He also rushed for 401 yards and eight touchdowns on 100 carries in his final prep campaign for Coach Tom Westerberg. He dislocated his peroneal tendon (or stirrup tendon) later in the season and missed his squad's final two games. His team finished 9-3. He earned honorable mention all-district and all-county honors as a junior. He passed for 714 yards and eight touchdowns on 48-of-81 passing as a backup quarterback in his junior campaign. He also rushed for 116 yards and three touchdowns on 37 attempts. He was selected to play in the Dallas-Fort Worth All-Star game. Rivals ranked him as the nation's No. 13 dual-threat quarterback and as the No. 70 overall player in Texas. He was teammates with current UA defensive tackle Marcus Shavers. He was also recruited by Houston, Texas Tech, SMU and TCU.

PERSONAL: Born June 27, 1986, he is the son of Steve and Mary Ellen Dick. His brother Nathan is also a quarterback for the Razorbacks. He is majoring in political science. He was named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008 and was a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 academic year.

RAY DOMINGUEZ

OT, 6-4, 315, SO-1L
Bainbridge, Ga.
[Bainbridge]

OUTLOOK: After seeing action in six games last year and recording 10 knockdown blocks, Dominguez goes into the season listed as the starter at left tackle ahead of redshirt freshman Grant Cook. He is a good pass protector and has continued to improve on his run blocking. Despite replacing two starters, the offensive line is expected to be one of the team's strengths this season. Last year, he helped Arkansas' line pave the way for an SEC-leading and school-record 3,725 rushing yards, an average of 286.5 yards per game, which was fourth in the nation.

2007: Dominguez backed up All-American Robert Felton at left tackle in 2007. He did not start any games, but he earned snaps against Troy, North Texas, Chattanooga, Ole Miss, Florida International and Tennessee. He also had 10 knockdown blocks. - In the opener against Troy, he logged five snaps and graded out at 100 percent on running plays and at 80 percent for the game. He had 22 snaps against UNT and graded out at 100 percent on passing plays and 89 percent on runs for an average of 90 with four knockdowns. He totaled eight plays against Chattanooga and after not playing against Auburn in the following game, had his most effective effort the following week against Ole Miss. In 10 snaps against the Rebels, he graded out at 100 percent on both running and passing plays for an overall grade of 100 with two knockdowns. He received his most extensive action the following week with 44 snaps against FIU and earned a 94 grade on passing plays. He also had four knockdown blocks. He played 27 snaps at Tennessee and graded out at 92 percent on passing plays.

2006: He redshirted as he worked behind seniors Zac Tubbs and Tony Ugoh at offensive tackle.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He played both offensive tackle and tight end in high school for Coach Greg Guy, and was a co-captain at Bainbridge. He earned a blocking percentage rate of 89.8 percent in his senior season on his way to Class 4A all-district honors. He recorded 51 knockdown blocks and 12 pancakes as a senior. He was a high school teammate of fellow Razorback Malcolm Sheppard. He also competed in basketball. He earned all-district honors as both a junior (18.9 ppg, 9.4 rpg) and senior (16.4 ppg, 6.4 rpg). Scout ranked him as the No. 84 player in Georgia. He recorded a 325-pound bench press in high school. JOHN DURMON

FB, 5-11, 217, JR-SQ
Warren, Ark.
[Warren / Arkansas Tech]

OUTLOOK: A transfer, Durmon went through spring workouts with the Razorbacks and is listed second on the depth chart at fullback behind senior Lance Thompson. He is a solid lead blocker out of the backfield. He could also land a spot on special teams. He did not have any carries in either major scrimmage during the spring or the Red-White Spring Game.

PRIOR TO ARKANSAS: He attended Arkansas Tech during the 2005-06 academic year before transferring to Arkansas. He prepped at Warren High for Coach Bo Hembree. He earned all-state and academic all-state honors as a senior in 2004. He was also all-conference in 2003 and 2004. He played on teams going 15-0 in 2001, 14-1 in 2002, 7-4 in 2003 and 10-3 in 2004.

PERSONAL: Born April 20, 1987, his is the son of John and Laura Durmon. He is majoring in kinesiology.

AARON FENTON

WLB, 6-1, 216, SO-SQ
Plano, Texas
[Plano]

OUTLOOK: With two of Arkansas' starting linebackers gone from last season, Fenton will compete for playing time both on defense and on special teams. He ended the spring listed third at the weak side spot behind senior Elston Forte and sophomore Ryan Powers. Fenton had a tackle in the Red-White Spring Game along with an interception and two-yard return of a Casey Dick pass. He had two tackles in the first major scrimmage and one stop in the second scrimmage.

2007: He practiced with the scout team.

2006: He redshirted in his first season while also working out with the scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: A defensive end in high school, he earned all-district and all-county honors for Coach Scott Smith at Plano. He had 105 tackles with nine sacks, one interception and 32 quarterback pressures. Plano was 13-1 his senior year and won the area championship. He also lettered in track and lacrosse. He graduated in the top 25 percent of his class.

PERSONAL: Born March 8, 1988, he is the son of Thad and Pat Fenton. He is majoring in marketing management. He was named to the SEC's Fall 2007 Academic Honor Roll. He was also named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for the 2006-07 and 2007-08 academic years.

REGGIE FISH

WR, 5-7, 160, SR-3L
Mesquite, Texas
[Mesquite]

OUTLOOK: A versatile veteran, he will figure into the receiver rotation and may get an opportunity once again to return punts. With a new passing game installed in the spring, he could have a more prominent role than in the past playing any one of the Razorbacks' three wide receiver positions. He ended spring drills listed second behind junior London Crawford at one of the receiving spots in Arkansas' three-wideout set. He did not have any catches in the Red-White Spring Game, but he had one for 37 yards in the first major scrimmage of the spring and three for 34 yards in the second one. He may also see action as a return man on special teams.

2007: Fish played in all 13 games and made two starts, against Alabama and Florida International. He had nine receptions for 65 yards with a long of 15. He was second behind senior Robert Johnson at flanker on the final depth chart. He also returned seven punts for 24 yards and recorded four tackles on special teams, including two solo. – Fish came off the bench in UA's season opener against Troy to catch a Casey Dick pass for nine yards. His catch extended the drive and preceded Felix Jones' third-quarter rushing touchdown. Starting at flanker in the Alabama game, Fish earned playing time but did not record any receiving stats. He returned two punts for six yards. He logged time at flanker against Kentucky, but did not record any stats. Fish came off the bench to spend time at flanker against North Texas. He made one catch for 15 yards, a career long, and returned two punts for 16 yards. His 15-yard catch from Nathan Emert led to an Arkansas first down and an eventual Brandon Barnett rushing touchdown. He also had one tackle on special teams. He played at reserve flanker against Chattanooga, hauling in a single-game, career-high three catches for 20 yards with a long of 10. His 10-yard catch, late in the first half, was a first down and extended the drive that led to an Alex Tejada 47-yard field goal. Late in the game, he recorded his first solo tackle against Chattanooga while playing on the punt return team. Fish logged time as a reserve flanker against Auburn. He made one catch for nine yards and a first down. Playing at backup flanker against Ole Miss, Fish made one catch but did not gain any yards. He also made one assisted tackle while playing on special teams. Starting at flanker against FIU, he made one catch for four yards. He played as a reserve flanker against South Carolina and recorded one tackle while playing on special teams. Against Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU, Fish logged time at flanker but did not record any stats. He had one reception for eight yards and two punt returns for two yards in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri.

2006: He appeared in all 14 games as a reserve wide receiver and as a punt returner. While he didn't register a catch in 2006, he did rush twice for 21 yards. He took over as the Hogs' punt returner after Cedric Washington was injured in the Southeast Missouri State game. Peyton Hillis eventually replaced Fish, but he returned to the role after Hillis was injured against Tennessee. He returned a total of 16 punts for 98 yards. – Fish played in Arkansas' first four games, but didn't accrue any offensive statistics. He made his first statistical entry of the season on one of the most memorable plays in recent Razorback history in Arkansas' upset of No. 2 Auburn. He made the second career rushing attempt of his career against the Tigers. On a trick play called "Woody," he hid behind the UA offensive line and crawled to the line of scrimmage undetected by the Auburn defense. Quarterback Mitch Mustain took the snap and then blindly handed the ball behind his back to Fish. Fish hesitated and then raced around left end for 28 yards down to the Auburn six-yard line to set up the Hogs' final touchdown. For his efforts, Fish captured national attention as ESPN SportsCenter's No. 2 play of the day. The next week, he took over punt return duties after Washington was injured. Fish returned a pair of punts for 14 yards in the Razorbacks' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. He netted returns of three and 11 yards against the Redhawks. He served as the Razorbacks' punt returner in the Hogs' conference win over Ole Miss. He made two fair catches, but didn't log a return against the Rebels. He saw action at wide receiver, but didn't make a catch in the Razorbacks' non-conference win over Louisiana-Monroe. He did return one punt against the Warhawks (-5). He logged snaps against South Carolina at wide receiver and on special teams. Fish lined up at punt returner once after Peyton Hillis was hurt against the Gamecocks. On that play, Anthony Brown blocked the USC punt, preventing a return opportunity. He returned two punts for 20 yards, including an 11-yard gain, in Arkansas' 31-14 win over No. 13 Tennessee. Fish took over for an injured Hillis in the third quarter of the win. He handled punt return duties for the Razorbacks in a win over Mississippi State. He returned four punts for 58 yards, including a long gain of 26 yards, against the Bulldogs. He was named the Hogwired.com Special Teams Player of the Week for his contributions to the win. He was Arkansas' punt returner against No. 9 LSU, but didn't get an opportunity to return a kick. Fish returned punts for the Razorbacks in the SEC Championship Game. He was credited for a loss of four yards on a pair of returns against the Gators. He had a return of one yard and lost five yards on a muffed punt return in the fourth quarter. The muffed return and fumble resulted in a Florida touchdown, giving the Gators a lead they would not relinquish. He had five punt returns against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl for 15 yards, including a long return of seven yards.

2005: He displayed his skills in a myriad of ways during his rookie campaign. He appeared in nine of the Razorbacks' 11 games, playing in every contest except the Vanderbilt and LSU games. He was third on the squad with four punt returns for 26 yards, including an exciting 17-yard return against Louisiana-Monroe. He carried the ball once for seven yards and made one catch for five yards. – He returned one punt for two yards in his collegiate debut against Missouri State. He played, but did not accrue statistics against USC and Alabama. He earned his first career rush for seven yards and returned two punts for 21 yards against Louisiana-Monroe. He recorded a season-long 17-yard punt return against the Indians. He returned a punt for three yards against South Carolina. He caught the first pass of his career against Mississippi State for five yards.

2004: He graduated early from high school and spent the spring getting his first taste of college football. He worked at flanker for the Razorbacks in spring practice.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: In the third game of his senior season, he dislocated his shoulder while diving for a fumble. He missed the remainder of the season. He had racked up 185 yards rushing and 264 yards passing in his first two games before being sidelined in the third quarter of game number three. He earned first-team all-district honors as a junior and was named the district sophomore of the year in 2002 for Coach Steve Halpin. He graduated from high school early with honors. He earned offensive most valuable player honors at the U.S. Army Player Combine following his junior season. He recorded a vertical jump of 31 inches. In addition to Arkansas, he was recruited by Oklahoma State, Missouri, Iowa, Baylor, Notre Dame and SMU.

PERSONAL: Born May 29, 1987, he is the son of Reginald and Eugenia Fish. His father played wide receiver at Oklahoma State from 1978-81. He is majoring in kinesiology. He was a member of the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll in Spring 2008 and for the 2004-05 academic year.

OUTLOOK: Freeman is not listed on the pre-season depth chart, but he could still figure into the mix this season along the offensive front. The offensive line is expected to be one of the strongest positions on the team. He will look to work his way into the rotation.

RAZORBACKS

2007: He redshirted while working with the scout team and transitioning from his high school position of tight end to tackle. He began the 2007 season at 250 pounds, but has bulked up to 277.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: Freeman was a member of the AP Arkansas Super Team at tight end and defensive end for Coach John Vitale at Paris. He had 472 yards receiving with nine touchdowns. He also recorded nine pancake blocks, three champion blocks and a pair of deuce blocks. On defense, he had 49 tackles, six sacks and 10 hurries. As a junior, he had 12 receptions for 210 yards and four touchdowns. As a sophomore, he had six catches for 63 yards and two scores in a run-oriented offense. Rivals listed him as the No. 14 tight end in the nation and as the No. 5 prospect in the state. HawgSports.com named him to its Natural 21 list at No. 6. Scout listed him as the No. 19 tight end in the nation and No. 5 prospect in Arkansas. Both Scout and Rivals listed him as a four-star recruit. Hawgs Illustrated ranked him the No. 6 prospect in the state.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 18, 1988, he is the son of Grace Walker. He is majoring in agricultural business. He was named to the SEC's 2007-08 Freshman Academic Honor Roll and to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Fall 2007.

GREG GATSON

CB, 5-11, 167, SO-SQ
Memphis, Tenn.
(Germantown HS)

28

OUTLOOK: With all four starters missing from last season's secondary, there is an opportunity for a number of players to break into that rotation. Gatson ended spring drills listed third at the right cornerback spot behind sophomore Isaac Madison and sophomore Darrell Glasper. He could also earn a role on special teams. In the second spring scrimmage, he recorded four tackles.

2007: He played in the opener against Troy, but did not record any statistics or see any other game action the rest of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He played wide receiver, cornerback and safety at Germantown, and earned all-conference and All-Memphis honors from the Commercial-Appeal at receiver for Coach Charlie White. On offense, he ran three times for 96 yards and caught 31 passes for 593 yards and seven touchdowns. He also had 43 tackles and four interceptions. He was selected to play in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl High School All-Star Game. He played on teams going 10-3, 10-3 and 6-5 his sophomore, junior and senior seasons, respectively. He signed with Arkansas after also considering Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Memphis and Austin Peay.

PERSONAL: Born March 24, 1989, he is the son of Greg Sr. and Sheila Gatson. His father played at Arkansas from 1982-85. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

DARRELL GLASPER

CB, 5-8, 180, SO-SQ
Baton Rouge, La.
(Redemptorist HS / LSU)

OUTLOOK: With all four starters gone from last year's secondary, several players are fighting for playing time and Glasper made a good case with a solid spring. He put himself into the mix for fall playing time by consistently making plays in the spring. He is listed second at the right cornerback spot going into fall camp behind sophomore Isaac Madison. Glasper had one tackle and two pass breakups in the Red-White Spring Game. In the first major scrimmage, he had four tackles and an interception. In the second major scrimmage, he had nine tackles, two interceptions and three passes broken up. He also had 18 yards on interception returns.

2007: He practiced with the scout team and did not see any game action.

PRIOR TO ARKANSAS: He attended LSU in 2006 before transferring to Arkansas. He prepped at Redemptorist High and earned all-district, all-metro and all-state honors as a cornerback in 2005. His team went 12-1 and won the state title. He was also a member of the 2006 state champion track team and played basketball.

PERSONAL: Born July 25, 1988, he is the son of Darrell Sr. and Sandra Turner. He graduated from high school with honors and is majoring in communications. He was named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll in Spring 2008.

CORD GRAY

CHIP GREGORY

TB, 6-3, 218, SO-1L
Allen, Texas
[American Heritage Academy]

42

OUTLOOK: He earned his first letter last year as a linebacker, but was moved to running back in the spring to give the Razorbacks a bigger option in the backfield. Gregory was slowed during the spring by an injury, but had six carries for 11 yards in the Red-White Spring Game. In addition to taking snaps in the backfield, he could also be used on special teams.

2007: A backup linebacker and member of the special teams, he played in 12 games. The Cotton Bowl is the only contest in which he did not play. He had one tackle, an assisted stop, for the season. – In addition to his special teams duties, he saw one play on defense against Kentucky, three against North Texas and one against Chattanooga. His tackle came on special teams against Chattanooga.

2006: He was expected to compete for playing time as a reserve, but an unusual accident in practice and the ensuing injury slowed his progress early in pre-season camp. Gregory dislocated his left shoulder while participating in a drill with a blocking sled. Following his recovery, UA coaches decided to preserve his redshirt season. He worked with the scout team defense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned third-team 2005 pre-season All-Texas honors from Dave Campbell's Texas Football prior to his senior season. He led the Stars to a 12-1 record and the TAPPS state championship. In the 27-20 win over Cedar Hill (Texas) Trinity Christian, he tallied two interceptions and one touchdown. He rushed 35 times for 503 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior. He also hauled in 13 catches for 274 yards and four scores. He finished third on his team in scoring with 66 points. As a junior, he spent time at free safety and cornerback on defense, wide receiver on offense and logged extensive time on special teams. He made 70 tackles and three interceptions on his way to all-state honors. Offensively, he tallied 287 yards and three touchdowns on 36 carries. He also had 201 yards and three touchdowns on 16 receptions. He helped lead his team to a 9-3 record and a berth in the state semifinals. He attended Plano (Texas) East High School as a freshman before transferring to Carrollton (Texas) American Heritage Academy and playing for Coach Bob Giesey. The Dallas Morning News ranked him as the No. 40 player on its all-area team and the No. 91 overall prospect in the state. Rivals ranked him as the No. 58 athlete in the nation. The same outlet also ranked him as the No. 91 prospect in Texas. He was named all-district in basketball as a junior after averaging 16.2 points per game. He earned all-state honors in track and field as a member of the 4x400-meter relay team. He posted a 39-inch vertical leap and squatted 500 pounds. He was also recruited by Arizona, Kansas State, Notre Dame, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M.

SHEDRICK JOHNSON

CB, 5-10, 188, SR-3L
Sweeny, Texas
[Sweeny]

17

OUTLOOK: All four starters are gone from last year's secondary, so Johnson should figure into the rotation this year and could also see time on special teams. He finished spring drills listed as the backup to senior Jamar Love at left cornerback. He

ARKANSAS

PATRICK JONES

DT, 6-2, 297, SO-1L
Hampton, Ga.
[Lovejoy HS]

OUTLOOK: The defensive line is expected to be one of the team's strengths this season, and Jones is one of the reasons for that optimism. Heading into fall camp, he is listed second on the depth chart at defensive tackle behind junior Malcolm Sheppard. He should see considerable playing time as he continues to develop consistency. He had one solo tackle in the Red-White Spring Game. He had one assisted tackle in the first major scrimmage of the spring. In the second scrimmage, he had three tackles. Two of his stops were solos, including a five-yard sack.

2007: He played in seven games as a true freshman and finished with 11 tackles. He had six solo stops and an assisted TFL (-1). – He saw his first action at Alabama and recorded an assisted tackle. He had three tackles on a season-high three solo stops in just five snaps against Kentucky, including a half tackle for loss (-1). He made one tackle, a solo, in 11 plays against North Texas. Against Florida International, he had a season-high five stops on two solos and three assists in 18 snaps. He made an assisted tackle at Tennessee. He played against Mississippi State and in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri, but did not record any statistics.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: A four-year starter for Coach Al Hughes at Lovejoy High, he led his team in tackles for three seasons. He played both running back and defensive tackle as a senior, recording 105 tackles with 12 sacks to earn Class 4A all-regional and all-area honors. He first played linebacker, but moved to defensive end as a sophomore. He split time between the two positions as a junior before moving to tackle as a senior. He rushed for a junior high school record of more than 2,000 yards in the seventh and eighth grades before moving to defense in the ninth grade. He chose Arkansas over Mississippi State, Kentucky, Troy, Auburn and Western Michigan.

PERSONAL: Born March 23, 1989, he is the son of Ricky and Barbara Jones. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. His father lettered in football at Valdosta State in 1976.

OUTLOOK: The 2007 Rimington Trophy award winner as the nation's top center and a consensus All-American, Luigs is looking to become the first two-time winner of the Rimington Trophy in the award's history. He has started all 37 games of his Razorback career. Last year, he helped Arkansas' line pave the way for an SEC-leading and school-record 3,725 rushing yards, an average of 286.5 yards per game, which was fourth in the nation. Arkansas also generated a school-record 5,850 yards of total offense and scored a school-record 485 points. The point total ranked No. 13 in the nation with 37.3 per game and the total offense average of 450.0 ranked No. 17. A 2008 pre-season All-American, Luigs is a big reason the offensive line is once again expected to be one of the team's strengths.

2007: The Rimington Award winner as the nation's top center, he was a first-team All-American by Walter Camp, FWAA, The Sporting News, Rivals, CBSSports.com, CollegeFootballNews.com and Phil Steele College Football. Luigs was the first Razorback center to win a national individual award. Also an AP second-team All-American, he won the Jacobs Trophy (along with Alabama's Andre Smith) as the top blockers in the SEC. Luigs was the centerpiece of an offensive line that helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (286.5), rank second in the SEC and No. 17 in the nation in total offense (450.0), and rank third in the SEC and No. 13 in the country in scoring (37.3). He cleared the way for two All-American running backs – Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, who led the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing (140.8), and Felix Jones, who ranked fifth in the SEC and No. 43 in the country (89.4). He had a team-leading overall grade of 90.36 for the season, including marks of 86.0 on running plays and a team-best 96.9 on passing plays. He also had 55 knockdown blocks, which ranked second on the team. – In the opener against Troy, he earned two knockdown blocks and was a key component to the Hogs' 350-yard rushing output. McFadden (151) and Jones (129) each eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark. He garnered a grade of 84 percent on running plays and 90 percent on passing plays for a total overall grade of 86 percent with three knockdowns. He logged all 78 snaps in Arkansas' road loss at Alabama. He graded out at a team-high 89 percent, including 84 percent on running plays and a perfect 100 percent on passing plays. He tallied four knockdowns against the Crimson Tide while the Razorbacks racked up 301 yards rushing, including 195 by McFadden and 95 by Jones. Luigs played 76 snaps at center in Arkansas' loss to No. 21 Kentucky. He left the game briefly (two snaps) due to an injury, but returned to play the rest of the way. He carded a team-high grade of 93 percent, including a perfect 100-percent grade in pass blocking. He netted a grade of 89 percent in run blocking. He tallied four knockdowns against the Wildcats in paving the way for 495 yards of total offense, including 338 yards rushing. McFadden (173) and Jones (133) each topped the 100-yard rushing mark. He played 59 snaps against North Texas, earning an overall grade of 86 with a 95 on passing plays and 81 on rushes with five knockdowns. Luigs and his offensive line mates were at it again in a non-conference win over Chattanooga. Arkansas racked up 373 yards of total offense, including 257 yards rushing. Both Jones (141) and McFadden (122) rushed for more than 100 yards. Luigs played 68 snaps and earned a team-high six knockdown blocks. He graded out at 91 percent against the Mocs, including an 85-percent clip in run blocking and a per-

Luigs played one of the best games of his Razorback career in Arkansas' 50-48 upset of No. 1 LSU in Baton Rouge in the regular season finale. He captained an offensive front that cleared the way for 513 yards of total offense, including 385 yards rushing. LSU entered the game ranked first in the nation in total defense, allowing only 246.8 yards per game, and ranking first in the SEC and third in the nation by yielding an average of 72.0 yards per game rushing. Luigs and his teammates didn't yield a sack in the game. He was perfect on 33 shotgun snaps in the WildHog formation to Darren McFadden and helped the junior rush for 206 yards and three touchdowns. He tallied six knockdown blocks against the Tigers. Luigs took the field as the 2007 Rimington Trophy winner to lead Arkansas against No. 7 Missouri in the 2008 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. He blocked for another 100-yard effort from McFadden in the tailback's final game as a Razorback. The Doak Walker Award winner earned 105 yards and one touchdown on 21 carries. Luigs tallied four knockdowns against the Tigers.

2006: Luigs established himself as one of the top centers in the nation with a standout sophomore campaign at the heart of the Razorbacks' offensive line. He was one of six finalists for the Rimington Award. Luigs was the only sophomore and one of two underclassmen (junior) among the finalists for the prestigious honor. He earned third-team All-America honors from The Associated Press and first-team sophomore All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews.com. He earned first-team All-SEC honors from league coaches and The Associated Press after helping the Razorbacks lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation with 228.5 rushing yards per game. In addition, for only the third time in SEC history and the 38th time in NCAA history, Arkansas featured two 1,000-yard running backs (Darren McFadden - 1,647, Felix Jones - 1,168) on the same team. McFadden finished the season 10th in the NCAA in rushing yardage (117.6 ypg) and captured the 2006 Doak Walker Award, presented annually to the nation's best running back. McFadden also finished as the Heisman Trophy runner-up as a sophomore. Luigs also was at the center of an offensive front that cleared the way for 13 100-yard rushing performances in 14 games and allowed only nine sacks in 14 games (0.64) to rank second nationally in fewest sacks allowed. He graded out at a team-high 89.7 percent, including team-best clips of 85.1 percent in run blocking and 97.1 percent in pass blocking. He helped Jones rack up a career-high 150 yards rushing against the Badgers.

2005: It didn't take long for the redshirt freshman to become an integral part of the UA offensive front. When Robert Felton moved from right guard to right tackle to take over after Zac Tubbs suffered a serious high-ankle sprain, he filled the void at right guard. At two points during the season, he moved down one spot to play center for an ailing Kyle Roper. He filled in admirably, helping Arkansas rack up 216.9 yards rushing per game to lead the SEC and rank 12th nationally. The Hogs boasted a total of 10 100-yard rushing performances on the season, including five 100-yard efforts from SEC Freshman of the Year Darren McFadden. McFadden rushed for 1,113 yards behind the Hogs' offensive front. The offensive guard/center graded out at 84 percent or better on pass blocking in nine of 10 games he played. He ranked second on the line with a season pass blocking average of 92.2 percent. He posted the line's best rush block season average at 82.5 percent. He started seven games at right guard and three games at center. He had 53 knockdown blocks in 10 games played, an average of 5.3 per game that ranked second on the team. He led the squad in knockdown blocks three times. He was named a freshman All-American by ESPN.com and the Football Writers Association of America, a second-team selection by CollegeFootballNews.com and Rivals, and an honorable mention choice by The Sporting News. He was also named to the coaches SEC All-Freshman team. - He earned the opening day start at right guard in the Hogs' win over Missouri State. He recorded eight knockdown blocks and graded out at 86 percent against the Bears as Arkansas ran for 483 yards. He played 74 snaps against Vanderbilt and graded out at 90 percent with seven knockdown blocks. He suffered a high ankle sprain early in the first quarter against No. 1 USC and missed the Alabama game while trying to get healthy. When he returned, he started at center for Roper against Louisiana-Monroe. He graded out at 90 percent in his first start at center, recording six knockdown blocks in 52 snaps. He returned to right guard against Auburn and graded out at 91 percent on 58 snaps with a team-best five knockdown blocks. He played well at Georgia with a team- and career-high 11 knockdown blocks as the Razorbacks reeled off 216 yards rushing against the Bulldogs. He graded out at 88 percent in 72 snaps in the near-upset of No. 4 Georgia. He continued his impressive play against South Carolina with a team-high eight knockdown blocks. He graded out at 84 percent on 73 snaps as the Hogs rushed for 219 yards against the Gamecocks. He started the Ole Miss game at right guard, but was forced to move to center after Roper left early in the game with an injured knee. He logged 62 snaps, earning one knockdown block and an 80-percent grade on pass blocking. In his second start of the season at center, he graded out at 91 percent (89 running, 93 passing) to help lead the Razorbacks to a win against Mississippi State. He recorded two knockdown blocks against the Bulldogs. He racked up five knockdown blocks in the season finale against LSU.

2004: He came to Arkansas as an offensive guard, but also spent time at center on the scout team offense during his redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a three-year starter on the offensive line for Coach Kevin Kelley at Pulaski Academy. He started at both center and offensive tackle as well as playing defensive end. He graded out at 90 percent or better in blocking in each of his three varsity seasons. He capped his prep career by helping his squad win its first state championship (3A) in school history with a 13-2 mark. He was named to The Associated Press Arkansas Super Team and the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette All-Arkansas Team as a senior and the all-metro squad as a junior. He racked up 77 tackles, including 26 solo stops, in his junior campaign. He also earned four sacks, three more tackles for loss (-30) and two quarterback hurries. He was a member of the National Honor Society. He also was the 2003 recipient of the Brandon Burlsworth Award, named after the former Razorback All-American offensive guard. OUTLOOK: Going into the season, he is listed second on the depth chart at one of Arkansas' three receiver spots. With a new passing game installed in the spring, he could see a more prominent role this season. He is especially effective finding room in the middle of zone coverages. He played in 13 games last year and had a good spring. He did not have any catches in the Red-White Spring Game, but made his presence known in the two scrimmages. In the first, he had a team-high 10 receptions for 73 yards. In the second, he had four catches for 43 yards.

2007: He played in all 13 games with starts against Troy, Florida International and Mississippi State. He had 12 receptions for 157 yards and three touchdowns. He tied for sixth on the team in catches, was fifth in yardage and third in touchdowns. - Miller earned his first career start at split end in the opener against Troy. He did not record any statistics. Against Alabama, he spent time on the field at split end but did not record any stats. In the Kentucky game, he caught his first pass of the season, a 14-yarder from Casey Dick, for a first down. Coming off the bench as a reserve split end against North Texas, Miller made one catch for five yards and one touchdown. His TD catch from Dick was his first career touchdown reception and Arkansas' seventh touchdown of the evening. Playing at reserve split end against Chattanooga, he made one catch for six yards. Against Auburn, Miller caught two passes for 25 yards. He caught his second TD pass of the season with 1:36 to play in the fourth quarter to give Arkansas the lead. Against Ole Miss, he made one catch for six yards. His catch was good for an Arkansas first down and propelled a drive that led to an Alex Tejada field goal. Starting at split end against FIU, Miller did not record any receiving stats but he did force a fumble and recorded a solo tackle while playing on special teams. He caught his third TD pass of the season when he hauled in a Darren McFadden 35-yarder during the South Carolina game. The catch was also a career long. He hauled in two passes for 31 yards, including a long of 20, against Tennessee, and was named Hogwired.com Offensive Player of the Week. Both of his catches were Arkansas first downs. Miller logged time at split end against Mississippi State but did not record any stats. Against No. 1 LSU, he made one catch for 16 yards. He added two catches for 19 yards in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri.

2006: Miller appeared in eight games in his redshirt freshman season, making one start against No. 9 LSU in a three-wide receiver set. He impressed UA coaches with his early-season work on the practice field and earned playing time in eight of the Hogs' last nine games, including the final seven contests. In addition to his work at wide receiver, he logged time on special teams. – His first collegiate action came against Southeast Missouri State. He went on to play against Louisiana-Monroe, South Carolina, No. 13 Tennessee, Mississippi State, No. 9 LSU, No. 4 Florida and No. 7 Wisconsin. He earned a tackle against the Gators in the SEC Championship Game. His first career catch came at a crucial time in the Capital One Bowl against Wisconsin. He snared a key 19-yard pass from Casey Dick on third down late in the third quarter against the Badgers. The gain sustained the drive with a first down. Arkansas went on to score a touchdown and cut the Wisconsin lead to three points in the fourth quarter.

2005: He spent his redshirt season working with the wide receivers on the scout team offense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver for Coach Rick Jones at Greenwood High School. During his senior season, he recorded 58 catches for 1,200 yards, had 13 touchdowns and 11 interceptions. He also played free safety and was honored as an all-state selection. He was also a letterman in soccer, basketball and baseball. He was a three-time MVP in basketball and one of his performances was selected as the State Farm Play of the Year. He was also a member of the National Honor Society.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 21, 1986, Miller is the son of Johnny and Gail Miller. He is majoring in communication. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Fall 2007 and Spring 2006.

His missed the Kentucky game while serving a suspension. Mitchell returned for the North Texas game and made two tackles in 37 plays. Mitchell turned in one of his best performances with a then-season high seven tackles, five solo, and a TFL (-3). Mitchell was a force on the interior of the Razorbacks' defensive line vs. Auburn with a career-high 10 tackles, including eight solo stops and a TFL. He made two assisted tackles on 43 snaps at Ole Miss with two quarterback pressures. Mitchell was disruptive in the Florida International game with six tackles, five solo, and half of a sack. He made six tackles on 46 snaps vs. South Carolina. He logged 1.5 TFL (-8) and a sack (-7) to go along with three more quarterback hurries vs. the Gamecocks, and was named the Hogwired.com Defensive Player of the Week. Mitchell equaled his career high with 10 tackles at No. 22 Tennessee in just 55 snaps. He made five solo stops and recorded a TFL (-1). He was named the Hogwired.com Defensive Player of the Week following the Mississippi State win. He made 10 total tackles with seven solo stops, two TFL (-13), a sack (-8), a forced fumble after blowing up the running back in the backfield and a quarterback hurry. Mitchell made two solo and two assisted tackles in the Hogs' 50-48 triple-overtime win over No. 1. He also notched another TFL to give him 10.5 on the season, which tied for the team lead. He had one tackle, a solo stop, against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl.

2006: Mitchell started the season as a top reserve on the defensive line, but an injury to Marcus Harrison thrust the sophomore into the starting lineup. He played in all 14 games, starting nine contests, including the final six of the season. Mitchell earned starting nods against Alabama, Auburn, Southeast Missouri State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi State, LSU, Florida and Wisconsin. He was a persistent nuisance to opposing offenses in his sophomore season, racking up 41 tackles, including 22 solo stops, nine tackles for loss (-29) and one sack (-7). Of his 41 tackles, 23 of his stops came in five starts against ranked opponents. His nine tackles for loss ranked fourth on the squad and second among UA defensive tackles. Mitchell garnered at least one tackle for loss in seven games, including in all but two of his starts. He racked up nine quarterback hurries, tallied a pass break up and returned a fumble nine yards. – He played 15 snaps against USC, but did not record a tackle. Mitchell came back to make three tackles in a non-conference win over Utah State. He played nine snaps at Vanderbilt and registered two assisted tackles. He made his first career start in Harrison's absence against No. 22 Alabama and played 57 snaps. Mitchell responded with three tackles, including one TFL

(-1). In his second start, he was a constant presence in No. 2 Auburn's backfield, helping the Razorbacks to an upset of the Tigers. Mitchell garnered four tackles, including two TFLs (-10) and his first sack (-7) of the season. He made one solo tackle in 28 plays and knocked down a pass against Southeast Missouri State. He played 14 snaps as he moved back to second team defensive tackle behind Marcus Harrison, but did not make a tackle. Mitchell played 51 snaps against Louisiana-Monroe, making five tackles, and recovering a fumble and returning it nine yards. His fumble recovery and return set up a UA touchdown. He started his fourth game of the season at South Carolina, recording four tackles and a TFL (-6). He made his second-consecutive start at home against No. 13 Tennessee. He earned four tackles, including three solo, one tackle for loss (-5) and two quarterback hurries in the win over the Volunteers. Mitchell started his fourth-straight game at Mississippi State, collecting three tackles and a quarterback hurry. In the regular season finale against No. 9 LSU, he made five total tackles with three solo stops and a TFL (-1). Mitchell made four solo tackles and tallied two tackles for loss (-5) and one quarterback hurry against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game. It was Mitchell's second career game at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The Georgia native played a high school state playoff game in the facility as a prepster. He capped his season with two tackles, one TFL (-1) and two quarterback hurries in a start against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl.

2005: He appeared in nine games in his redshirt freshman season as a reserve on the UA defensive line. He played in every game with the exception of the Vanderbilt and Southern California contests. He tallied six tackles, including one TFL (-4), and four quarterback hurries on the season. Three of his six stops were of the solo variety. He earned at least one tackle in five of the nine games he participated in. – He earned an assisted tackle in the Hogs' season-opening win over Missouri State. He played against Alabama, Louisiana-Monroe, Auburn and Georgia. He earned an assisted tackle and three quarterback hurries against ULM, but didn't earn statistics against the other opponents. He tallied another assisted stop against South Carolina. He made two solo tackles and a TFL (-7) in the Razorbacks' first league win at Ole Miss. He added another solo tackle against Mississippi State.

2004: He spent his redshirt season bulking up in the weight room and working on the UA scout team defense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He racked up 146 tackles, including 21 tackles for loss, in his senior season at Newnan High School. The Coweta-Fayette County Player of the Year and an Atlanta Touchdown Club Player of the Week award winner, he tallied 10 sacks for Coach Robert Herring. He helped his high school squad post a 13-2 record in his final campaign. He was rated as the No. 18 player in Georgia by Rivals. OUTLOOK: The former Razorback quarterback returned to Fayetteville and sat out last season after transferring from Samford. He has command of Arkansas' new offensive package, including checks and audibles associated with the offense. He ended the spring listed on the depth chart behind senior Casey Dick and redshirt freshman Nathan Dick. In the Red-White Spring Game, he was two-of-seven for 29 yards with a 20-yard completion to Ben Cleveland. In the first scrimmage of the spring, he was eight-of-15 for 159 yards with a 45-yard touchdown to Rod Coleman and a four-yard score to John Durmon. In the second scrimmage, he was 11-of-23 for 137 yards with two TDs and an interception. His scoring tosses were 26 yards to Brandon Barnett and five to Cleveland. Combined, he was 21-of-45 (.467) for 325 yards with four touchdowns and one interception.

SAMFORD: He played in eight games at Samford in 2006. He was 34-of-67 (.507) passing for 309 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. He started once, in a 20-14 home loss to Tennessee Tech. In that game, he was 14-of-26 for 88 yards. In a 29-7 loss at Tennessee State, he was five-of-eight for 47 yards with a three-yard touchdown pass. He was six-of-16 for 73 yards with an interception in a 10-6 home loss to Tennessee Martin, three-of-seven for 36 yards in a 33-7 win over Murray State, three-of-five for 47 yards with a 23-yard touchdown in a 31-12 loss to Eastern Kentucky, one-of-two for four yards in a 38-6 loss at Georgia Tech, and two-of-three for 14 yards with an eight-yard TD in a 37-7 win over Miles.

ARKANSAS: He redshirted in 2004 and began the 2005 season second on the depth chart with Cole Barthel behind Robert Johnson. He played in four games and was six-of-17 (.353) for 63 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions.

RAZORBACKS

He was four-of-10 for 38 yards with a touchdown and an interception against Southern Cal, one-of-three for 20 yards against Missouri State, one-of-one for five yards against Mississippi State, and zero-of-three with an interception against Louisiana-Monroe.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: The 2003 Atlanta Journal-Constitution Class A Offensive Player of the Year completed 159-of-269 passes for 2,565 yards and 29 touchdowns for Coach Kenny Dallas as a senior at Landmark Christian High. He was named first-team all-state by the AP and the Journal-Constitution, and earned all-state honors three times in his career. The AJC named him the Atlanta City/South Metro Offensive Player of the Year (included all high school classifications) twice, he was a two-time Region 5 Class A MVP and All-North Georgia First-Team Class A award winner. As a junior, he completed 151-of-241 passes for 2,270 yards and 25 touchdowns, and was honorable mention all-state. He was one of three juniors nationally selected as a "Ball Boy" to the Elite 11 quarterback camp in 2002. He played in the North-South Georgia All-Star Game and was selected to Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report All-America squad. His high school was a combined 29-7 his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. Tom Lemming ranked him the No. 25 overall quarterback in the country and No. 1 in Georgia. Rivals listed him as the No. 29 pro-style quarterback in the nation. Max Emfinger ranked him the No. 13 drop-back quarterback and No. 27 overall quarterback in the country. CollegeSports.com listed him as one of the nation's "Super Prospects" and SuperPrep ranked him the No. 23 overall prospect in Georgia. He was also recruited by LSU, Alabama, Clemson, North Carolina State, North Carolina and Hawaii.

PERSONAL: Born Nov. 24, 1985, he is the son of Chris and Micki Mortensen. He is majoring in communication. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for the 2004-05 and 2007-08 academic years. He was also named to the 2004 SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll. His father is an NFL analyst for ESPN.

JERELL NORTON

CB, 6-0, 190, JR-2L
Cedar Hill, Texas
(Cedar Hill)

OUTLOOK: One of Arkansas' most talented defensive backs, he played in 13 games last year and made six starts, all at left cornerback, and was an honorable mention All-SEC pick. He missed most of spring work after injuring his hamstring in the second spring practice. He could compete for a starting spot, especially with the loss of all four starters from last year's secondary. He could also return punts again this season. Despite starting just half of the games last year, he was fourth in the SEC and 40th in the nation with five interceptions, and fourth in the SEC with 11 passes broken up. His interception total is the best for a Razorback since 1998. Norton holds the school record with a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown.

2007: Norton saw action in all 13 games last year with six starts at left cornerback, and earned honorable mention All-SEC honors from the AP. When not in the starting lineup, he was backing up Michael Grant and was the first reserve defensive back off the bench. Norton had 34 tackles, five interceptions for 174 yards and a touchdown, 11 passes broken up, one TFL (-1), two quarterback hurries and a fumble recovery. He was fourth in the SEC in passes broken up, and fourth in the league and 40th in the country with five interceptions. His 100-yard interception return for a touchdown against North Texas is a school record, topping the 99-yard return by Orlando Watters against LSU in 1993. His five picks are the most for a Razorback since Zac Painter had five in 1998 and his return yardage is the second-most in school history to Watters' 185 in 1993 on six picks. Watters is the most recent Hog to have more than five interceptions in a season. Norton also led the team with 18 punt returns for 142 yards (7.9), which ranked eighth in the SEC. - He started the first two games of the season and then came off the bench vs. Kentucky. He played a career-high 70 snaps against Troy with a career-high and team-best 10 tackles, including eight solo stops and three pass break ups. At Alabama, Norton earned five tackles and his first career interception. He logged four solo tackles and an assist vs. Kentucky on 36 snaps. He knocked down his sixth pass of the season, had a quarterback hurry and recovered his first career fumble vs. the Wildcats. Norton made two tackles in a team-high 78 plays vs. North Texas where he broke up a pass and set the school record for longest interception return, 100 yards. Norton picked off the UNT pass two yards deep in the end zone and weaved his way downfield for the touchdown. Norton was a big part of the Hogs' secondary that held the Mean Green 189 yards below their season average through the air. Norton made his third interception of the season as the Hogs limited Chattanooga to 11 yards passing on four completions in 22 attempts. He also returned two punts for 62 yards, including a long of 45 yards. Norton played 35 snaps vs. Auburn but did not record any statistics. Norton made two tackles and logged his fourth pick of the season in 28 plays at Ole Miss and returned a punt 26 yards. He picked off his fifth pass of the year and returned it 23 yards vs. Florida International. He also broke up two passes and notched two solo tackles. Norton made two solo tackles in 50 plays vs. South Carolina. He recorded one pass breakup in 26 snaps at No. 22 Tennessee. Norton made two tackles vs. Mississippi State before leaving the game with an injury. North made two solo tackles and broke up a pass in the win at No. 1 LSU. He also returned three punts for three yards. He added two solo tackles against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl.

2006: Norton reported to fall camp a little late due to a delay in certification from the NCAA Clearinghouse, but it didn't take long for the Razorback rookie to make it clear he would be a major contributor at cornerback. Norton worked his way up to second on the depth chart at right cornerback after just one game. He made the first start of his career at Vanderbilt when the Hogs opened in a dime defense. He moved to free safety following the South Carolina game when Michael Grant was lost for the season with a knee injury. He played primarily as a reserve at that position behind Kevin Woods. Norton played in 11 games in his freshman campaign, missing only the Alabama, Auburn and Southeast Missouri State games due to an injury. He had 15 tackles on the season, including 10 solo stops. Norton earned at least one tackle in seven of his 11 appearances on the gridiron. Two of his 15 tackles came on special teams. He recovered two fumbles and forced a fumble on the season. - Norton played six snaps against No. 3 USC after missing the early part of pre-season camp. He really stepped in and contributed against Utah State where he made five tackles in just 15 snaps on the defensive side of the ball. Three of his five tackles against the Aggies were solo stops. In the most extensive playing time of his career, Norton made one solo tackle in 43 snaps in a win at Vanderbilt. He did not play against Alabama, Auburn or Southeast Missouri State due to a high ankle sprain. Norton returned to the field for the Hogs' game with Ole Miss. He made two solo tackles in five plays off the bench against the Rebels. Norton made three tackles in a reserve role against Louisiana-Monroe on five plays. Norton made one special teams tackle at South Carolina while also seeing time in the defensive secondary. He saw limited action at free safety against Tennessee and did not make a tackle. Norton played significant snaps at Mississippi State, making one tackle. He made two tackles and forced a fumble against No. 9 LSU. He then recovered the same fumble to halt the Tigers' offensive drive. Norton logged snaps behind Woods against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game, but he did not make a tackle. He played in the secondary and on special teams against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl. He didn't register a tackle against the Badgers.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was named the District 7-5A Offensive Player of the Year after helping Coach Joey McGuire's club win the district title. It was the first district championship for CHS in 25 years. He spent a majority of his time at wide receiver, but did play three games at quarterback and logged some time at cornerback. He earned player of the week honors from the Dallas Morning News in the first week of his senior campaign. He also earned district player of the week honors seven times in his final prep campaign. For the year, he ran for 997 yards and 16 touchdowns, passed for 532 yards and three scores, and caught 46 passes for 859 yards and seven touchdowns. He also had two interceptions. He helped his team to the state playoffs. He was also recruited by Iowa, Texas A&M, Baylor, Kansas, Oklahoma State, SMU, Arizona, TCU and Tulsa.

PERSONAL: Born, Jan. 10, 1988, he is the son of Clarence Norton. He is majoring in journalism.

SETH OXNER

C, 6-4, 300, FR-RS
Monticello, Ark.
[Monticello]

60

OUTLOOK: Oxner will attempt to parlay a strong fall camp into a reserve role on the Razorbacks' offensive front. The offensive line is expected to be one of Arkansas' strengths this season, and Oxner should add to that depth and could work his way into the rotation. Playing behind a returning All-American in Jonathan Luigs, who is the reigning winner of the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center, he has the chance to learn from the best. He is second to Luigs on the pre-season depth chart at center.

2007: He redshirted while working with the scout team offense. He also improved his size and strength. He's added 15 pounds since stepping on campus.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a member of the AP Arkansas Super Team as an offensive lineman for Coach Van Paschal at Monticello. He led his team with 100 pancake blocks. The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette named him to its All-Arkansas squad. He also played basketball and won the Class 4A state championship in the discus as a junior. Rivals and Scout both listed him as a four-star recruit and as the No. 4 center in the nation. Rivals ranked him the No. 6 prospect in the state. HawgsSports.com named him to its Natural 21 at No. 4. Scout listed him the No. 7 prospect in the state. Hawgs Illustrated ranked him No. 5 overall in Arkansas. He chose Arkansas over Texas A&M, LSU, Mississippi State and Oklahoma State.

PERSONAL: Born March 14, 1989, he is the son of Loyd and Jaci Oxner. He is majoring in kinesiology. He was named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008.

MITCH PETRUS

OG, 6-4, 305, SR-3L
Carlisle, Ark.
[Carlisle]

66

OUTLOOK: Cited by coaches as one of the most improved players of the spring, Petrus is primed for a standout senior season at offensive guard. Already a solid blocker, he polished his blocking technique in the spring and that could help him be even more effective in 2008. A former fullback, he's played in 36 games over his career and started 12 times last season. The second-team All-SEC selection started at left guard last year and is the starter at that spot heading into the season. Last year, he helped Arkansas' line pave the way for an SEC-leading and school-record 3,725 rushing yards, and an average of 286.5 yards per game, which was fourth in the nation. Arkansas also generated a school-record 5,850 yards of total offense and scored a school-record 485 points. The point total ranked No. 13 in the nation with 37.3 per game and the total offense average of 450.0 ranked No. 17.

2007: He moved from fullback to guard prior to the season and played in all 13 games with 12 starts. The only game he did not start was the Chattanooga contest. He earned second-team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches and was a third-team pick by Phil Steele's College Football. He cleared the way for two All-American running backs – Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, who led the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing (140.8), and Felix Jones, who ranked fifth in the SEC and No. 43 in the country (89.4). His overall grade for the year was 83.4, including a grade of 96.3 on passing plays. His 54 knockdown blocks were third only to Nate Garner's 62 and Jonathan Luigs' 55. – Petrus, in his first career start, played left guard in the season opener against Troy. He blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard performances and Casey Dick to throw for more than 100 yards. Against Alabama, he played 78 snaps at left guard with a 100 percent pass block grade. Arkansas racked up 450 yards of total offense, including 301 yards rushing. McFadden recorded the 14th 100-yard rushing game of his career (195) and Jones ran for 96 yards. He also tallied six knockdown blocks. The offensive line protected Dick and did not give up a sack. He played 78 snaps against Kentucky with an 86 percent pass block grade. He also tallied six knockdown blocks. He blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard rushing performances. At right tackle against North Texas, he blocked the way for the Razorbacks to gain more than 700 yards of offense. He played 53 snaps against the Mean Green with an 83 percent run block grade, a 95 percent pass block grade and an 88 percent total block grade and three knockdown blocks. Playing as a reserve left guard against Chattanooga, Petrus had a run block grade of 90 percent, a pass block grade of 100 percent and a total block grade of 92 percent. He also tallied three knockdown blocks. The offensive line blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard rushing performances. Back at starting left guard, he played 54 snaps against Auburn with an 83 percent total block grade and a 93 percent pass block grade. He also notched three knockdown blocks. Against Ole Miss, the offensive line blocked for four passing touchdowns, 12-of-18 and 144 yards for the quarterbacks and for McFadden and Jones to eclipse the 100-yard mark. Petrus recorded grades of 82 percent blocking the run, 100 percent blocking the pass and 87 percent overall. He also had three knockdown blocks. At left guard against FIU, Petrus had one knockdown block, graded out at 100 percent for the pass and 80 percent total. In the South Carolina game, he recorded 14 knockdown blocks while earning an 84 percent run block grade, a 100 percent pass block grade and a total grade of 86 percent. He blocked the way for Arkansas' 650 yards of offense, including 542 yards on the ground, and four rushing TDs, and was named the SEC's Offensive Lineman of the Week. Petrus graded out at 80 percent for a total block grade while recording one knockdown block against Tennessee. Recording seven knockdown blocks, he had grades of 83 percent run blocking, 94 pass blocking and 87 percent total against Mississippi State. The offensive line blocked for 429 yards of offense and five passing touchdowns. Against No. 1 LSU, the offensive line blocked for over 500 yards of offense and seven touchdowns.

2006: He reported to Arkansas as a candidate for the offensive line. His sophomore season saw him take on a new role on the Razorbacks' offense. Petrus moved to fullback and was one of the Hogs' most effective blockers out of the backfield and on special teams. He appeared in all 14 games, logging time as a blocking back and on the kickoff return and PAT/field goal units. He helped clear the way for a pair of 1,000-yard rushers (McFadden and Jones) and the 2006 Doak Walker Award winner (McFadden). Perhaps his best play of the season came on a kickoff return when he made the final block to spring Jones for a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Ole Miss. He earned one rushing attempt on the season and gained a yard against Southeast Missouri State. – Petrus played in the season opener against No. 3 USC. He didn't have a carry, but played on special teams. He appeared in Arkansas' 20-0 win over Utah State, earning snaps at fullback and on special teams. He logged several snaps in the backfield leading the way for tailbacks McFadden and Jones against Vanderbilt. He also played on special teams against the Commodores. He saw time at fullback and helped McFadden rack up a 100-yard rushing game against No. 22 Alabama. Petrus was utilized as a blocking back in addition to his regular role on special teams against the Crimson Tide. He provided some key blocks as Arkansas' racked up 279 yards rushing against No. 2 Auburn. The Razorbacks' had two 100-yard rushers (McFadden and Jones) in the game. He was a key blocker in helping the Hogs earn 381 yards rushing in a win over Southeast Missouri State. He blazed the way for 100-yard rushing efforts by Michael Smith and Jones. Petrus also earned his first career carry against the Redhawks. He netted one yard on the attempt in the fourth quarter. He played in the offensive backfield and on special teams in the Razorbacks' home win over Ole Miss. He provided the final key block on Jones' 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on the game's opening kickoff. He helped clear the way for 331 yards rushing in Arkansas' 44-10 win over Louisiana-Monroe. Petrus helped the Hogs rush for 267 yards in limited action at fullback. He was instrumental in blocking for Arkansas' vaunted rushing attack in the Hogs' win over No. 13 Tennessee. Arkansas racked up 259 yards rushing, including 181 from McFadden. He was Arkansas' first fullback on the field in the Razorbacks' win over Mississippi State. Petrus was taking the place of an injured Peyton Hillis. He was used as a blocker in the offensive backfield and on special teams against No. 9 LSU. Petrus contributed to the Razorbacks' total of 298 yards rushing, including 182 by McFadden and 137 by Jones. He saw time as a blocking back and on special teams in the SEC Championship Game against No. 4 Florida and in the Capital One Bowl against No. 7 Wisconsin.

2005: He played in nine games for the Razorbacks as a member of the kickoff return team and a reserve tight end and offensive guard. He didn't play in the first two games of the season against Missouri State and Vanderbilt, but appeared in each of the nine games that followed. His first experience at offensive guard came in the Louisiana-Monroe game when he logged 12 snaps at his new position. He graded-out at a team-high 91 percent, including 88 percent on running plays and 100 percent on passing plays. He tallied three knockdown blocks in his limited stint against the Indians. His other significant playing time on the offensive front came in the Razorbacks' win over Mississippi State. He played 32 snaps, carding a grade of 81 percent.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned letters as a tight end and fullback under Coach Jamie Jones at Carlisle High School. He also played linebacker and earned the AA Conference Lineman of the Year award. He was honored as an all-conference and all-state performer. As a tight end, he hauled in 40 receptions for 750 yards and eight touchdowns. During his junior campaign, he broke the state record for tackles in a game with 39. He recorded 306 tackles, including 145 solo tackles, his senior year and led the state. He also lettered in basketball and track, and was an all-conference and all-state performer in basketball.

RYAN POWERS

WLB, 6-1, 207, SO-1L
Athens, Ala.
(Tanner HS)

OUTLOOK: As a redshirt freshman last year, he saw considerable time as a backup and on special teams. This year, he enters the season as the starter at weak side linebacker. He has great energy and possesses good speed. He had three tackles in the Red-White Spring Game, including two solos. In the first major scrimmage of the spring, he was second on the team with 12 tackles. He had six solos and six assists, a TFL (-2) and two passes broken up. In the second scrimmage, he had six tackles with five solo stops.

2007: Powers started two of Arkansas' first three games at will linebacker, but backed up Elston Forte most of the season. He played in 12 games, missing the LSU contest. He had 19 tackles, nine solo, with a TFL (-1). Powers saw limited playing time in the season opener as Troy employed a spread offense with four and five wide receivers that kept the Hogs in nickel and dime packages. He was fantastic when he was in the game, making five solo tackles on a total of seven plays. Powers made four tackles, three solo, at Alabama, including a tackle for loss (-1). He made three assisted tackles in 39 plays vs. Kentucky. Powers played just one snap on the defensive side of the football vs. UNT. He made one special teams tackle against Chattanooga. He made one solo tackle off the bench in seven snaps vs. Auburn. Powers played 13 snaps at will linebacker at Ole Miss. He made two assisted tackles with one coming on special teams. Powers made one assisted tackle in 12 snaps vs. Florida International. He made one assisted tackle on special teams vs. South Carolina. Powers made one assisted tackle in four snaps at Tennessee. He played against Mississippi State and in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri, but did not make a tackle.

2006: A pulled hamstring early in the 2006 season sidelined his rookie season before the end of September. He played against No. 3 USC and against Vanderbilt before suffering the injury against the Commodores. Fortunately for Powers and the Razorbacks, his limited play made him eligible for a medical hardship season. In his limited stint, he saw snaps on the kickoff coverage team. He made one solo stop against Vanderbilt.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a two-way starter for Coach Laron White at Tanner High. As a senior, he led his prep squad to the third round of the state playoffs and was named an honorable mention all-district selection. The Decatur Daily named him to its all-area squad. He racked up 503 yards and six touchdowns in his first seven games as a senior. He was selected as his squad's most valuable offensive and defensive player in his senior season. His prep squad also made the state playoffs in his junior campaign. He earned state runner-up honors as a junior in the 200 meters with a time of 22.4 seconds. He clocked in at 10.8 seconds in the 100-meter dash and finished third at the state track meet as a junior. He chose Arkansas over Southern Miss, Alabama and Memphis, among others.

PERSONAL: Born June 22, 1988, he is the son of Riley and Phyllis Powers. He was born in England while his father was in the Air Force. He is majoring in sociology and criminal justice.

JOHN AARON REES

WR, 6-0, 207, SR-3L
Little Rock, Ark.
(Pulaski Academy)

87

OUTLOOK: A former walk-on, he earned a scholarship last season and has already graduated. He is not listed on the pre-season two-deep depth chart at any of the three wide receiver positions, but will likely get an opportunity to work into the mix during fall camp. He has been a key contributor on special teams and could fill that role again this year. He did not have any receptions in any of the major spring scrimmages.

2007: He played against Troy in the opener, but was lost for the year with a right PCL injury prior to the Alabama game. He did not have any statistics against Troy.

2006: Rees was a familiar face on the field for the Razorbacks, logging snaps in the wide receiver rotation and on special teams. He appeared in all 14 games and earned his first career start in a multiple receiver formation against No. 22 Alabama. He didn't make a reception in his sophomore season. He was also a regular on the punt return and kickoff return teams for the Hogs. - Rees played in the Hogs' wide receiver set and on special teams in the Hogs' season opener against No. 3 USC. He played, but didn't earn stats in a 20-0 win over Utah State. He was back on the field in a road win at Vanderbilt. Rees earned his first career start in the Hogs' 24-23 double-overtime win against No. 22 Alabama. He was part of an offensive formation that included three wide receivers. He contributed on special teams in Arkansas' 27-10 upset win over No. 2 Auburn. He played at wide receiver and on special teams in the Razorbacks' 63-7 win over Southeast Missouri State. He didn't accrue statistics in Arkansas' home win over Ole Miss. He saw extensive action at wide receiver in the second half of Arkansas'

ARKANSAS

44-10 win over Louisiana-Monroe. He didn't make a catch against the Warhawks. Rees played against South Carolina and Tennessee but didn't have any statistics. He logged time on special teams in Arkansas' win at Mississippi State. Rees played on special teams against No. 9 LSU and against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game. He completed his 14-game resume with playing time against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl.

2005: He appeared in nine games during his redshirt freshman season, serving on a variety of special teams. He was a contributor to both the punt return and kickoff return units. The biggest play of his young Razorback career came when he recovered a blocked punt against Alabama in the fourth quarter deep in Crimson Tide territory. The recovered kick led to a UA field goal.

2004: He spent his redshirt season working with the wide receivers on the scout team offense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He helped Pulaski Academy to its first state championship in school history in 2003. He caught 75 passes for 1,347 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior for Coach Kevin Kelley. He also returned nine kickoffs for 232 yards and 14 punts for 205 yards. On defense, he racked up six interceptions and 33 yards in returns. He returned 16 punts for 192 yards and nine kickoffs for 232 yards as a senior. In his junior season, he snared 50 catches for 918 yards and 10 touchdowns. Max Emfinger rated him the No. 23 wide receiver in the nation. He was also recruited by SMU, Tulsa and Army.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 17, 1985, he is the son of John and Debbie Rees. He has earned his bachelor's in finance and real estate and is now enrolled in graduate school. Rees was an Academic All-SEC selection in 2005-06. He was named to Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008, and for the 2005-06 and 2004-05 academic years. He was also named a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 and 2004-05 academic years. His father, John Aaron Rees Sr., was a three-year football letterman at Arkansas from 1968-70.

BARRETT REYNOLDS

SNP, 6-1, 232, SO-SQ
Dallas, Texas
[Plano West HS]

OUTLOOK: Rhett Richardson returns at deep snapper, but Reynolds worked out with the specialists last year and could be ready if an opportunity arises.

2007: He did not see any game action, but practiced with the snappers and kickers.

2006: Reynolds redshirted while practicing with the special teams groups.

HIGH SCHOOL: A deep snapper and offensive tackle for head coach Mike Hughes at Plano West, he earned all-county and all-district honors at snapper as a senior in 2005. He was honorable mention in 2004 and had no bad snaps in two years at the position. He helped his team go 6-4 his senior season and 10-2 with an 8-5A bi-district title as a junior.

PERSONAL: Born June 8, 1987, he is the son of Bruce and Martha Reynolds. His brother, Blake, was a deep snapper at Central Missouri State. Barrett is majoring in marketing management. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll in Fall 2006.

RHETT RICHARDSON

SNP, 6-1, 216, SO-1L
Rockwall, Texas
[Rockwall]

OUTLOOK: Arkansas' returning starting deep snapper, he is expected to hold onto that position again this year.

2007: Richardson earned the deep snapping duties as a true freshman. He handled that role in all 13 games. The Razorbacks had just one punt and one kick blocked in 144 attempts. He snapped to Jeremy Davis for 61 punts, and to holder Clark Irwin for 23 field goal and 60 PAT kicks. Thanks in part to Richardson's snaps, freshman kicker Alex Tejada set a UA kick scoring record with 109 points. Tejada converted on 17-of-23 field goals and 58-of-60 PAT. He had one tackle on special teams, an assisted stop against Kentucky.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He played tight end as a sophomore and junior before concentrating full time on deep snapping as a senior. His senior team went 10-3, including 7-0 in District 10-5A under Coach Scott Smith. Richardson was invited to specialty camps in California and to the Nike Elite 12 camp in Las Vegas, Nev. ChrisSailer.com ranked him the No. 3 high school snapper and the No. 4 overall snapper in the nation. He chose Arkansas after also considering Baylor.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 21, 1988, he is the son of Dennis and Cheryl Richardson. He is majoring in business. He was named to the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll for the 2007-08 academic year.

ANTWAIN ROBINSON

DE, 6-2, 258, SR-3L
Little Rock, Ark.
[Central HS]

OUTLOOK: A former starter, he is listed second on the pre-season depth chart at right end, but he will compete for the starting position in fall camp. If he is not starting, he will still see considerable playing time, helping make the defensive line perhaps the strongest unit on the team. He is an accomplished pass rusher with extensive game experience. He did not have any tackles in the Red-White Spring Game, but was a playmaker in the two other scrimmages. In the first scrimmage, he had five tackles with four solos. He had three sacks for 11 yards in losses and returned a fumble 15 yards. In the second scrimmage, he had two tackles, two tackles for loss (-10), one sack (-9) and a pass broken up. Quick off the edge, in 28 career games, he has 23 tackles for loss, 11.5 sacks, 15 passes broken up and he's scored three touchdowns on interception (two) and fumble returns.

2007: He played in all 13 games with six starts. His starts were in consecutive games against Alabama, Kentucky, North Texas, Chattanooga, Auburn and Ole Miss. He had 35 tackles with 23 solo stops. He also had 5.5 TFL (-44), 3.0 sacks (-37), 12 quarterback hurries, seven passes broken up, a forced fumble, one interception and 30-yard return and one recovered fumble with a 16-yard return. - Robinson notched 37 snaps in a backup role in the season opener. He made four total tackles with three solo stops. Robinson also knocked down an Omar Haugabook pass and had a quarterback hurry. He started his first game of the season at Alabama and gave the Hogs a consistent pass rush off the right edge. He drew two holding calls on the Crimson Tide's heralded left tackle Andre Smith. Robinson made five tackles with one TFL (-4), a pass breakup and two quarterback hurries in 74 snaps vs. Alabama. He registered his first sack of the season against Kentucky's Andre Woodson, dropping the All-America candidate for an eight-yard loss. Robinson also scooped up a Woodson fumble and returned it 16 yards for his second career touchdown in the first quarter. He finished the UK game with two solo tackles, a sack, a fumble recovery and two pass break ups. Robinson made two tackles in 34 snaps vs. North Texas as the Hogs cruised to a 66-7 win. Robinson logged four solo tackles vs. Chattanooga with 1.5 TFL (-17), his second sack of the season (-16) and forced a fumble. He was very active from his defensive end spot vs. Auburn with two quarterback hurries, a pass deflection, two tackles and a TFL (-2). Robinson deflected one Seth Adams pass and made six tackles as the Razorbacks routed Ole Miss 44-8. Against FIU, he did not make a tackle, but did bat down his fifth pass of the season and register a quarterback hurry. Robinson had an assisted tackle and three quarterback hurries vs. South Carolina in 35 snaps. Robinson had one assisted tackle in 20 snaps at Tennessee. He had two solo tackles and a 30-yard interception return for a touchdown on 31 snaps vs. Mississippi State. He made three solo tackles and swatted down two Matt Flynn passes in Arkansas' 50-48 triple-overtime win at No. 1 LSU. Against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl, he had two solo tackles, including a 13-yard sack.

2006: Robinson emerged as a bonafide standout at defensive end for the Razorbacks. He was a member of the Ted Hendricks Award watch list and earned second-team sophomore All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews.com. League coaches named him to the second-team All-SEC squad. He started all 13 games he played in, missing only the Southeast Missouri State game on the schedule due to a nagging injury. He racked up 68 tackles, including 44 solo stops and 24 assisted tackles. His 68 tackles were among the best in the conference by defensive linemen. Robinson ranked second on the team to fellow defensive end Jamaal Anderson with 14.5 tackles for loss (-86) and 8.5 sacks (-63). He ranked fourth in the SEC and 37th in the nation in tackles for loss while ranking sixth in the league and 44th in the country in sacks. He earned at least one tackle for loss in 12 of 13 games and a sack in seven of his 13 contests. Robinson ranked third on the team with 15 quarterback hurries and he earned one forced fumble. He tallied seven pass break ups and returned an interception 40 yards for a touchdown to give the Razorbacks a second-half lead against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game. – He made eight tackles, four solo, vs. No. 4 USC, including a sack (-13) of Trojans' quarterback John David Booty. He also recorded three quarterback hurries and broke up two passes. Robinson made six tackles against Utah State with four solo stops and one tackle for loss (-1). He produced another strong effort at Vanderbilt, earning seven tackles, six solo, and his second sack (-1) of the season. Robinson caused havoc in the Alabama backfield in the Razorbacks' 24-23 double-overtime win. He racked up 2.5 sacks (-23), eight tackles and a forced fumble that Randy Kelly returned 39 yards for a touchdown. Robinson registered seven tackles and a sack (-9) in the Hogs' 27-10 win at No. 2 Auburn. He also broke up his third pass of the season on a screen pass that he snuffed out and then almost intercepted if not for a turnover-saving breakup by quarterback Brandon Cox. He did not play against Southeast Missouri State with a hip flexor. He returned to the field against Ole Miss, but left in the second half after spraining his ankle. He had three tackles and a TFL (-3) on 42 snaps. Robinson made a career-high 10 tackles and two tackles for loss (-11) in the Hogs' 44-10 win over ULM on Oct. 28 in Little Rock. He did a little bit of everything at South Carolina. The sophomore made three solo tackles, including a sack for nine yards and a pass breakup. Robinson made five solo tackles and a tackle for loss (-2) in the Hogs' 31-14 win over No. 13 Tennessee. He made four tackles and one TFL (-6) at Mississippi State. He also had two quarterback hurries. Robinson notched three solo stops and an assist against No. 9 LSU in the regular season finale. He also registered three quarterback hurries against the Tigers. Robinson sacked Florida quarterback Chris Leak and returned an intercepted shovel pass 40 yards for a touchdown in the SEC Championship Game. His interception return and score gave Arkansas a lead in the game midway through the third quarter. He also tallied two tackles and one quarterback hurry against the Gators. Robinson made one solo tackle, a TFL (-3) against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl. He broke up two passes and earned a quarterback hurry in the 17-14 loss to the Badgers.

2005: With the Razorbacks in need of defensive help in November, he passed on his redshirt season to play in the final three games of the 2005 campaign. He earned five tackles, including three tackles for loss (-7) in his three games of action. – He was impressive in his collegiate debut, racking up four tackles, two solo and two assists, in the Razorbacks' win over Ole Miss. Two of his four tackles netted lost yardage (-4). He tallied a TFL for the second-consecutive game when he earned a solo tackle for loss (-3) against Mississippi State. He concluded his short rookie season against No. 3 LSU in Baton Rouge. He didn't earn a tackle against the Tigers.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He injured his knee in the summer prior to his senior season and did not play for Coach Bernie Cox in 2004. As a junior, he helped lead his team to the 5A state championship. He made 60 tackles, including 21 unassisted stops, 12 sacks and eight tackles for loss in his junior campaign. He also tallied four forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, two pass deflections and one blocked punt. Rivals rated him the No. 7 overall prospect in Arkansas. He was No. 95 on the Mobile Press Register's Super Southeast 120 listing. In addition to Arkansas, he was recruited by Tennessee, North Carolina, LSU and Oklahoma.

PERSONAL: Born April 20, 1986, he is the son of Bernice Robinson. He is majoring in kinesiology.

ROBERT SALINAS

WLB, 6-1, 239, JR-SQ
La Joya, Texas
[La Joya / Wabash College]

52

OUTLOOK: He was not listed on the two-deep depth chart at any of the line-backer positions following spring practice, but one of the priorities for fall is establishing depth at the position and he may work his way into the mix. He had one tackle, a solo stop, in the Red-White Spring Game. In the first scrimmage of the spring, he tied for sixth on the team with seven tackles, including seven assists. He also recovered a fumble and broke up a pass. In the second scrimmage, he had six tackles on four solos and two assists. Included in that total were two sacks, for one and five yards.

2007: He sat out after transferring from Wabash College. He worked with the scout team defense in practice.

WABASH COLLEGE: He played at Wabash (Crawfordsville, Ind.) in 2006, helping his team go 11-1 with a North Coast Athletic Conference championship and reach the second round of the NCAA Division III playoffs. He had four tackles with a 12-yard sack and also blocked a kick.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was first-team all-state at defensive end, played for the South in the state all-star game, and was also all-district and all-region. He set a school record with 19 sacks and was named the most valuable defensive player in the Rio Grande Valley. A team captain, he also had 87 tackles, including 39 for losses, seven forced fumbles, three blocked punts and an interception. His team won district titles his junior and senior seasons. He also competed in track and wrestling. He was third at regionals in the triple jump as a senior and reached the final eight in the state wrestling tournament as a junior and senior. He graduated in the top five percent of his class, which included 1,150 students. He plays the euphonium and was an all-city and all-valley qualifier in the band.

PERSONAL: Born Nov. 21, 1986, he is the son of Robert and Severa Salinas. He is majoring in history. During the summer of 2005, he played football in Australia.

CARLTON SALTERS

WR, 6-0, 191, SO-1L
Tallahassee, Fla.
[North Florida Christian HS]

OUTLOOK: After getting experience as a redshirt freshman and a having a big spring, he goes into the season listed as the starter at one of Arkansas' three wide receiver positions. With a more active passing game installed for the fall, he will likely figure more prominently into the offense this year. He has good hands and is skilled at finding open pockets to give quarterbacks a target, especially in zone coverage. He had seven catches for a game-high 108 yards in the Red-White Spring Game. In the first scrimmage of the spring, he had eight receptions for 96 yards with a 20-yard touchdown from Nathan Dick. In the second scrimmage, he had a team-high tying eight catches for 78 yards and a six-yard score from Casey Dick. In the three scrimmages combined, he had 23 receptions for 282 yards and two touchdowns, and an average of 11.8 yards per catch.

2007: He saw action in nine games as a redshirt freshman. He played on special teams and had four receptions for 38 yards, an average of 9.5 yards per catch. He was a backup to Robert Johnson and Reggie Fish at flanker. – Salters made one catch for seven yards in his Razorback debut against Troy. Against Kentucky, he hauled in a 15-yard pass, a career long. He played against North Texas, but did not record any stats. He played as a reserve flanker against Chattanooga, but did not record any stats. He did not see any action against Auburn. He logged time at flanker against Ole Miss, but didn't record any stats. Salters made one catch for five yards while logging time at reserve flanker against FIU. He did not play against South Carolina. Against Tennessee, he made one catch for 11 yards and a first down. Salters spent time at flanker against Mississippi State but didn't record any stats. He did not play against LSU. He played, but did not have any statistics in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri.

2006: He worked with the scout team offense while sitting out game action in his redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He was a three-sport star at North Florida Christian High School competing in football, basketball and baseball. His high school also produced 1991 Heisman Trophy runner-up quarterback Casey Weldon of Florida State. As a senior, he caught 26 passes for 600 yards and 16 touchdowns for Coach Pete Walker. He averaged 23.1 yards per catch in his final prep campaign in leading his team to the state playoffs. In his junior campaign, he tallied 38 catches for 898 yards and six scores. He registered a 23.6 yards-per-catch average. He made 26 catches for 340 yards and two touchdowns as a sophomore. He also starred on the baseball diamond for NFCHS. He lettered three years on the diamond for Coach Mike Posey and was recruited by several schools as a Division I baseball prospect. He posted a .393 batting average as a right fielder with seven home runs and 14 stolen bases as a senior. He had a .412 batting average and two home runs as a junior. He was tabbed as the nation's No. 55 wide receiver by Scout and the No. 11 player in Florida by the same outlet. Rivals ranked him the No. 65 prospect in Florida and the No. 69 wide receiver in the nation. He was also recruited by Miami (Fla.), Clemson, Maryland, Auburn, Alabama, Louisville and Wake Forest.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 15, 1987, he is the son of Larry and Mary Salters. He is majoring in history.

DONNELL SANDERS

DE, 6-3, 238, SO-SQ
College Park, Ga.
[North Clayton HS]

57

OUTLOOK: He is one of Arkansas' young and talented players in what is a strong defensive line unit. Headed into the fall, he is listed third at right end behind junior Adrian Davis and senior Antwain Robinson. He will have a chance to earn snaps in the rotation and could also see time on special teams. He had one tackle in the three major spring scrimmages, but that was a four-yard sack in the second scrimmage on April 19.

2007: He did not record any statistics, but he earned snaps against Troy and North Texas. He saw the most action against Troy with nine plays.

2006: Sanders used the campaign as a redshirt season while working with the scout team defense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He suffered a torn ACL in the second game of his senior season and missed the rest of the campaign for Coach Donald Shockley. As a junior, he made 70 tackles, including 14 tackles for loss and 12 sacks. He earned all-area and all-county honors for his efforts. He was ranked as No. 31 weakside defensive end in the nation by Rivals. He was also rated the No. 51 overall pre-season prospect in Georgia by the same outlet. He posted a 35-inch vertical jump at the Nike Camp in Athens, Ga., in the summer preceding his senior season. He recorded a 300-pound bench press and a 450-pound squat lift as a prepster. He was also recruited by Virginia Tech, Kansas State, Georgia Tech, Clemson, Southern Miss, Akron and Kent.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 25, 1988, he is the son of Donnell Sr. and Kimberly T. Sanders. He is majoring in sociology.

MARCUS SHAVERS

DT, 6-3, 280, SR-3L
Allen, Texas
(Allen)

OUTLOOK: The defensive line could be the strongest and deepest position on the team, and Shavers could add to that depth. He was not listed on the two-deep depth chart following spring practice, but he could make a move for quality playing time once fall camp begins. He has battled injuries in the past and must stay healthy to figure into the Razorbacks' plans in 2008. He underwent shoulder surgery in January and did not take part in spring practice.

2007: He did not start, but played in 12 games. The only game he missed was the Florida International contest. He recorded 13 tackles with a TFL (-1), a fumble recovery and two quarterback hurries. – He played 19 snaps against Troy, but did not record any statistics. He also played against Alabama, Kentucky and North Texas, but did not make a tackle. He had three tackles, one solo and two assists, with a one-yard TFL in 15 plays against Chattanooga. He recorded two assisted tackles and a quarterback hurry in 15 plays against Auburn. He played 24 snaps against Ole Miss and had two tackles with one solo stop. Shavers recorded two assisted tackles with a quarterback hurry in 11 plays against South Carolina. He had a season-high three tackles, all solos, at Tennessee. He made an assisted tackle against Mississippi State. He played but had no statistics in the win at No. 1 LSU. He did not have any tackles, but he recovered a fumble against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl.

2006: He made the move to defensive end and played in seven games as a reserve on the defensive front. He logged time against Alabama, Southeast Missouri State, Ole Miss, Louisiana-Monroe, South Carolina, Tennessee and Mississippi State. He earned two tackles, including one tackle for loss (-1). He also earned one quarterback hurry. – He saw his first action of the season, nine snaps, against No. 22 Alabama. Shavers earned his season tackle total on 18 snaps in the Hogs' non-conference win over Southeast Missouri State. He tallied two tackles, one solo and one assist, against the Redhawks. One of his stops was a tackle for loss (-1). He also had a quarterback hurry. He logged 10 snaps as a reserve against Ole Miss. Shavers played another nine snaps against Louisiana-Monroe, but didn't earn a tackle. He played sparingly at defensive end against South Carolina. Shavers saw the field for three snaps in Arkansas' home win over No. 13 Tennessee. He played briefly at Mississippi State for his final game action of the season.

2005: He saw action in seven games as a true freshman for the Razorbacks. With the Hogs' in desperate need of bodies on the defensive front, he was pressed into service. He logged time against Vanderbilt, Southern California, Alabama, Louisiana-Monroe, Auburn, Mississippi State and LSU. He did not make a tackle on the season, but did collect a quarterback hurry against No. 1 USC. He started at left tackle against ULM.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned high school All-America honors as a senior, leading his team to a 9-3 record. He racked up 48 tackles, nine sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery for Coach Tom Westerberg. He also earned a receiving touchdown as a tight end. He participated in the U.S. Army All-American game in San Antonio, Texas. He had one unassisted tackle, two assisted stops and seven quarterback hurries in the game. He won the super athlete award at the U.S. Army National Combine following his junior season. He helped his team to a 13-2 record in his junior campaign with 50 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and six sacks at defensive tackle. In his sophomore season, he also spent time at tight end, tallying six catches for 76 yards. He was a consensus top 100 player in the state of Texas. Tom Lemming's Prep Football Report ranked him the No. 19 defensive tackle in the country. Rivals rated him the No. 14 strong-side defensive end in the nation. Rivals also tabbed him the No. 36 overall player in Texas. He was rated the No. 6 player in Texas by Texas PrepXtra. He was the high school teammate of UA quarterback Casey Dick. He was also recruited by Kansas State, Georgia, Oklahoma, Texas Tech, Arizona and Texas A&M.

PERSONAL: Born Feb. 8, 1987, he is the son of Dwane and Nancy Shavers. He is majoring in kinesiology.

MALCOLM SHEPPARD

DT, 6-3, 277, JR-2L
Bainbridge, Ga.

OUTLOOK: A key member of the defensive line, he is listed as the starter ahead of sophomore Patrick Jones at defensive tackle heading into the season. He is a high-energy player and one of the Razorbacks' best pass rushers. Sheppard started and played in 12 games last year spending a majority of the season at defensive end. He has moved back inside to defensive tackle for 2008. In the Red-White Spring Game, he had four tackles with 1.5 TFLs (-5), including a two-yard sack. He had two assisted tackles in the first scrimmage of the spring and six stops with three sacks for nine yards in losses in the second scrimmage.

2007: He played in 12 games and made 12 starts, missing only the LSU game. He started at tackle in the first four games before moving to left end the rest of the way. He had 42 tackles on the season with a team-high tying 10.5 TFL (-32) along with a team-high 16 quarterback hurries. He also had half a sack (-4), two forced fumbles and a pass breakup. – Sheppard made six tackles in 56 snaps in the opener against Troy with four assisted tackles, two solo stops and a quarterback hurry. It was his first career start at tackle, and his third career start. He followed with six tackles, including two TFL (-3), a forced fumble and a quarterback hurry against Alabama. He forced Tide quarterback John Parker Wilson to give up the ball late in the third quarter, setting up a Hogs' score. Sheppard earned Hogwire.com Defensive Player of the Week honors against the Crimson Tide. He made four solo tackles vs. Kentucky with a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss (-15) in a team-high 83 snaps. Sheppard also forced a fumble and logged two quarterback hurries. The fumble led to Antwain Robinson's 16-yard return for a touchdown. Sheppard played just 37 snaps as the Razorbacks jumped out early on North Texas, but he logged another TFL (-3) to give him 6.5 on the season and the early SEC lead. Sheppard moved back to defensive end for the Chattanooga game and made two tackles with half of a TFL and two quarterback hurries as he adjusted to his new position. He was disruptive along the defensive front vs. Auburn with five tackles and a TFL (-1). Sheppard made five tackles with half of a TFL on 49 plays at Ole Miss. He also logged a team-best four quarterback hurries. Sheppard logged two solo and two assisted tackles in 46 snaps vs. FIU with two quarterback hurries. He made four assisted tackles vs. South Carolina with half of a TFL and a team-best four quarterback hurries. Sheppard made four tackles, three assisted, at No. 22 Tennessee. He also logged 1.5 tackles for loss (-3) with one quarterback hurry. Sheppard played only 20 snaps before twisting an ankle and missing the remainder of the game. He missed the LSU game with a twisted ankle. He started the Cotton Bowl against Missouri, but did not record any statistics.

2006: Sheppard quickly developed into a valuable contributor on the Hogs' defensive front. He worked his way up to second on the depth chart at right defensive end behind Antwain Robinson. He appeared in all 14 games, earning a start in the Southeast Missouri State game when Robinson sat out with a hip flexor. He tallied

12 tackles, including seven solo and five assisted stops. He had 1.0 tackle for loss (-3) and a half sack (-3). He ranked sixth on the team with eight quarterback hurries in his true freshman campaign. – Sheppard made his collegiate debut by logging three snaps in the Razorbacks' season opener against No. 3 USC. His play total expanded to 18 snaps in the Hogs' non-conference win over Utah State. He earned a quarterback hurry against the Aggies. His first tackle of the season came on a solo stop against Vanderbilt. He played seven snaps against the Commodores. Sheppard played 12 snaps against Alabama and recorded an assisted tackle and a quarterback hurry. He quickly heard his name called in the Hogs' 27-10 win at No. 2 Auburn with two tackles on just nine plays from scrimmage. Sheppard got to the quarterback in his first start with 0.5 sack (-3) against Southeast Missouri State. He also made four tackles, three solo, with two quarterback hurries. Sheppard played 28 snaps off the bench against Ole Miss with one solo stop and a quarterback hurry. Sheppard made a solo and assisted tackle against Louisiana-Monroe in Little Rock. He played, but did not earn a tackle against South Carolina. Sheppard saw limited action against No. 13 Tennessee, but did pick up a quarterback hurry. He recorded two quarterback hurries at Mississippi State in limited action against the Bulldogs. Sheppard played but did not record any tackles against No. 9 LSU and No. 4 Florida. He tallied his final tackle of the season (assisted) and earned 0.5 tackle for loss in the Razorbacks' loss to No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He racked up 64 tackles, 15 sacks and one interception in 11 games as a senior for Coach Greg Guy. He helped lead his squad to a playoff berth in his senior campaign. Rivals ranked him as the No. 62 defensive end in the nation. He was the No. 93 prospect in Georgia per Scout. He was a high school teammate of fellow Razorback Ray Dominguez at Bainbridge High School. He chose Arkansas over Southern Miss, South Carolina, South Florida, Alabama-Birmingham, East Carolina and UCF, among others.

PERSONAL: Born Feb. 13, 1988, he is the son of Ricky and Evelyn Sheppard. He is majoring in criminal justice.

MICHAEL SMITH

TB, 5-7, 173, JR-2L
Tallahassee, Fla.
[Rickards HS]

OUTLOOK: With the departure of two All-Americans in the backfield, Smith will most likely get his chance to carry the load this season. He spent his first two seasons backing up Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. McFadden was the Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up each of the last two seasons. Jones was an All-America kick returner and a first-team All-SEC running back. Smith has been productive in his limited opportunities, rushing for 550 yards and six touchdowns on 81 carries for a 6.8 yards-per-carry average in his two years. In the spring, he ran for 157 yards with a 21-yard touchdown on 13 carries in the Red-White Spring Game. He also had three receptions for 63 yards. He missed the first scrimmage of the spring, but had a team-high 133 yards on 19 rushes in the second. He had touchdown runs of four and 17 yards. He also caught three passes for 17 yards. His totals were 270 yards and three TDs on 32 carries (8.4) and six receptions for 77 yards (12.8).

2007: Smith did not start, but saw action in 10 games in relief of All-Americans Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. He did not play against North Texas, Chattanooga or Auburn. He had 46 carries for 303 yards and three touchdowns. His 6.6 yards-per-carry average was second among all backs on the team to Jones' 8.7-yard average. Smith's 81-yard touchdown run against Florida International was the team's longest rush of the season. He also had four receptions for 65 yards (16.2). He had five kick returns for 111 yards (22.2) and two punt returns for minus five yards. – Smith had eight carries for 59 yards and one touchdown, his fourth career, in the season opener against Troy. He also returned two punts for minus five yards. He had the longest Razorback run of the day, going for 48 yards midway through the fourth quarter. That run kept the drive alive and he followed with a two-yard run for a touchdown. He came off the bench against Alabama with three carries for nine yards. His five-yard carry early in the fourth quarter kept a drive alive that led to an Arkansas touchdown. His four-yard run during UA's final drive led to a first down. In the Kentucky game, Smith tallied five carries for 24 yards with a long of 10. His 10-yard rush late in the first half led to a first down. He recorded a fumble in the second half that was returned for a Kentucky touchdown. He was suspended for the North Texas game due to a violation of team rules and did not play in the Chattanooga or Auburn games. Against Ole Miss, Smith had seven carries for 51 yards with a long of 20. Three of his seven carries were for 10 yards or more. Playing at reserve running back against Florida International, he had three carries for 88 yards, including a career long 81 yarder, and also caught one pass for 19 yards. His 81-yard run was the longest rushing TD of the season for the Hogs. Smith had three carries for 32 yards, including a long of 15, against South Carolina. Two of his three catches were for 10 yards or more and for two first downs. He rushed for 25 yards and caught one pass for 36 yards, a career long, against Tennessee. His catch was also an Arkansas first down. Against Mississippi State, Smith had two runs for four yards, but was more effective returning kickoffs. He returned three kickoffs for a total of 64 yards and a long of 34. Smith did not play against LSU. He had 12 yards on seven rushes against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl.

2006: Smith appeared in 11 games, missing only the Alabama, Auburn and South Carolina games in his redshirt freshman season. He rushed 35 times for 247 yards and three touchdowns on the season. His 7.1 yards-per-carry average ranked second on the team among those backs with double-digit carries. His three rushing touchdowns ranked third only behind McFadden and Jones. Smith recorded his first 100-yard rushing effort after racking up 116 yards and two touchdowns on only eight carries in a non-conference win over Southeast Missouri State. His other rushing touchdown came against Louisiana-Monroe. He made one catch for three yards and returned one kickoff for 48 yards. – Smith rushed three times for 24 yards in his first collegiate game against No. 3 USC. He reeled off a long run of 11 yards against the Trojans. He netted three carries for the second-consecutive week and earned 40 yards against Utah State. He upped his season-long rush to 18 yards. He tallied a season-high five carries and gained 28 yards against Vanderbilt. All of his carries against the Commodores came in the fourth quarter. His fresh legs enabled the Razorbacks to run valuable time off the clock in preserving their 21-19 lead late in the game. He netted a 14-yard run against Vanderbilt. He failed to see action for the first time on the season in the Razorbacks' home win over No. 22 Alabama. He also didn't log a snap against No. 2 Auburn. He made the most of his extensive playing time, racking up a career-high 116 yards rushing and two touchdowns against Southeast Missouri State. He scored on a run of 10 yards on his first attempt and a run of 11 yards on his third attempt of the game. He averaged 14.5 yards per carry against the Redhawks, including seven double-digit gains with a career-long 27-yard run. He also returned a kickoff for 48 yards to set up a touchdown. Smith earned Hogwire.com Offensive Player of the Week honors for his efforts. He tied a career-high with eight carries and netted 21 yards in the Razorbacks' 38-3 win over Ole Miss. His longest run against the Rebels was 10 yards. He matched a career-high with eight carries in the Hogs' 44-10 win over Louisiana-Monroe, scoring his third touchdown of the season. His run to paydirt came on a three-yard run in the fourth quarter. Smith did not play at South Carolina. He played late in Arkansas' 31-14 win over Tennessee, but he didn't earn a rushing attempt. Smith earned his first career reception on a three-yard pass play against Mississippi State. He didn't have a carry against the Bulldogs. He was in several offensive formations, but didn't earn a rushing attempt against No. 9 LSU. Smith saw action against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game. He took the field for the Razorbacks against No. 7 Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl, but didn't have a rushing attempt.

2005: He was a candidate to play as a true freshman, but a pulled hamstring sidelined him early in fall camp. By the time he was full-speed, McFadden and Jones had already established their spots in the lineup. He used the 2005 campaign as a redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: Despite being hampered by an ankle injury as a senior, he racked up more than 800 yards rushing and a total of 15 touchdowns for Coach Algie Hendreith. He also gained nearly 400 yards in receiving. He also racked up 979 yards and seven touchdowns as a kick returner. For his efforts, he was named to the first-team All-Big Bend squad. As a junior, he rushed for 1,413 yards and 20 touchdowns. He averaged 11.2 yards per carry. He recorded a season-long rush of 93 yards and a season-long pass reception of 99 yards as a junior. He also returned three kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns before tearing his ACL in the final game of his junior campaign. He garnered honorable mention Class 3A All-State honors as well after earning first-team All-Big Bend recognition. He also was a baseball standout in high school. He batted .515 and swiped 31 bases as a junior. He had a max squat lift of 515 pounds, a max bench press of 295 pounds and a vertical leap of 34 inches. Rivals rated him the No. 13 all-purpose back in the nation and the No. 88 prospect in Florida. In addition to Arkansas, he was recruited by Purdue, Florida, LSU, Auburn and Northwestern.

PERSONAL: Born July 28, 1987, he is the son of Michael and Loretta Smith. He is majoring in kinesiology. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008.

MITCHELL SMITH

P, 5-11, 225, JR-SQ
Bentonville, Ark.
[Bentonville]

OUTLOOK: Senior Jeremy Davis is back to handle the punting duties this year, but Smith is in the competition for the backup role and could see game time. He had a good showing in the Red-White Spring Game, punting four times for a 40.8-yard average. He had a long of 50 and downed two inside the 20. His punts covered 36, 50 to the nine, 38 to the 18 and 39 yards.

2007: He did not see any game action as one of the backups to Jeremy Davis, but he practiced with the punters and kickers. In the 2007 spring game, he had four punts for a 40.0-yard average with one downed inside the 20.

2006: With Jacob Skinner finishing up his Razorback career, Smith didn't see game action.

2005: He worked with the UA punters during his redshirt season.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned letters as a fullback, linebacker and punter at Bentonville High School under Coach Gary Wear. He was a 5A all-state honoree, an all-conference honoree and was named All-Benton County twice.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 20, 1987, he is the son of Rick and Lisa Smith. He is majoring in American studies. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for the 2007-08 academic year and for Spring 2007. He was also named a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 academic year.

OUTLOOK: A former linebacker, fullback and defensive end, he has moved to defensive tackle and will provide depth on the defensive line, which is possibly the strongest and deepest unit on the team. He is not on the pre-season two-deep depth chart where seniors Ernest Mitchell and Cord Gray are listed, but will compete for playing time in fall camp. He helped his cause in the Red-White Spring Game with six tackles, including five solos, two tackles for loss (-7), a six-yard sack and a forced fumble. In the first scrimmage of the spring, he had six tackles, three assists and three solos, including two sacks of one and six yards. In the second scrimmage, he had three tackles on one solo and one assisted stop.

2007: He did not see any game action while working with the scout team defense at end.

2006: He spent his redshirt season working in the weight room and logging time on the UA scout team defense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: Primarily a defensive end and running back in high school, the AP named him to the 2005 Arkansas Super Team and he was the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette's state defensive player of the year. As a senior, he recorded 64 tackles with seven sacks for Coach Bryan Hutson. He also had five fumble recoveries, returning two for touchdowns, in leading his team to the state quarterfinals. He also rushed for nearly 1,000 yards. Prior to his final high school campaign, he attended the Houston Nutt football camp and was named the outstanding camper. As a junior, before being double and triple-teamed, he made 106 tackles, including 32 tackles for loss. He played at both defensive end and linebacker in his junior season. In addition, he rushed for more than 800 yards on the offensive side of the ball. He also participated in basketball and track and field in high school. He was ranked as the No. 4 prospect in Arkansas by Rivals and as the No. 9 linebacker in the nation by the same outlet. He was also a member of the Rivals250 team. Scout ranked him as the No. 8 prospect in Arkansas. Both Hawgs Illustrated and HawgsSports.com rated him as the No. 3 prospect in Arkansas. He was recruited by a number of schools and chose Arkansas over Purdue, Iowa, Ole Miss and Notre Dame.

PERSONAL: Born, Nov. 15, 1987, he is the son of Melvin and Carla Robinson. He is majoring in sociology.

ALEX TEJADA

OUTLOOK: He turned in a record-setting performance as a true freshman and is being counted on for another standout season as a sophomore. An honorable mention freshman All-American and a second-team All-SEC selection, he led the team in scoring last year with 109 points, which is a school record for a kicker. He was fourth in the SEC and No. 40 in the nation in scoring (8.4 ppg), and third in the SEC in kick scoring. He was also fifth in the league and 43rd nationally with 1.31 field goals per game. In the spring, he was one-of-two on field goals and six-of-six on PATs in the Red-White Spring Game. In the first major scrimmage, he was four-of-four on both field goals and extra points. In the second scrimmage, he was six-of-nine on field goals and six-of-six on PATs. He missed from 34 yards in the spring game, but his other misses were from 46 yards or longer.

2007: He earned the place-kicking job in his true freshman season and was outstanding. He was 17-of-23 (.739) on field goals and 58-of-60 on extra points with a long of 47 yards. He was 13-of-15 on field goals from 39 yards and closer. He was fourth in the SEC and No. 40 in the nation in scoring (8.4 ppg), and third in the SEC in kick scoring. He was also fifth in the league and 43rd nationally with 1.31 field goals per game. He led the team in scoring with 109 points, which is a school record for a kicker and the second-best season total overall to Bill Burnett's 120 points in 1969. His extra point attempts and conversions were both school season records. His field goal percentage was ninth-best in school history, and his field goal attempts and conversions both sixth-best. His 17 field goals made were the most for a Razorback since Todd Latourette made 17-of-24 in 1998. The last Hog to make more than 17 is Todd Wright, who made 20-of-23 in 1989. He was an honorable mention freshman All-American by The Sporting News and first-team freshman All-SEC by the league's coaches. He earned second-team All-SEC honors from Rivals and third-team from Phil Steele College Football. - Tejada made his Razorback debut a memorable one. Connecting on four field goals and four-of-five PATs, he was nearly perfect. Tejada opened up the Razorbacks' scoring with a made field goal early in the first quarter. He went on to make three more, including a 35-yarder. With four successful attempts, Tejada became the first Arkansas kicker with four field goals in a game since Chris Balseiro's performance in the 2003 Independence Bowl. Tejada's only miss of the night came when an extra-point attempt hit off the upright. Against Alabama, Tejada connected on his only field goal attempt. He also went five-for-five on PATs against the Tide. In the Kentucky game, Tejada added two made field goals to his resume and connected on three PATs. He connected on nine PATs, a perfect mark, in the North Texas game. His first miss of the night was on a 44-yard field goal attempt. Tejada tied the school record for PATs made and attempted in a game against UNT. Jeremy Davis (SE Missouri State, 2005), Chris Balseiro (New Mexico State, 2004), Kendall Trainor (Pacific, 1988) and Elvin Geiser (Hendrix, 1933) have all hit nine PATs in a single game. In the Chattanooga game, Tejada went two-for-two on field goals and four-of-four on PATs. Tejada's 47-yard field goal was a career long and the longest for any Razorback since David Carlton hit from 47 against Tennessee on Oct. 5, 2002. The last field goal longer than Tejada's 47-yarder was Matt Swartz's 49-yarder against Southwest Missouri State on Sept. 2, 2000. With limited action against Auburn, Tejada missed a 41-yard field goal (wide right) half way through the second quarter. Late in the fourth quarter he made a PAT after Arkansas scored its only TD of the game. Against Ole Miss, Tejada was five-of-six on PATs, missing after an Andrew Davie TD half way through the fourth quarter. He was also one-for-two on field goals, missing a 42-yarder early in the third and making a 32-yarder early in the fourth. Back to perfect against FIU, Tejada was three-of-three on field goals (32, 43, 20) and seven-of-seven on PATs, scoring 16 of Arkansas' 58 points. Tejada was good for six made PATs against South Carolina. He attempted one field goal, a 50-yarder and missed it (wide left). He converted on both of his field goal attempts and one PAT, tallying seven points, at No. 22 Tennessee. He nailed field goals of 31 and 42 yards against the Volunteers. Against Mississippi State, he turned in a perfect outing, making six-of-six PATs and his only field goal attempt at 39 yards. Against No. 1 LSU, Tejada was once again on point, going six-of-six on PATs. He did not attempt a field goal. Against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl, he made his only PAT attempt, but missed a pair of field goals from 35 and 37 yards.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He capped a brilliant high school career as the state record holder with 174 converted PATs at Springdale High. He was a three-year starter on teams going a combined 32-5. He landed 80 percent of his career kickoffs in the end zone. As a senior, he was a member of the AP Arkansas Super Team and the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette All-Arkansas team at place-kicker for Coach Kevin Johnson. The Morning News All-Area selection made seven-of-17 field goals, including a school-record 55-yarder. Seven of his 10 misses came from 47 yards or beyond, including six from 56 yards or more. He set a school record by converting eight extra points in a game. He was 174-of-184 on PAT attempts for his career. As a junior, he was 84-of-89 on PATs and two-of-three on field goals, including a 55-yarder. He was seven-of-14 on field goals with a long of 47 yards as a sophomore. He was perfect on 66 PATs and landed 75 percent of his kickoffs in the end zone. He also played soccer. He suffered dislocations to his left kneecap while playing soccer as a sophomore and a junior. He began playing football and place-kicking in the ninth grade. Hawgs Illustrated rated him the No. 10 prospect in Arkansas. Rivals ranked him the No. 20 kicker in the nation and the No. 20 prospect in the state. HawgsSports.com listed him at No. 10 on its Natural 21 list. He chose Arkansas over LSU, Ole Miss, Nebraska and Vanderbilt.

RAZORBACKS

PERSONAL: Born Feb. 2, 1989, he is the son of Samuel and Milagro Tejada. He is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008.

OUTLOOK: With Peyton Hillis and Farod Jackson no longer in the backfield, Thompson stepped in and emerged from spring drills as the starting fullback heading into fall camp. He will still also be used in the tight end rotation. Thompson could also find a spot on special teams. He did not have any rushes or receptions in any of the major scrimmages in the spring.

2007: He played in all 13 games and started against Ole Miss and Mississippi State along with Andrew Davie when the Razorbacks opened in a two-tight end set. He did not have receiving statistics, but he recorded one tackle, a solo stop, on special teams against Alabama. He helped Arkansas' line pave the way for an SEC-leading and school-record 3,725 rushing yards. That average of 286.5 yards per game ranked fourth in the nation. Arkansas also generated a school-record 5,850 yards of total offense and scored a school-record 485 points. The point total ranked No. 13 in the nation with 37.3 per game and the total offense average of 450.0 ranked No. 17. He helped open holes for two All-American running backs - Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, who led the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing (140.8), and Felix Jones, who ranked fifth in the SEC and No. 43 in the country (89.4).

2006: Thompson appeared in Arkansas' final 12 games of the season spending time blocking for the No. 4 rushing offense in the nation and competing on special teams. He was a regular on the punt unit and was a reserve on several other special teams' squads. He was a regular part of an Arkansas front that cleared the way for two 1,000-yard rushers, including Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden. The Razorbacks also featured 13 100-yard rushing performances in 14 games. He didn't make a catch during his sophomore season.

2005: He played in four games in his redshirt freshman season as one of the Razorbacks' reserves at tight end. He logged time against Missouri State, Louisiana-Monroe, Auburn and Georgia. He did not make a catch in his limited playing time. He played eight snaps at offensive tackle in the Hogs' win over ULM.

2004: He spent his redshirt season working at tight end on the scout team offense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: A two-way standout for Coach Danny Mallett, he tallied 57 tackles in his senior season. He also recorded five sacks and recovered one fumble. He split time between tight end and defensive line. He was a high school teammate of former UA linebacker Weston Dacus.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 10, 1985, he is the son of Kerry and Rhonda Thompson. He is majoring in kinesiology. He was named to the SEC's 2007 Fall Academic Honor Roll. He was also a member of Arkansas' Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for the 2004-05 and 2006-07 academic years, and Fall 2005. He was named a Hard Working Hog for the 2004-05 academic year.

CROSBY TUCK

WR, 6-1, 188, FR-RS
Springdale, Ark.
(Shiloh Christian)

OUTLOOK: He was off to a quick start in his true freshman season before suffering a broken right arm in the third game of his Razorback career. He sat out the rest of the 2007 season and qualified for a medical hardship. He is once again listed as a freshman for 2008. He was able to participate in part of spring practice, but is not listed on the pre-season two-deep depth chart at any of the three wideout positions. Once fully recovered, he will be in competition for playing time this fall. In the second scrimmage of the spring, he made two catches for 18 yards with an eight-yard touchdown from Nathan Dick.

2007: He played in the first three games of the season, coming off the bench against Troy, Alabama and Kentucky before missing the remainder of the season with a broken right arm. He was able to get the year back as a medical redshirt. He made an impression in his limited time with three catches for 103 yards and two touchdowns. His 34.3-yards per catch average easily led the team while the two receiving TDs ranked sixth. He had one catch in each game, a 42-yard third-quarter touchdown pass from Darren McFadden against Troy, a 40-yard second-quarter scoring pass from Casey Dick at Alabama and a 21-yard gain from Dick against Kentucky.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He completed a standout prep career with 220 receptions, 4,344 receiving yards and 52 touchdowns for Coach Josh Floyd. He made 78 catches for 1,640 yards and 21 touchdowns as a senior. He averaged more than 100 yards per game in earning Morning News All-Area honors. As a junior, he hauled in 67 passes for 1,443 yards and 16 scores. As a sophomore, he had 75 catches for 1,261 yards and 15 TDs. Rivals ranked him the No. 50 wide receiver in the nation and the No. 9 prospect in the state. Scout ranked him the No. 95 receiver in the country and No. 10 prospect in Arkansas. HawgSports.com listed him at No. 9 on its Natural 21 while Hawgs Illustrated listed him No. 8 in Arkansas. In baseball at Shiloh Christian, he was honorable mention all-state, and earned all-conference and all-conference tournament honors. He chose Arkansas after also considering Central Florida, Oklahoma State and Kansas State.

ARKANSAS

PERSONAL: Born July 29, 1988, he is the son of Greg and Becky Tuck. He is majoring in kinesiology. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for the 2007-08 academic year. His mother lettered in volleyball at North Carolina-Charlotte in 1976 and at Oklahoma State in 1977 and '78.

AUSTIN TUCKER

WR, 6-1, 201, FR-RS
Springdale, Ark.
[Shiloh Christian]

OUTLOOK: He is not listed on the pre-season two-deep depth chart at any of Arkansas' three wide receiver positions, but a strong pre-season camp would bolster his hopes to contend for playing time in the fall. He did not have any receptions in any of the three major spring scrimmages.

2007: He redshirted while working with the receivers on the scout team offense.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned all-state honors as a senior and was a three-time all-conference selection at Shiloh Christian for Coach Josh Floyd. He was named the Little Rock Touchdown Club Player of the Year in 2006 and was the MVP of the state championship game. He helped his team finish 14-0 with a Class 3A state title by rushing 84 times for 453 yards and nine touchdowns, and catching 25 passes for more than 400 yards and four scores. In the state championship game, he had touchdowns receiving, rushing and passing. He accounted for more than 2,500 yards both receiving and passing over his career. He was also all-conference in basketball and baseball as a junior and senior. He prepped with Razorback teammate Crosby Tuck.

PERSONAL: Born April 5, 1989, he is the son of Drew and Kim Tucker. He is majoring in kinesiology. He was named to the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2008. His father played basketball at Florida Southern.

JOSE VALDEZ

OT, 6-5, 313, SR-2L
St. Francis, Wis.
[St. Francis]

OUTLOOK: Last year's starter at left tackle, he was moved to right tackle in the spring and is expected to help anchor that position this year. He will battle Michael Aguirre for the starting role. Last year, Valdez helped Arkansas' line pave the way for an SEC-leading and school-record 3,725 rushing yards, and an average of 286.5 yards per game, which was fourth in the nation. Arkansas also generated a school-record 5,850 yards of total offense and scored a school-record 485 points. The point total ranked No. 13 in the nation with 37.3 per game and the total offense average of 450.0 ranked No. 17.

2007: He went into the season expected to start at left tackle and that's what he did the first 10 games of the season. He missed the Mississippi State and LSU games with an ankle injury, and came off the bench to play against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl. He cleared the way for two All-American running backs – Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, who led the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing (140.8), and Felix Jones, who ranked fifth in the SEC and No. 43 in the country (89.4). His overall grade for the year was 86.1, which ranked third among the regulars. He also had a season score of 94.0 on passing plays and 81.0 on running plays, and had 25 knockdown blocks. – Valdez made his first career start at left tackle against Troy. He blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard performances and Casey Dick to throw for more than 100 yards. Against Alabama, he played 78 snaps at left tackle with a 96 percent pass block grade. Arkansas racked up 450 yards of total offense, including 301 yards rushing. McFadden recorded the 14th 100-yard rushing game of his career (195) and Jones ran for 96 yards. He also tallied four knockdown blocks. The offensive line protected Dick and did not give up a sack. In the Kentucky game, he played 78 snaps, logging block grades of 93 percent passing and a total of 84 percent. He also tallied one knockdown block. He blocked the way for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard rushing performances. At left tackle against North Texas, he blocked the way for the Razorbacks to gain over 700 yards of offense. He played 59 snaps against the Mean Green with a 95 percent pass block grade and one knockdown block. In the Chattanooga game, Valdez played 68 snaps with an 88 percent run block grade and an 83 percent total block grade. The offensive line blocked for McFadden and Jones to record 100-yard rushing games. He played 54 snaps against Auburn with an 83 percent total block grade and a 90 percent pass block grade. He also tallied four knockdown blocks. Against Ole Miss, the offensive line blocked for four passing touchdowns, 12-of-18 and 144 yards for the quarterbacks and for McFadden and Jones to eclipse the 100-yard mark. Valdez recorded grades of 88 percent blocking the run, 100 percent blocking the pass and 91 percent overall. He also had two knockdown blocks. At left tackle against FIU, Valdez had three knockdown blocks, graded out at 88 percent for the run, 100 percent for the pass and 93 percent total. In the South Carolina game, he recorded five knockdown blocks while earning an 89 percent run block grade, a 100 percent pass block grade and a total grade of 92 percent. He blocked the way for Arkansas' 650 yards of offense, including 542 yards on the ground, and four rushing TDs. Valdez graded out at 83 percent for a total block grade while recording one knockdown block against Tennessee. He did not play against Mississippi State or LSU because of an ankle injury, but was able to get back on the field in the Cotton Bowl against Missouri. He earned one knockdown block against the Tigers.

2006: As a sophomore, Valdez played in all 14 games, contributing on special teams and earning extended reserve opportunities at offensive tackle. He was the starting left tackle on the PAT/field goal team. He averaged around 11 snaps per game at tackle in the Hogs' traditional offensive set. He tallied seven knockdowns on the season. – Valdez played on special teams and earned six snaps at tackle against No. 3 USC. He played 20 snaps against Utah State, garnering an overall blocking grade of 90 percent, including 84 percent on run blocking and a perfect 100 percent on pass blocking. He tallied one knockdown block against the Aggies. He saw strictly special teams work against Vanderbilt, Alabama and Auburn. Valdez played extensively at offensive tackle in the Razorbacks' win over Southeast Missouri State. He logged 37 snaps and graded out at 91 percent. He scored a 92 percent on rushing plays and 90 percent on passing plays. He added one knockdown to his season total against the Redhawks. He was effective in his eight snaps against Ole Miss. He earned an 87-percent grade, including an 80-percent clip in rush blocking and his second 100-percent pass blocking grade of the season. Valdez racked up a season-high three knockdown blocks on 17 snaps in Arkansas' non-conference victory over Louisiana-Monroe in Little Rock. He carded a 90-percent grade on rushing plays and an 85-percent mark on passing plays. His total grade of 88-percent marked the third-consecutive game of more than 87 percent. He tallied his seventh knockdown block against Mississippi State and his eighth against No. 9 LSU.

2005: He played in the season opener against Missouri State, but did not return to the field for the remainder of the season. He earned an 88-percent grade on nine snaps against the Bears. He also tallied one knockdown block in his limited playing time.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned all-state honors on both offense and defense as a senior for Coach Doug Sarver at St. Francis. He helped lead his prep squad to a 12-2 record and a state runner-up finish. He played offensive tackle and defensive end in high school. He was part of a team that finished 8-3 in his junior season. He was ranked as the No. 6 player in Wisconsin and the No. 57 offensive tackle in the country by Rivals. He also played basketball and was a three-year starter at center. He had a max bench press of 350 pounds and a 475-pound max in the squat lift. He was also recruited by Wisconsin, Michigan, Northern Illinois, Ball State, Indiana and Central Michigan.

RAZORBACKS

PERSONAL: Born Dec. 13, 1986, he is the son of Daniel and Marina Valdez. He is majoring in criminal justice and sociology. He was named a Hard Working Hog for the 2005-06 academic year.

MARQUES WADE

WR, 6-3, 192, SO-SQ
Ellenwood, Ga.
[Martin Luther King HS]

OUTLOOK: A relatively inexperienced Razorback in terms of game action, he has great up-side and has emerged from spring drills listed as the starter at one of Arkansas' three wide receiver positions. He has good speed and his route running has continued to improve. He was productive during the spring. In the Red-White Spring Game, he made three catches for 39 yards. In the first major scrimmage of the spring, he had five receptions for 42 yards. In the second scrimmage, he had one for 27. His combined totals were nine receptions for 108 yards, an average of 12.0 yards per catch.

2007: He saw action in four games, but did not have any statistics and did not letter. He got on the field against Troy, North Texas, Auburn and Florida International.

2006: If players could be recognized as scout team All-Americans, Wade would have been a first-team selection in 2006. While redshirting his first year in Fayetteville, he combined with quarterback Nathan Emert to provide occasional headaches for the Razorback defense on the practice field. He used his time wisely and developed in the weight room as well as polishing his skills at split end.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned all-city honors from the Atlanta Journal-Constitution for Coach Corey Jarvis. Despite playing in a run-oriented offense, he hauled in 27 catches for 620 yards and six touchdowns as a senior. He averaged 22.2 yards a catch in his senior campaign. He helped lead his squad to a 9-3 record in his final prep season. Scout ranked him as the No. 62 prospect in Georgia. He was also recruited by East Carolina, Bowling Green and Eastern Kentucky.

PERSONAL: Born Nov. 30, 1988, he is the son of Grayson T. and Sharon D. Wade. He is majoring in communications.

OUTLOOK: He has never started a game for the Razorbacks, but he is one of the veterans of the secondary and he goes into fall camp listed as the starter at strong safety ahead of redshirt freshman Bret Harris. Washington has played in 36 games in his career, and with all four starters gone from last year's defensive backfield, he will be counted on to provide leadership in the secondary this year. In the Red-White Spring Game, he had three tackles, two assists, and recovered a fumble. In the first major scrimmage of the spring, he was third on the team with 11 tackles. He had five solo tackles, a 10-yard sack and returned a fumble 32 yards. In the second scrimmage, he had four tackles, two solos and two assists.

2007: Washington played cornerback and was a regular in the secondary, appearing in 12 games. He recorded 22 tackles, a half tackle for loss (-6) and one quarterback hurry. He made 15 of his tackles on special teams. - Washington made two tackles in the season opener against Troy and played 43 snaps. He played four snaps in the defensive secondary at Alabama and had three special teams stops. Washington made one solo tackle on special teams against Kentucky. He did not see time on the defensive side of the football, but made two assisted stops on special teams against North Texas. His four-tackle effort vs. Chattanooga earned him Hogwired.com Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Washington played on special teams at Ole Miss, but did not register any statistics. He added three more special teams tackles vs. FIU with three assisted stops. Washington played on special teams vs. South Carolina, but did not record a tackle. He did not record any statistics at Tennessee, but he did play 11 snaps on defense. Washington made a season-high five tackles with four coming on 16 snaps at the dime cornerback and one assisted special teams tackle against Mississippi State. He did not have any statistics against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl.

2006: Washington appeared in 13 of the Razorbacks' 14 games, missing only the Capital One Bowl against No. 7 Wisconsin. The full-time special teams contributor also saw snaps as a reserve in the Razorback secondary at strong safety. He was one of Arkansas' most consistent special teams players. He tied for second on the squad with eight tackles on the kickoff coverage unit. Washington was also on the punt return unit. He earned a total of 11 tackles on the season with nine of those coming as solo stops. He made at least one tackle in eight of his 13 outings. He tallied a season-high three tackles against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game. - He opened the season with a solo tackle against No. 4 USC. Washington logged six snaps in the secondary as well. He followed with solo tackles in the next two games against Utah State and Vanderbilt while playing four snaps against USU and three against Vanderbilt at strong safety. He played eight snaps on defense and worked on special teams against No. 22 Alabama. He didn't have a tackle against the Crimson Tide. Washington made one solo stop in Arkansas' upset of No. 2 Auburn. He earned an assisted stop on special teams against Southeast Missouri State. He logged nine snaps in the secondary against Ole Miss, but didn't register defensive statistics. Washington came up empty on the tackle chart against Louisiana-Monroe, but rebounded with a two-tackle effort at South Carolina. He earned one solo and one assisted stop in the Hogs' win over the Gamecocks. He concentrated on his role on special teams in games against No. 13 Tennessee, Mississippi State and No. 9 LSU. He tallied one solo stop against the Bulldogs. Washington racked up a season-high three tackles against No. 4 Florida in the SEC Championship Game. All three of his stops were of the solo variety. Two of the three tackles came during play in the secondary.

2005: He worked on his mechanics at free safety in his redshirt season.

2004: He appeared in all 11 games as a reserve in the secondary and on special teams. He racked up 14 tackles, including seven solo stops, in his true freshman campaign. He tallied three of his tackles on special teams. He earned at least one tackle in five of 11 contests. He made a career-high three tackles against No. 16 Florida. He tied for the team lead with two fumble recoveries. He led the Hogs in fumble return yardage with 31 yards. He ranked tied for fourth in the SEC with 0.18 fumble recoveries per game. - He returned a fumble for 21 yards and earned an assisted tackle in his first collegiate game against New Mexico State. He returned the fourth-quarter fumble to the NMSU 16-yard line. Arkansas scored on the ensuing drive to ice a 63-13 win over the Aggies. He played, but did not earn a tackle against Texas, Louisiana-Monroe and Alabama. He tallied a career-best three tackles, all solo, in extended playing time against No. 16 Florida. Most of his secondary action came in the second half of the Hogs' 45-30 loss to the Gators. He did not make a tackle in action against No. 4 Auburn. He played against No. 6 Georgia, but did not earn statistics. He did not make a tackle against South Carolina. He made three tackles and earned his second fumble recovery of the season in the Razorbacks' 35-3 win over Ole Miss. He returned a fumble 10 yards to halt a prospective Rebels' scoring drive at the Hogs' 18-yard line in the fourth quarter. He played, but did not earn a tackle in Arkansas' 24-21 road win at Mississippi State. He tallied an assisted tackle in the Hogs' loss to No. 12 LSU.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He is a standout product from the same high school that produced former Razorbacks Randy Garner and DeCori Birmingham. He had 80 tackles, four interceptions, five punt returns for touchdowns, 316 yards receiving and 268 rushing yards in his senior season for Coach Ben Schamberg. He helped his team go 12-4 and capture the Class 3A Division II state championship. He returned two punts for touchdowns in a 34-0 win in the state championship game. He played against former Razorback Matterral Richardson in that contest. His scores were from 90 and 79 yards on punt returns in that game. He earned all-state honors at defensive back and as a kick returner. An All-Texas selection at DB (all classifications), he was also named one of the top 25 athletes in Northeast Texas. His track teams won state titles his sophomore and junior years. He was also recruited by Purdue, TCU, Texas A&M and SMU.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 9, 1985, he is the son of Victor and Vernell Rowe. He is majoring in sociology. Washington was named a Hard Working Hog for the 2004-05 academic year. He was also a member of the Lon Farrell Academic Honor Roll for Spring 2006.

CODY WILLIAMS

K, 6-1, 215, FR-RS
Bryant, Ark.
[Bryant]

OUTLOOK: Alex Tejada is back to handle the place-kicking duties and sophomore Shay Haddock received most of the other work in the spring scrimmages, but Williams could compete for time at that position. Brian Vavra, who handled kick-offs last year, is gone, so Williams could also be a candidate for that role.

2007: He practiced with Arkansas' kickers and specialists while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER: He earned all-state honors as a senior for Coach Paul Calley at Bryant High.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 5, 1988, he is the son of Don and Vicky Williams. He is majoring in general business.

D.J. WILLIAMS

TE, 6-2, 250, SO-1L
Little Rock, Ark.

45

OUTLOOK: With a more diversified passing attack slated for the fall, Williams will likely be a featured target this year at tight end. His versatility will also allow Arkansas to utilize him at H-back or lined up in a variety of other positions. He made an impression as a true freshman, earning first-team SEC All-Freshman honors, but flashed even more potential during the spring. His continued improvement combined with a new offensive scheme could make him an all-conference and perhaps All-America caliber player in 2008. In the Red-White Spring Game, he had a game-high nine receptions for 80 yards with an 11-yard touchdown from Casey Dick. In the first major scrimmage of the spring, he was third on the team with six catches for 107 yards with a 30-yard score from Dick. In the second scrimmage, he was third on the club with six grabs for 91 yards. His combined spring totals were 21 receptions for 278 yards (13.2) and two touchdowns.

RAZORBACKS

2007: A backup at tight end to Andrew Davie, he played in every game except the Cotton Bowl. He was Arkansas' lone starting tight end against Kentucky and started along with Davie in a two-tight end set against Chattanooga. For the year, he had five receptions for 94 yards, and was named to the SEC All-Freshmen first team. His 18.8 yards-per-catch average ranked third on the team. – Williams came off the bench to haul in his first career catch for 16 yards in the season opener against Troy. His catch marked a first down and led to a Darren McFadden rushing touchdown. He did not record any statistics as a reserve tight end against Alabama. ARKANSAS

2007 SEASON REVIEW

- The Razorbacks went 8-5, earned a spot in the Cotton Bowl and recorded wins over No. 1 LSU, 50-48 in three overtimes, and No. 23 South Carolina, 48-36. The bowl bid was the 36th all-time for Arkansas and the eighth in the previous 10 years.
- Junior running back Darren McFadden won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back and finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting for the second straight year. He was also named the Walter Camp and The Sporting News national player of the year after rushing for a school-record 1,830 yards (140.8 per game) and 16 touchdowns. He is the first Razorback to claim national player of the year honors. McFadden finished his career first on Arkansas' all-time rushing chart (4,590 yards) and in 100-yard games (22).
- Returning senior center Jonathan Luigs was named the top center in the nation last year as the recipient of the Rimington Trophy. Luigs helped clear the way for a school-record 3,725 rushing yards along with 33 touchdowns. He graded out at 90.4 percent for the season, including 96.9 percent on passing plays and 86.1 percent on running plays.
- Running backs Darren McFadden and Felix Jones, offensive guard Robert Felton and center Jonathan Luigs all earned All-America honors for Arkansas. Felton was second-team by AP, Rivals and Phil Steele; Jones was a first-team selection by Walter Camp, Rivals and Phil Steele, and third-team by AP; Luigs was first-team by the Football Writers Association of America, CBSSportsLine.com, College Football News, Rivals, The Sporting News, Walter Camp and Phil Steele, and second-team by AP; and McFadden was first-team by the American Football Coaches Association, AP, CBSSportsLine.com, College Football News, Pro Football Weekly, Rivals, The Sporting News, Walter Camp and Phil Steele.
- Arkansas intercepted 20 passes in 2007, the most since 1987 and the ninth-most in school history. The '07 club recorded 22 picks. Cornerback Jerrell Norton had five interceptions, the most for a Razorback since rover Zac Painter had five in 1998.
- The Razorbacks led the Southeastern Conference in rushing for the fifth time in six years and ranked fourth in the nation with an average of 286.5 yards per game. Arkansas rushed for a school-record 3,725 yards and an average of 6.0 yards per carry.
- As a junior, quarterback Casey Dick threw for 1,695 yards and 18 touchdowns. The yardage total was the 10th-best season mark in school history while the touchdown total tied for third-best.

- Running back Felix Jones closed his career by rushing for 1,162 yards on 133 carries, an average of 8.7 yards per attempt. He ended his career with 386 rushes for 2,956 yards for a school-record average of 7.66 yards per carry. He also led the SEC in kickoff returns for the second time in three years by averaging 29.6 yards to rank fourth in the nation. He finished his career fifth on the school's career rushing list and first on the kickoff return yardage (1,749) and return average (28.21) lists.
- Marcus Monk, who missed most of the season with injuries, had 16 receptions for 144 yards and three touchdowns. He set the school record with 27 career touchdowns, which tied Florida's Jabar Gaffney for seventh-best in SEC history. He also finished with 138 catches for 2,151 yards. The receptions are third-most in school history while the yardage figure tied for third-best.

Darren McFadden won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top tailback and was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy for the second year in a row.

Felix Jones earned first-team All-America honors after ranking fifth in the SEC in rushing (89.4), 22nd in the nation in all-purpose running (153.1) and fourth in the country in kickoff returns (29.6).

Returning players in bold

Sophomore DeMarcus Love became a starter in the 11th game last year and should be in position to start at right guard this season.

2007 SEC FOOTBALL QUICK HITTERS

- SEC student-athletes won 12 individual national awards this season, an SEC all-time high with LSU's Glenn Dorsey winning four, Florida's Tim Tebow winning three and Arkansas' Darren McFadden claiming two honors. Dorsey won the Nagurski, Outland, Lott and Lombardi awards while Tebow won the Heisman, O'Brien and Maxwell awards and McFadden claimed the Walter Camp and Doak Walker awards. Arkansas' Jonathan Luigs won the Rimington Trophy and Kentucky's Jacob Tamme and Terry Clayton won the Bowden Award and Rudy Award, respectively.
- Florida's Tim Tebow and Arkansas' Darren McFadden represent the 12th and 13th National Player of the Year honored in SEC history. Tebow won the Maxwell and Heisman trophies while McFadden won the Walter Camp Trophy. It is the first time two SEC student-athletes have been named National Player of the Year in the same season.
- The SEC had five teams ranked in the top 15 of the final Associated Press poll and five of the top 16 in the final USA Today coaches poll - the most of any conference. The SEC had five of the top 15 teams in the final AP poll four previous times (1952, 1971, 1997 and 2005) and five of the top 16 teams in the final USA Today poll four times since conference expansion (1992, 1997, 1999, 2005).
- LSU and Georgia finished 1-2 in the final AP poll marking the first time the SEC has accomplished that feat and the first time for any conference since 1971 (Big Eight).
- The SEC finished the 2007-08 bowl season with a 7-2 record. The seven wins are the most bowl victories by any conference in NCAA history. The league had won six bowl games last year and five bowl games six times with the latest coming in 2003.

- In 2007, the SEC led all NCAA FBS conferences with an 82.4 winning percentage in non-conference games. The SEC posted a 47-10 overall non-conference mark, edging out the Big 12 Conference with a 41-15 mark (73.2 percent) and the Big Ten Conference at 38-14 (73.1 percent). The 47 non-conference wins by the SEC ties the most by the league in its history (47 in 2006).
- The SEC drew a conference record 6.6 million fans to its games in 2007, the most by any conference in NCAA history. In 89 game dates, the SEC averaged 75,139 fans per game, which is also the best in NCAA history. SEC games filled stadiums at 97.7 percent of capacity, which is the highest since 2001.
- The SEC finished the 2007 season with eight teams earning at least eight-or-more victories for the second straight season. Before last season, the most teams in a season that had eight wins were six in 2002 and 2003.
- The SEC had seven football student-athletes earn first-team All-America mention in 2007. Included are consensus All-Americans: Arkansas C Jonathan Luigs, Florida QB Tim Tebow, Arkansas RB Darren McFadden (unanimous), Arkansas KR Felix Jones, LSU DT Glenn Dorsey (unanimous) and LSU DB Craig Steltz. Also earning first-team mention was Tennessee PK Daniel Lincoln.

Georgia Dome
Contract: Through 2009 game

The Georgia Dome in Atlanta is the site of the SEC Championship Game through 2009.

The SEC's Western and Eastern Division winners meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series.

The 17th annual title game is set for Dec. 6 and will be nationally televised by CBS Sports.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history in 1992. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: Florida 38, Arkansas 28 — Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas.

Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas (10-4) could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21.

Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three.

Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: Georgia 30, Arkansas 3 — Georgia (12-1) scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus.

Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards.

Arkansas (9-4) had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game.

The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2.

On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin.

Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: Florida 34, Arkansas 3 — A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory.

Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times.

Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.

Senior defensive end Antwain Robinson had a 40-yard interception return for a touchdown against Florida in the 2006 SEC Championship Game.

SEC NOTES

- Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the SEC leads all conferences with four national champions – Tennessee in 1998, LSU in 2003, Florida in 2006 and LSU in 2007.
- Since SEC expansion in 1992, the league leads the nation with six national champions.
- Since 1998, Arkansas has won or shared four SEC Western Division championships.
- The SEC had 263 former players on the 2007 National Football League opening day active rosters, which led all conferences. The ACC was second with 238.
- Since 2000, the SEC has more bowl appearances (61) and bowl wins (36) than any other conference. Overall, based on current conference alignments, the SEC's 353 bowl appearances and 184 victories also lead the nation.
- For the 27th straight season in 2007, the SEC recorded the largest total attendance figure of any conference in the country. A total of 6,687,342 fans attended 89 games for an average of 75,139 per contest, which also topped the nation.
- The SEC has the nation's top non-conference winning percentage (including bowl games) since 2000. The SEC is 294-105 (.737) against non-conference foes during the last eight seasons. The Big 12 is next with a .720 percentage, followed by the Pac-10 at .684.
- Arkansas has earned eight bowl bids in the last 10 years, which ties for fourth-best in the SEC.
- Since 1990, the SEC has won 118 team and 805 individual national championships.
- During the last five years, the SEC has had more student-athletes honors as CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans than any other conference.

Arkansas' 5-1-2 SEC Schedule

The 2002 season was the first for the 5-1-2 schedule format, which allows each school to play all five of its division opponents along with one permanent and two rotating non-division opponents each year. It ensures each school will play every conference member four times during a 10-year period and that each will make two visits to every league stadium during that stretch.

Division: Alabama, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State

Permanent Non-Division: South Carolina

Rotating Non-Division (2):

2003 & 2008: at Kentucky, Florida

2004 & 2009: at Florida, Georgia

2005 & 2010: at Georgia, Vanderbilt

2006 & 2011: at Vanderbilt, Tennessee

2007 & 2012: at Tennessee, Kentucky

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his '64 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time — The Associated Press and the United Press International — did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose, 21-17, to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion — The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation — named Frank Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

OT Jim Mabry
1989 AFCA/AP/WC 1st

He played for a Razorback squad that went 10-2, finished ranked No. 13 and won the SWC title. During the year, Mabry and his line helped the Hogs offense average an astounding 453 yards per game.

DT Wayne Martin
1988 AP/FWAA/TSN 1st

His career found him tied for third in tackles for loss with 37. He also owns the school record for sacks in a game (five) against Ole Miss and the record for sacks in a career with 25.5. He had team highs with 18 tackles for loss and 13 sacks in '88 while making 68 total tackles.

K Bill McClard
1970 AFCA 1st
1971 FWAA/TSN 1st

He nailed 50 of 51 PATs in 1970 and 35 of 38 in '71. His 1970 mark is a school record for both attempts and makes. He is also the all-time leader in career extra point attempts and makes (125-133). In addition, he has three of the longest field goals in school history, making attempts from 60 yards (vs. SMU, 1970), 53 (vs. Wichita State, 1970) and 52 (vs. California, 1971). He was 10 of 15 in 1970 and 12 of 22 in '71.

RB Darren McFadden
2007 AFCA/AP/CBS SL/CFN/PS/PFW/Rivals/TSN/WC 1st
2006 AFCA/AP/CBS SL/Rivals.com/SI.com/PFW/Scout.com/WC 1st

The Doak Walker Award winner as the nation's top running back and the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy for the second straight year, he was the Walter Camp and The Sporting News national player of the year, and the SEC's Offensive Player of the Year in 2007. He set a school record in leading the SEC and ranking fourth in the nation with 1,830 yards rushing (140.8) and 10 100-yard games along with 16 touchdowns. He also led the league and was 12th in the nation with 2,310 (177.7) all-purpose yards. He set season and single-game records (355 vs. South Carolina) for all-purpose running. As a sophomore, he was the national player of the week three times on the way to what was then a school-record 1,647 rushing yards with 14 touchdowns. He was 6-of-11 passing for 123 yards and four touchdowns as a junior and 7-of-9 for 69 yards and three scores as a sophomore. As a sophomore, he led the SEC in rushing (117.6), scoring (98, 7.0) and all-purpose running (2,058, 147.0), ranking sixth in the nation in all-purpose running and 10th in rushing.

QB Billy Moore
1962 FWAA 1st

He led the Hogs in both passing and rushing in 1962. His 131 attempts for 585 yards on the ground and 51 of 91 passing attempts for 673 yards through the air gave him 1,258 yards of total offense and a combined 19 touchdowns.

B Jim Mooty
1959 AP 1st / NEA 3rd

He had 93 carries for 519 yards and five touchdowns on a team that went 9-2, was co-champion of the SWC, ended the season ranked No. 9 and played in the Gator Bowl.

OG Stephen Parker
2006 TSN 2nd

Also a second-team All-SEC pick, he signed a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins. He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (228.5), rank 29th in the nation in total offense (378.0) and 31st in scoring (28.9). UA's total of 3,199 rushing yards is the third-best season total in school history and the Hogs set a school record with 5.94 yards per carry. The total of 5,292 yards of total offense is the second-best mark in school history.

LB Jermaine Petty
2001 AAFF/AFCA 1st

He finished his career as the No. 4 tackler in a season with 140. Petty was also named the Bronko Nagurski Player of the Week two times. His biggest stop came on a two-point conversion attempt at Ole Miss when his tackle gave UA the 58-56, seven-overtime victory in the longest game ever played.

T Loyd Phillips
1965 AFCA/AP/WC 1st
1966 AFCA/AP/FWAA/TSN/WC 1st

His most significant achievement was winning the Outland Trophy for the most outstanding lineman in college football. Phillips finished his career with 304 tackles, including a 22-tackle performance against Tulsa. He made 100 stops in '65 and 97 in '66.

RAZORBACKS

LB Cliff Powell
1969 AFCA 1st

A three-year letterman, he held the school record for tackles in a career (367) from 1969 through the end of the 2002 season. His senior campaign saw him make 134 tackles to break the previous record by 10 (Ronnie Caveness).

QB Jack Robbins
1936 AABF

Also a first-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1936, he produced 3,253 yards of total offense from 1935-37. He led Arkansas to a 7-3 finish, a SWC title and a No. 18 final ranking. He was 198-of-386 for 2,553 yards with 19 touchdowns and 32 interceptions in his career. He was also All-SWC in basketball in 1938.

E Wear Schoonover
1929 GR/NYS 1st UPI/2nd AP/INS 3rd

Arkansas' first All-American, despite playing more than 70 years ago, he still is atop the list for receptions in a game. He hauled in 13 passes for 129 yards in a matchup against Baylor in 1929. He also has one of the longest interception returns in UA history with a 96-yard jaunt for a score against Centenary.

TB Clyde Scott
1948 AFCA/AP 1st

The most successful two-sport athlete in Razorback history, "Smackover" Scott lettered in football and track. His is only one of two numbers retired by the University of Arkansas, and he is the only two-sport athlete to be selected an All-American in both sports. The spring of 1948 saw Scott not only establish himself in track, earning All-America honors, but as an Olympian as well. He won the silver medal in the 110-yard hurdles at the summer games in London. Back on the gridiron, Scott led the Hogs in rushing (95-670) and kickoff returns (8-195).

DE Billy Ray Smith Jr.
1982 AFCA/AP/FWAA/TSN/WC 1st

His career saw him wreak havoc in the backfield, stopping opponents a school-record 63 times behind the line of scrimmage for 343 lost yards. Smith finished his career with 299 tackles. He had 72 tackles with 19 for loss in 1981 and 90 stops with 15 for loss in '82.

K Kendall Trainor
1988 AFCA/AP/TSN/WC 1st

In addition to five other school records, Trainor holds the record for most field goals made in a season, splitting the uprights 24 of 27 times in 1988, and for made field goals in a game (5-5) against TCU and Texas A&M. He made his final 24 field goal attempts as a Razorback including a 58-yard effort against Miami (Fla.).

OT Tony Ugho
2006 Rivals.com 2nd / AP 3rd

Also a first-team All-SEC selection, he was a second-round draft choice of the defending Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts. He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (228.5), rank 29th in the nation in total offense (378.0) and 31st in scoring (28.9). UA's total of 3,199 rushing yards is the third-best season total in school history and the Hogs set a school record with 5.94 yards per carry. The total 5,292 yards of total offense is the second-best mark in school history.

DT Jimmy Walker
1978 FWAA 1st

He was in the backfield 37 times for 216 yards in losses during his career. Following the 1977 regular season, Walker recovered a fumble that aided in the Hogs' drumming of Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. A year later, he made 86 tackles with a then-school record 19 tackles for loss and was named the most outstanding defensive player after making 10 tackles in the 1978 Fiesta Bowl.

University of Arkansas National Individual Award Winners

Loyd Phillips

OUTLAND TROPHY (Outstanding Lineman in College Football)

Named for John Outland, an All-American tackle at the University of Pennsylvania in 1897, this trophy is presented by the Football Writers' Association of America to the nation's outstanding collegiate interior lineman.

Arkansas boasts two Outland Trophy winners in its history. An offensive guard and defensive tackle, Bud Brooks was the first UA honoree in 1954. Tackle Loyd Phillips became the Hogs' second winner when he won the award in 1966. The honor is one of the most prestigious awards ever earned by an individual UA player.

1966: Loyd Phillips, defensive tackle
1954: Bill "Bud" Brooks, defensive tackle / offensive guard

Darren McFadden

DOAK WALKER AWARD (Outstanding Running Back in College Football)

The Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

The award is named for the former SMU great, who earned All-America honors in 1947, '48 and '49, and won the Heisman Trophy in 1948. Ten semifinalist are selected by the SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors and the winner then chosen by the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee.

Darren McFadden won the award as a sophomore in 2006 and as a junior in 2007 when he was also named the Walter Camp National Player of the Year. He was also the Heisman Trophy runner-up each season. He set a school rushing record with 1,647 yards and 14 touchdowns as a sophomore, and topped those totals with 1,830 yards and 16 TDs as a junior. He led the SEC in rushing and all-purpose running both years.

Jonathan Luigs

RIMINGTON TROPHY (Most outstanding collegiate center in NCAA I-A)

The winner is selected by determining the consensus All-American center from four existing All-America teams – the American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation, Sporting News and Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named after Dave Rimington, a two-time consensus All-American at Nebraska in 1981 and 1982. Rimington also won the Outland Trophy those two seasons. The trophy is sponsored by the Boomer Esiason Foundation to support treatment and research of cystic fibrosis.

Jonathan Luigs won the award in 2007 after helping clear the way for Darren McFadden, the Heisman Trophy runner-up and Doak Walker Award winner, to rush for 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns; and for All-American Felix Jones, who ran for 1,162 yards and 11 scores.

Luigs earned first-team All-America honors from the FWAA, The Sporting News, Walter Camp, Rivals, College Football News and Phil Steele. Arkansas set school records with 3,725 rushing yards on the season and ranked fourth in the nation, with 5,850 yards of total offense, and in scoring with 485 total points and 37.3 points per game.

ARKANSAS

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 114 years that the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott

(No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) have worn numbers no other Razorback will ever wear.

No. 12

Clyde "Smackover" Scott – #12 (1946-49)

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards per carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first-ever Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success came in 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, Coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career.

No. 77

Brandon Burlsworth – #77 (1994-98)

The athletic department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign. Now the No. 77, worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth, will be forever retired.

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champion Razorbacks, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997 and in '98 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December of 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but unfortunately would die tragically in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletic director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

Burlsworth's locker remains intact as a tribute to his memory in the UA football dressing room.

RAZORBACKS

Joe Ferguson was named to Arkansas' All-Century Team in 1994 after passing for 4,431 yards in three seasons from 1970-72.

F.C. LONGMAN

2 SEASONS — 1906-07, 5-8-3

F.C. Longman was the final faculty member to serve as the football program's volunteer coach. Though the Cardinals suffered five shutouts during his tenure, they also earned a shutout win at Tulane and began Arkansas' series with Tennessee during the 1907 season.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 SEASONS — 1908-12, 29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season. In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season — a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

E.T. PICKERING

2 SEASONS — 1913-14, 11-7-0

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed nearly 90 years later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player; Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

T.T. McCONNELL

2 SEASONS — 1915-16, 8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four-consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi A&M.

NORMAN PAINE2 SEASONS — 1917-18, 8-3-1

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five-consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Fighting Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history — a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

J.B. CRAIG1 SEASON — 1919, 3-4-0

Although J.B. Craig's only season included a lopsided 63-7 loss to Henry Kendall, it concluded with a 7-6 win over Oklahoma in the Razorbacks' most recent home meeting with the Sooners. The win avenged the 103-0 loss at Norman, Okla., the year before.

G.W. McLAREN2 SEASONS — 1920-21, 8-5-3

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shut-out SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0-0 conference mark.

FRANCIS SCHMIDT*7 SEASONS — 1922-28, 42-20-3

Led by George Cole, Glen Rose and Wear Schoonover, Francis Schmidt's 1927 Razorback team won a then-school-record eight games. After guiding the Hogs to a 7-2 campaign in 1928, Schmidt left UA to take over the TCU program.

FRED THOMSEN

13 SEASONS — 1929-41, 56-61-10

Still the second-longest-tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred

Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 SEASON — 1942, 3-7-0

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1973. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

JOHN BARNHILL

4 SEASONS — 1946-49, 22-17-3

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS

3 SEASONS — 1950-52, 9-21-0

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 — the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT

2 SEASONS — 1953-54, 11-10-0

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES

19 SEASONS — 1958-76, 144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution he served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

HOUSTON NUTT

10 SEASONS — 1998-2007, 75-48-0

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

RAZORBACKS IN OVERTIME

Arkansas has established itself as an authority on overtime games.

In 2001, the Razorbacks won the longest game ever played, the 58-56, seven-overtime thriller at Ole Miss. In 2003, UA matched that effort with another seven-overtime thriller, the 71-63 win at Kentucky. Earlier in the season, Arkansas claimed a double-overtime victory at Alabama. Last year, the Razorbacks won a 50-48, triple-overtime thriller at No. 1 LSU.

Arkansas had played extra-period games before those mentioned, but the Ole Miss and Kentucky games, and the six-overtime loss at Tennessee in 2002 rank at the top of the charts for the most overtimes played in NCAA history.

Key Points Regarding Overtime Games

- The team winning the coin toss has the option of taking the ball first or playing defense first. The team losing the coin toss selects the end of the field for both possessions.
- The team losing the coin toss has the option of going on offense or defense first for the second overtime while the other team chooses the end of the field.
- Each team gets the ball at the opponent 25-yard line.
- Beginning with the third overtime period, teams must attempt a two-point conversion following a touchdown.

ARKANSAS 71, KENTUCKY 63 (7 OT)

Nov. 1, 2003 • Lexington, Ky.

GAME NOTES

- Matches the record for the longest game in NCAA history (UA-Ole Miss in 2001)
- DeCori Birmingham had a career-best rushing performance, and the 11th-best in school history, with 196 yards and two TDs on 40 carries.
- UA set an NCAA team record for the most points in overtime with 47.

ARKANSAS 58, OLE MISS 56 (7 OT)

Nov. 3, 2001 • Oxford, Miss.

GAME NOTES

- The seven overtimes is an NCAA record.
- The 114 combined points scored is an SEC record.
- UA All-American linebacker Jermaine Petty made his 20th tackle on his 103rd play of the game when he stopped Ole Miss tight end Doug Zeigler two yards short of the end zone on a two-point conversion attempt that would have forced an eighth extra period.
- Quarterback Matt Jones accounted for 116 of UA's 157 yards of total offense in the extra periods with 61 yards rushing and 55 passing. He did not start, but played all of the fourth quarter and all seven overtime periods.

Secretary

The policies that follow have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes and coaches, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate any special requests you may have.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the media relations department. Student-athletes are instructed to decline any interviews not pre-arranged by the media relations department. UA football student-athletes are generally available for in-person interviews Monday through Wednesday prior to afternoon meetings (usually from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.) and again after each day's practice (through Wednesday of game weeks). All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least a day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. No interviews will be scheduled for the period between afternoon meetings and that day's practice. No interviews will be conducted on Friday or Saturday (except post-game). Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to politely decline interviews when contacted by telephone.

Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media. Exceptions to this policy may be made in the event of a pre-arranged story that may involve a request to shoot video in a restricted area.

DAILY PRACTICE

Following each practice session, head coach Bobby Petrino or a member of the UA coaching staff will conduct a group interview with members of the media. Video and still photographers from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the media relations department for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field. As a general rule, video and photography are allowed during the first 20 minutes of practice.

Following each practice session Monday through Thursday, the media relations department will produce a brief, Associated Press-style practice story, including quotes from Coach Petrino. The story may be retrieved from the Razorbacks' official Web site, ArkansasRazorbacks.com. The story may also be e-mailed to accredited media members upon their request.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the UA media relations department for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Petrino and student-athletes.

SEC WEEKLY COACHES' TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, head coach Bobby Petrino will participate each week in the league's teleconference of football coaches. The teleconferences will be conducted each Wednesday from Aug. 27 to Nov. 26 from 10 a.m. CT to 11:17 a.m. CT. Petrino's scheduled time slot is from 10:42 a.m. CT to 10:49 a.m. CT. Accredited media members only may access the broadcast-quality teleconference. Callers may participate in the question-and-answer session with an individual coach or all SEC coaches. For more information and the teleconference number, contact the UA men's sports information office or the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3000.

ARKANSAS SATELLITE UPLINK

The Arkansas Media Relations office will offer its own uplink of highlights and interviews once a week during the 2008 season. Please contact the media relations department at (479) 575-2751 for dates, times and coordinates.

ARKANSASRAZORBACKS.COM

The latest information on all Razorback sports, including football, is just a click away on the world wide web at ArkansasRazorbacks.com — the official Web site of UA athletics. Game notes, quotes from press conferences and daily practice stories are just a few of the items included on-line. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics, game stories and schedules.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least two weeks in advance.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see media credentialing guidelines online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas.

Media and photo credentials to games in Fayetteville and/or Little Rock will be issued according to the following priority:

1. daily newspapers for production the next day
2. sports editors only of other Arkansas daily newspapers
3. originating broadcast of visiting team
4. accredited photographers (same priority as writers)
5. school publications (home and visiting campus publications [newspaper, yearbook, radio station, alumni magazine etc.] are limited to a total of two media and two photo passes
6. accredited television sports directors and photographers
7. approved special coverage

Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The University of Arkansas Media Relations reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning three hours prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Be prepared to present photo identification when picking up credentials.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE INTERNET POLICY & GUIDELINES INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:
 - a. No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

- b. It is agreed that video tape is NOT to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

- c. While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

This policy is in effect for all SEC sporting events including championships. The limitations for each sporting event are listed below:

Soccer: Five times per half; one at halftime

Football: Three per quarter; one at halftime

Cross Country: Ten per day/session

Basketball: Five times per half; one at halftime; two times per overtime period

Indoor Track & Field: Ten per day/session

Gymnastics: Ten per session

Baseball and Softball: one every half-inning (includes extra innings)

Outdoor Track and Field: Ten per day/session

Golf: Ten per day/session

Tennis: Ten per day/session

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville and Little Rock for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

TELEPHONES

UA provides ample telephones on a first-come, first-served basis for media members in the press boxes at both Fayetteville and Little Rock. A credit card is required for making calls from these phones.

CHUCK BARRETT — Play-by-Play

Barrett is entering his second season as the play-by-play announcer for the Razorbacks and as a member of the Athletic Department staff, but he's no stranger to Arkansas fans or the ARSN broadcast team. This is his 15th year on the broadcast crew, including spending 11 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities in the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the ARSN Pre-Game Show, Halftime and Scoreboard shows, and the football version of the Razorback Report. He has also worked as the play-by-play man for baseball since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992. In 2007, Barrett was recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the 2007 Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year.

KEITH JACKSON — Color Analyst

Jackson is in his ninth season with ARSN. The Little Rock native was a two-time All-American at Oklahoma, and a six-time Pro Bowl and three-time All-Pro selection, playing in the NFL with Philadelphia, Miami and Green Bay, and winning a Super Bowl championship with the Packers. Jackson has worked as an analyst for "TNT" and "FOX Sports Network" telecasts.

QUINN GROVEY — Co-Host and Sideline Reporter
Grovey is in his 11th year with ARSN. The former Hog quarterback is a co-host of the pre-game and post-game shows, and provides insight during games as a sideline reporter. Grovey is a regional personnel manager for Home Depot.

SCOTT INMAN — Co-Host

Inman begins his 10th year with ARSN. He serves as the pre-game show and post-game Scoreboard Show co-host along with Quinn Grovey. Inman is also co-anchor of KATV's 5, 6 and 10 p.m. newscasts. A native Arkansan, he grew up in Stuttgart and graduated from Arkansas State University in 1995, where he served as the voice of Jonesboro High School football and basketball, as well as ASU Lady Indians basketball.

ARKANSAS

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Welcome to the Home of the Razorbacks

The University of Arkansas

One of America's leading land-grant universities, the University of Arkansas opens a new chapter in its storied history in 2008-09. The benefits of a billion-dollar Campaign for the Twenty-First Century are beginning to show. Arkansas enjoyed yet another record enrollment in 2007, and expects the same for Fall 2008. The over 18,000 students enrolled at the Fayetteville campus welcome a new Chancellor, Dr. G. David Gearhart, this fall.

One of the benchmarks to college education is the annual US News and World Report "Best Colleges" issue. The 2008 edition keeps the University of Arkansas in the top level of the leading institutions of higher learning in the United States. The peer review and data-driven survey had Arkansas in the top tier for the first time in school history.

In addition, the Sam M. Walton College of Business ranked 25th place among the nation's top public undergraduate business schools, according to the 2007 US News. Adding to the good news, the College of Engineering was ranked for the first time. The Carnegie Foundation categorizes the University of Arkansas as a research institution with "high research activity," which puts UA in the top 10 percent in the nation.

As a land-grant university, Arkansas strives to fulfill a three-fold mission of teaching, research and service. The Fayetteville campus also serves as the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas system, which includes branch universities and the UA Medical System. As the lead campus, UA serves as the state's major center of professional education and as the state's main source of theoretical and applied research.

We Prepare Students to Succeed

At the University of Arkansas, we strive for excellence in everything we do, and we achieve it with nationally ranked academic programs as well as with our athletic teams. Here, successful students will join with other graduates succeeding as major media executives, scientists, engineers, teachers, writers and Olympians.

Arkansas' true success is measured by its students. Since the turn of the 21st Century, Arkansas has brought home more than its share of the nation's most prestigious undergraduate awards. In fact, the University of Arkansas was the only public or private institution in the country to have Rhodes, Marshall, Goldwater, Udall, NSF and James Madison recipients in the same year back in 2001-02, and continues each year to add to the overall total of the highly competitive post-graduate awards won by Arkansas students. Walk through campus on Senior Walk. It features the names of all our graduates - more than 120,000 of them. You will immediately feel connected to the pride, quality and tradition that go with an Arkansas degree.

World-Class Faculty

At Arkansas, excellence begins in the classrooms and laboratories. Faculty members value research and the creation of knowledge, knowing that investigating the unknown translates into first-rate teaching. They publish nearly 100 books each year, participate in conferences around the world, file patents for their innovative projects and win prestigious honors and awards.

World-Class Facilities

Over $700 million in construction projects have reached completion, are beginning construction or are on the books at the University of Arkansas in the past decade. Our complexes range from splendidly equipped anthropology labs to high-tech robotics, semiconductor and laser facilities.

World-Class Support

Investment in the future is critical, and the recently completed Campaign for the Twenty-First Century resulted in a billion dollar infusion of gifts to the University of Arkansas. The effort reset the bar with the largest single gift to date to a U.S. public university in the history of American philanthropy with a $300 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Trust. Primary among the programs created by the Walton gift was the designation of $200 million toward the establishment of the Honors College.

But that kind of commitment from the state and the region is not uncommon. It was the effort of the city of Fayetteville and Washington County in submitting the highest bid to the state in the 1870s that resulted in the University of Arkansas opening its doors here on Jan. 22, 1872.

Old Main

One of the original buildings of Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1876, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as it did its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2006. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

ARKANSAS

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

The link to the past

Senior Walk

The University of Arkansas is proud to be the last university in the nation maintaining what once was a common tradition of etching its graduates' names into the campus sidewalks. The 100,000th graduate's name went down in cement during the 1990s. Senior Walk stretches over five miles of campus sidewalks. The story of Senior Walk is a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas brings its commitment to the past together with innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the University of Arkansas turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine -- the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across the front lawn of Old Main, etching the names of graduates into sidewalks.

Broad range of degrees

At Arkansas, students can major in one of over 120 undergraduate disciplines, many of which prepare them for entry into graduate studies ranging from law to medicine.

Nine Colleges, One University

The University has nine colleges to provide a wide range of majors: Fine arts in some of the most modern facilities in the region at the Walton Arts Center to the famous Edward Durrell Stone Fine Arts Center.

Humanities programs from communications and history to philosophy, English and foreign languages taught by nationally acclaimed faculty.

Science programs engaging in research projects from experimenting with squeezed light to improve the accuracy of atomic clocks to computer algo-ritms that may someday create a genetic map of every person.

Whether students choose history or chemical engineering, the University of Arkansas has the programs, the faculty and the facilities to prepare them for the careers they want in the future.

J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences

The J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences, named after former University President and U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright, offers degrees in the liberal arts, which span everything from ancient Egyptian dynasties to the latest discoveries in nanotechnology. It was Fulbright College students who uncovered the world's largest nautiloid fossil, an eight-foot specimen that lived 325 million years ago, in a culvert near Fayetteville.

Our graduates are known throughout the world. We can thank alumnus Robert Maurer for the revolution in communications made possible by his invention of fiber optic cable.

The College consists of 19 departments in the arts, sciences, humanities, and social sciences. Our flourishing honors program is built on the continuing success of our students. They regularly win competitive national awards, such as Marshall Scholarships, Barry Goldwater Scholarships, and NSF Fellowships. The College offers the premier Sturgis Fellowship for undergraduates.

Sam M. Walton College of Business

The Sam M. Walton College of Business is ranked among the top 25 public business schools in the United States. Named in honor of the world's most successful retailer and his family's generous 1998 gift of $50 million, the Walton College is Arkansas' flagship business school. The college offers two bachelor's degrees in six disciplines: accounting, economics, finance, information systems, management, and marketing and logistics, as well as five master's degrees, including the MBA, and two Ph.D. programs. In 2003, the Walton College introduced an innovative new business curriculum that integrates the business disciplines and better prepares its student for jobs. By connecting these disciplines, students see the big picture of a business instead of silos. The college seeks to provide each student with experiences in and out of the classroom that simulate actual business so they are prepared for real-world and global opportunities. Established in 1926, the Walton College has been accredited by the AACSB International since 1931.

RAZORBACKS

College of Engineering

You're competitive. You like a challenge. You like being part of a team. If this sounds like you, then check out the College of Engineering at the University of Arkansas.

Why choose engineering? It's a broad, flexible field full of diverse options. You can choose to work in a corporation, pursue entrepreneurial research or apply your engineering background to a career in law, medicine or business. Whichever career path you choose, your engineering degree will prepare you to analyze situations and solve problems. You'll also be highly employable. According to the American Society for Engineering Education, starting salaries for engineers' average around $50,000.

Why choose the College of Engineering at the University of Arkansas? We're the only comprehensive engineering program in the state that offers undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degrees in seven different disciplines. We're also ABET-accredited, which means that your degree is recognized and respected by industry and academia.

Our low undergraduate student-to-faculty ratio (16 to 1) results in plenty of one-on-one coaching opportunities. Even as an undergrad, you'll work elbow to elbow with nationally and internationally recognized faculty and researchers.

Incoming freshmen benefit from the support of our Freshman Engineering Program. This program provides proactive support to students through orientation, peer mentoring, tutoring and supplemental instruction, academic advising, basic career advising, and academic skills development.

The 2,300 students, 15,650 alumni and 200 faculty and staff members are passionately pursuing our goal of becoming and being perceived as one of the top-tier graduate and undergraduate engineering programs in the United States. We'd love for you to join our team.

Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences

If you are interested in plants, animals, business, the natural environment or the human environment — Bumpers College has a major for you. You'll be surprised at the diversity of our majors. Bumpers College includes the School of Human Environmental Sciences, with popular majors such as Apparel Studies; Human Nutrition, Hospitality and Restaurant Management; Interior Design; Human Development, Family Sciences and Rural Sociology; and General Human Environmental Sciences. Our Equine Program attracts students from many different majors. A Pre-Vet option is offered in both Poultry Science and Animal Science. Other popular majors are Agricultural Business; Environmental, Soil and Water Science; Food Science; Horticulture, Landscape and Turf Sciences; Crop Management; and Agricultural Education, Communication and Technology. Our Honors Program and Global Studies Program provide opportunities for students to spread their wings. Students come first in Bumpers College, which provides a family-like atmosphere.

ARKANSAS

College of Education and Health Professions

The College of Education and Health Professions prepares the professionals who touch people's lives every day - teachers, coaches, nurses, speech pathologists, counselors, school administrators and specialists in health science, exercise and recreation. The college's mission is to enhance the quality of life of the people of Arkansas, the nation and the world through the development of scholar-practitioners in education, health and human services.

Our students are involved in the community in many ways, including educating elementary children about health care at fairs sponsored by the Eleanor Mann School of Nursing and working as classroom teaching interns in local school districts.

Students enjoy hands-on learning in such partnerships with school districts and through research with faculty members. Research includes examining school reforms, studying treatment methods to reduce hospital stays for chronic diseases and learning about language acquisition by children.

School of Architecture

The School of Architecture enjoys a national reputation for producing outstanding designers who are well prepared for professional practice in architecture and landscape architecture. The late Fay Jones, a member of the School's first graduating class and later the school's first dean, received the AIA Gold Medal in 1990 at a White House ceremony; in 2000 the AIA ranked his Thorncrown Chapel in Eureka Springs as the fourth-best building by an American architect in the twentieth century.

Current faculty members continue to win national and international acclaim for their work. Students gain hands-on experience at the school's community design ditional services. Promising high school seniors are assisted with their applications for the many available Sturgis, Bodenhamer, Boyer, and UA Honors College fellowships as well as Chancellor's and University scholarships.

School of Law

Named by U.S. News and World Report among the "most diverse" law schools in America, the School of Law builds on more than 80 years of tradition and alumni success to promote professionalism, civility and leadership. Our students follow a rigorous course of study that prepares them for success in law practice, business, public service and more. Whether pursuing a J.D. or an LL.M. in the nation's only agricultural law program, students have the opportunity to expand and refine their lawyering skills - and to serve their community and state - through the Legal Clinic, an active and effective pro bono program and various skills courses. Students also may participate in the publication of one of three law journals - Arkansas Law Review, Journal of Food Law & Policy and Journal of Islamic Law & Culture. The law school's outstanding faculty not only nurtures and challenges our students, but is committed to research and outreach. A recently completed expansion of the law center includes a state-of-the-art courtroom and classrooms, two-story entrance hall, reading room, conference room and coffee shop, making it one of the most striking buildings on campus and a popular gathering place for the university community.

Honors College

One of the major benefits of the $300 million Walton gift was the dedication of $200 million for the Honors College to fund undergraduate UA Honors College fellowships ($50,000 for four years), to establish special study abroad and undergraduate research opportunities, and to support outstanding faculty in their research and honors teaching efforts.

The UA Honors College serves all undergraduate majors. Honors students enjoy small classes, priority registration, special housing, increased interaction with faculty, and enhanced opportunities for hands-on research.

Within the college, the Scholarship Office and the Office of Post-Graduate Fellowships provide ad-

Dr. G. David Gearhart, Chancellor

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the fifth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university in his capacity as vice chancellor for university advancement. During the decade leading up to his appointment as chancellor, he was the architect of the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century - the largest, most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs and increased the endowment from $119 million to almost $900 million.

A native of Fayetteville, Ark., Chancellor Gearhart was born and raised in the shadow of Old Main. An alumnus of the university whose name is twice inscribed on Senior Walk for the law degree (J.D.) and doctor of education degree (Ed.D.) he earned, Gearhart feels that his entire adult life has prepared him for this singular honor and challenge.

The path that would lead him back to his alma mater began in 1976, when Gearhart became assistant to the president at Westminster College in Fulton, Mo., where he received his baccalaureate two years earlier. In 1977, he was appointed the director of development at Westminster and led fundraising efforts for The Winston Churchill Memorial and Library. Thus was launched a nationally respected career in university advancement.

In 1978, he returned to his native state to become vice president for development at Hendrix College. After four years at Hendrix, Gearhart returned home for the first time when he was selected to be the director of development at the University of Arkansas. In this role, he spearheaded the Campaign for Books, which added more than 100,000 volumes to the University of Arkansas Library.

In 1985, Gearhart took another career leap in being appointed vice president for development and university relations at The Pennsylvania State University. Three years later, he was promoted to senior vice president, responsible for the external relations programs for 23 campuses statewide. While at Penn State, he launched a major capital campaign, which raised in excess of $352 million. Total private gifts to Penn State during his 11 years at the university surpassed $950 million, and Gearhart's division was cited three times by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) with its grand gold medal, awarded to the nation's top advancement program.

In 1995, Gearhart joined the international consulting firm of Grenzebach, Glier, and Associates as senior vice president and managing director, but stayed closely connected to advancing the mission of higher education. The Chicago-based philanthropic management firm has hundreds of clients in the United States, Canada and Europe, and fundraising goals in excess of $40 billion. Clients managed by Gearhart included nearly two dozen non-profit organizations, colleges and universities, among them American, Brigham Young, Rutgers, Alabama, Connecticut, Miami (Fla.), Pittsburgh and Washington.

In 1998 Gearhart once again returned to his native state as vice chancellor for university advancement at Arkansas. He was responsible for development, alumni relations, constituent relations, special events and university relations programs. His most significant impact in this role was the stunningly successful Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, a billion-dollar capital campaign that placed the University of Arkansas as one of only 13 public universities at that time to have exceeded a billion dollars raised.

The centerpiece of this campaign was a $300 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation, the largest gift ever made to a public university. The direct results of Gearhart's leadership in this effort included the creation of 132 new endowed faculty positions, 1,738 new student scholarship and fellowship funds, dozens of new and renovated facilities and classrooms.

Gearhart was named a distinguished alumnus of his undergraduate alma mater, Westminster, in 1992, and the same year was named a Fulbright Scholar and studied at Oxford University, Merton College in Oxford, England. In 1996, he was named an honorary alumnus of Penn State, where he finished his doctoral coursework in higher education administration.

In addition to his responsibilities as chancellor,

Gearhart is a tenured member of the faculty in the College of Education and Health Professions, holding the rank of professor. A nationally respected expert in capital campaigns, he is the author of two books, The Capital Campaign in Higher Education and Philanthropy, Fund Raising and the Capital Campaign, as well as numerous articles.

Among his current professional affiliations, Gearhart serves as vice president of the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Campus Foundation, is a member of the board of advisors for the Arkansas World Trade Center, chair of the board of directors for the Winthrop Rockefeller Institute, and is a member of the advisory board of the Pryor Center for Oral and Visual History. He also is a licensed attorney in the state of Arkansas.

Gearhart is married to the former Jane Brockmann, whom he wed in 1974. They have two children: Katy, who is a graduate of Penn State currently working as a speech pathologist; and Brock, a graduate of Arkansas who is now a vice president for Merrill Lynch. Gearhart's late father, George A. Gearhart, was publisher of the Northwest Arkansas Times in Fayetteville. His mother, Joan Gearhart Havens, lives in Fayetteville.

Howard Brill, Faculty Athletics Representative

In his 14th year as the university's faculty representative for athletics is Howard W. Brill. A law professor at Arkansas since 1975, Brill served as the interim dean of the UA Law School in Fall 2005. He previously served as a member of the Faculty Athletics Committee from 1991-94 and was on a special committee to prepare the SEC's Gender Equity Policy in the spring of 1994. He chaired Arkansas' NCAA Self-Study committee, finishing in 1998.

Brill is a 1965 graduate of Duke and earned his law degree at Florida in 1970. He received his master's of law degree at Illinois in 1979. A widely published author, Brill wrote two books and numerous law review articles and has received several awards honoring his teaching. He is licensed to practice law in Arkansas, Florida and Illinois and is a member of the Arkansas Bar and the state Judicial Ethics Advisory Committee.

He was recently selected the first Vincent Foster Professor of Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility. He is a past member of the Governor's Code of Ethics Commission and the Arkansas Improvement District Commission of the General Assembly.

Active in community service, Brill has served as chairman of the City of Fayetteville's Civil Service Commission, has coached youth soccer and basketball and is a Sunday School teacher. He and his wife Katherine have three children, Christian, Elizabeth and Andrew.

Student-Athlete Support for Success and Achievement

The Bogle Academic Center

There is no higher priority for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department than the academic progress of its scholar-athletes. Thanks to the generous gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the home of the Razorback Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Support Services is the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center. The 15,000-square foot Bogle Academic Center is located in the east side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Under the overall direction of Senior Associate Athletic Director Jon Fagg, the Bogle Academic Center houses the Arkansas Razorbacks Academic Support Program, the Razorback Office of Student Life and the Career Development Program.

Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Support Services Melissa Harwood-Rom oversees the staff of professionals dedicated to directing student-athletes to reach their personal academic goals, and to do so in ways that balance their academic, athletic and personal lives.

Student-Athlete Support Services

Recognizing the difficulty of balancing the demands of athletic competition at the highest level and completion of the rigorous academic standards of a Carnegie research-level university, the Razorback Athletic Department provides support services through both facilities and personnel to guide Arkansas student-athletes to their ultimate goal: University of Arkansas diploma.

The key components of the SAASA are personal development, career development, academic tutoring, study hall facilities, class attendance monitoring and incentive awards recognizing academic achievement.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND ACHIEVEMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The primary focus of the Razorback Student-Athlete Support Program is to provide the student-athlete with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to be a success in college and in life. This is accomplished through superior academic counseling, life skills training and preparation to enter the job market upon graduation.

RAZORBACKS

University of Arkansas Academic Game Plan for Graduation

Student-athletes are expected to meet specific academic criteria in order to maintain eligibility. This is easily achieved by following the Academic Game Plan created by the Student-Athlete Support Services team.

The SAASA designs programs and sets specific goals to help student-athletes achieve academic success. An example of a key goal is the successful completion of 30 hours of coursework during each academic year. By maintaining this course load, Razorback athletes not only stay on track to graduate in four years, but easily meet eligibility requirements set by the NCAA.

Study Hall and Tutors

A quiet setting for uninterrupted study, the Bogle Academic Center provides three types of study hall space. The computer lab (above) has over 30 stations for individual computer-based study. An open study hall is available for group or individual study, and monitored by staff members of the SAASA. There are 17 individual study carrels that provide space for tutors to meet with student-athletes for individual instruction in specific subjects.

Each Razorback team sets its own criteria for study hall attendance. The use of tutors is a key element for academic success, allowing for individualized assistance and for reaching academic excellence in advanced subjects.

Class Attendance

The University of Arkansas Razorback Athletic Department has an overall student-athlete class attendance policy. Student-Athletes Support Services assists with the enforcement of this policy through regular checks on class attendance. If traveling with a team, student-athletes notify instructors early in each semester regarding assignments or exams.

Student Life

The social and personal development of student-athletes is as important to the University of Arkansas as the academic and athletic achievement. The Office of Student Life focuses on the personal development and community service components of the NCAA CHAMPS/

LifeSkills program. Training is provided in a variety of areas including financial planning, drug and alcohol education, time management, study skills and developing community service activities.

Career Development

The purpose of the Career Development Program is to assist student-athletes in making a smooth transition from the University of Arkansas into the workplace. This process begins during the freshman year with a one-hour course on career options.

Workshops are held to provide student-athletes training in resume writing, interviewing skills and etiquette. Individual assistance with locating summer internships and job placement gives student-athletes a head start into their chosen careers.

ARKANSAS

Razorbacks In the Community

Being a part of the northwest Arkansas community is an important part of being a Razorback. The state of Arkansas provides tremendous support for every Razorback athletic team, therefore, it is only fitting the Razorbacks give back to the local community.

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department conducts several programs aimed at placing Razorbacks in the community, particularly as role models to our young people.

Coordinated through the Office of Student Life and the Razorback Marketing Office, two of the longest running programs with direct impact on the elementary schools of northwest Arkansas are the Book Hogs and Sweat Haws programs.

Book Hogs encourages reading in the elementary schools, with rewards for the top readers and top schools that include visits by Razorback athletes.

Sweat Haws impacts elementary students in the third through fifth grade by encouraging physical fitness activities in hopes of building good exercise habits early.

Through their individual teams, Razorback athletes also volunteer for projects ranging from Habitat for Humanity, local Boys and Girls Clubs, local Boy and Girl Scout troops, and visits to area and state children's hospitals. Individual athletes also volunteer for community projects like Razorbacks for Christmas.

A new initiative from the Arkansas Athletic Department for the 2008-09 academic year is the creation of a speaker's bureau for coaches and athletes to reach out to local schools at every level.

The goal of Razorbacks Character Counts is to bring positive examples of the benefits of hard work, teamwork, and leadership that participation in athletics can provide.

Lift Up America

Razorback athletes assist Lift Up America and its efforts to fight hunger. Former defensive tackle Charles Alexander and other football players help unload protein products donated by Tyson Foods for distribution to the Northwest Arkansas Food Bank's member agencies which benefited over 30 local groups.

Each year, the Southeastern Conference recognizes the elite in community service through the Brad Davis Community Service Award. Each member institution nominates its top community volunteer from men's and women's teams. The 2008 University of Arkansas recipients of the $2,000 scholarship award were track and field standout Thomas Austell and gymnastics all-rounder Emily Peacock.

JEFF LONG — UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Jeff Long

Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics

Joining the University of Arkansas in the fall of 2007, Jeff Long became the director of Razorback athletics on Jan. 1, 2008, after serving as an advisor to University Chancellor Dr. John A. White. During his initial months at Arkansas, Long completed the search for the Razorbacks' new football coach and is currently working on the blending of the University's separate men's and women's athletics department into one even stronger program.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long also holds the title of vice chancellor at the University of Arkansas which places him as a member of the University of Arkansas' Executive Committee, a group of senior staff that assists with the administration of the entire university at the direction of new Chancellor Dr. G. David Gearhart. Most recently the director of athletics at the University of Pittsburgh,

Long brings his vision for excellence in both the classroom and on the field of competition.

Putting his stamp on Razorback athletics through an innovative reorganization and streamlining of the administration, Long's vision for the University of Arkansas will become a model. Along with creating a new internal structure, Long has embarked on a campaign to strengthen the Razorback brand and has initiated several projects designed to maximize the revenue potential of Arkansas' unique image.

By assembling an executive team committed to his guiding principles of integrity, winning, community service and the promotion of a quality experience for each of the more than 450 Razorback student-athletes, Long has Arkansas on the path to not only maintain its place as one of the nation's top programs, but to elevate its status by enhancing the Razorback program to an even higher level of achievement.

Long has more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University and Eastern Kentucky University prior to his dual positions at the University of Arkansas. While known as an innovator in athletic department management, Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching and administrative staff positions at Duke University, Rice University and North Carolina State University.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long served on the NCAA Management Council as one of the athletic administrators that oversaw the operations and regulation for Division I. His experience as an athletic director and administrator in America's most prestigious conferences – the Big XII, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and now Southeastern Conference – has made his council highly sought on key issues regarding collegiate athletics. During his career, Long has served in five of the six Bowl Championship Series leagues.

Prior to Arkansas, Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign. Designed to enhance the student-athlete experience for Panther athletes through scholarship endowments and capital gifts for facility construction and renovation, the Quest resulted in almost $34 million in just over two and a half years. In 2005, Long dedicated a new Olympic sports weight room at Fitzgerald Field House as well as training facilities for gymnastics and wrestling. When he departed Pittsburgh, Long had plans for new competition venues for baseball, softball, soccer and track and field, plus enhancements for the Pitt Band.

His commitment to building the Pitt athletics brand resulted in a new primary mark for the Panthers which returned the powerful "PITT" brand to the University of Pittsburgh. He established a partnership with adidas for uniforms and apparel for all 19 Pitt teams and an agreement with ISP Sports, one of the nation's leading college sports marketing firms, to elevate Pitt's profile from a local to national level. Through Long's leadership the department worked with its partners to begin a weekly television program, "Panthers Weekly," which highlighted all 19 sports

Jeff Long sets the tone for Razorback Athletics' volunteer effort with Lift Up America and its efforts to fight hunger.

RAZORBACKS

"We will provide opportunities for student-athletes to achieve their fullest potential academically, athletically, and socially, while competing successfully at the highest level."

Arkansas Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long on FSN Pittsburgh, a monthly magazine publication, "Panther Eyes," and raised the profile of radio broadcasts with Clear Channel for football, basketball, hockey, women's basketball and other programs.

Long's direction of the Panther program resulted not only in the mandatory recertification by the NCAA of Pitt athletics in 2005, but the citation of the University of Pittsburgh by the peer review team that he led a program that was a "model for others to follow." Among the student-athlete changes initiated by Long was the formulation of a new position for career and life skills coordinator, developed in concert with the University of Pittsburgh's Provost.

Long's four-year tenure added up to Pittsburgh becoming one of the nation's top programs, notably the Panthers' selection as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus All-Sport Rankings.

As an athletic leader, Long was a key advocate for the Big East during the league's time of membership transition. Thanks in part to Long's voice of leadership, the Big East maintained its position as a key member of the Bowl Championship System, and the Pitt Panthers earned the Big East's automatic berth in 2004 at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Along with his tenure on the Executive Council, Long also served on the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force in 2004, and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years. Managing the external affairs of the Sooners, he was an innovator in his direction of the key image areas of marketing and promotions, licensing, media relations, ticketing, radio and television rights and SoonerVision productions. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. He made several revisions to the EKU athletic infrastructure and completed several facility projects. Long created the first modern corporate partner and sponsorship structure at EKU. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his lengthy career in college athletic administration at the University of Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post graduate career in athletics as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and NC State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

The Long Family: Stephanie, Jeff, Fanny and Christina.

Bev Lewis

Associate Vice Chancellor and Executive Associate Athletic Director

For almost two decades, Bev Lewis has been synonymous with the University of Arkansas, and begins her 28th season in a new role as an associate vice chancellor for the University and the executive associate athletic director of the unified Razorback Athletic Department.

The hallmark of her previous 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics was the overall excellence of her entire program. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the University's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the University's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' $6 million facility be named the Bev Lewis Center for Women's Athletics.

In 1998, she was voted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor by the University's letterwinners in recognition of her contributions both as a coach and an administrator.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, first with the NCAA Championship Cabinet and most recently on the NCAA Management Council.

Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's squad to achieve a national ranking and the first conference championship team with the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981.

Her husband, Harley, is the former athletic director at the University of Montana, former assistant director of championships with the NCAA, and development officer at Arkansas.

Chris Wyrick

Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs

Chris Wyrick was named the first senior associate athletic director for external affairs in the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics in May 2008.

Responsible for the external operations of the athletic department, Wyrick provides oversight for marketing and promotions, collegiate licensing program, media relations, multi-media partners and athletic department web site. He also works with the associate athletic director for finance and business in supervision of the Razorback Ticket Office.

Wyrick brings extensive experience in development and serves as the department's primary contact with the Razorback Foundation as well as assisting the athletic director with major gift fundraising.

A native of Greensboro, N.C., Wyrick joined Arkansas after two years at South Carolina where he was associate athletics director for development. With USC he helped manage a $200 million capital campaign for athletics. He assisted in the reorganization of the Gamecock Club, resulting in an increase in revenue from $13.8 million in fiscal 2006 to $27.8 million in 2007.

Prior to USC, he spent six years at Vanderbilt as an administrator and a fundraiser overseeing marketing and the institution's relationship with ISP. Wyrick also managed the sports information and the ticket offices. He served as the Commodores' Executive Director of Development/National Commodore Club.

He was responsible for the major gifts aspect of athletics development, including raising funds for the Memorial Gym practice facility, the football practice facility, the baseball stadium, track and the outdoor tennis facility. In his six years, Vanderbilt raised almost $80 million for athletics. In his last seven months, Vanderbilt's endowment increased by almost $15 million. In 2003, he was recognized as the National Fund Raiser of the Year for major Division I schools.

A 1992 graduate of North Carolina State with a degree in political science, Wyrick worked at NC State and Miami (Ohio) before going to Vanderbilt.

Wyrick and his wife Merrily have two daughters, Caroline (10) and Caitlin (8).

Jon Fagg

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance and Student-Athlete Services

Overseeing all aspects of compliance and academics, Jon Fagg joined the University of Arkansas as a senior associate athletic director for compliance and student-athlete services in the summer of 2008. He serves as member of the senior management group for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Fagg's department supervision of NCAA and Southeastern Conference rules compliance and education is a new position for Arkansas. In addition to reporting directly to the vice chancellor and director of athletics, Fagg will have an informational reporting relationship on compliance issues with the University's Office of the General Counsel.

In addition to compliance, Fagg also supervises the student-athlete services department which advises and offers support to more than 450 Razorback student-athletes.

Fagg joins the Razorback staff after spending the past seven years at North Carolina State University. Hired at North Carolina State in March 2001, he served four and half years as an assistant athletics director for compliance before being promoted to associate athletics director for compliance in the fall of 2005.

While with the Wolfpack, Fagg's responsibilities included coordinating all aspects of the NCAA compliance program, including rules education for intercollegiate staff and related university personnel, and advisement, education and interpretations regarding NCAA rules and regulations.

Prior to his tenure at North Carolina State, Fagg spent three years as the assistant athletics director for compliance at Fresno State University. He also served one year as director of compliance for the Big South Conference.

His first athletics administrative experience came at Mars Hill College where he handled compliance duties as well as serving as an assistant coach for the football team for three seasons. His coaching experience also includes a stint as an assistant coach at Davidson from February 1992 to June 1993 and as a GA coach at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, from January 1991 to February 1992.

Fagg and his wife Amanda have three children: Jon Madison (10) and six-year-old twins, Reed and Ellie.

Matt Trantham

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations

Matt Trantham returned to his native Arkansas in June 2008 to serve as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations for the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. A product of Hot Springs, Ark., he joins the Razorbacks after spending nearly nine years at the University of Oklahoma.

Trantham oversees Razorback facilities, event management and equipment operations.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Trantham began his career with the Sooners in July 1999 as the promotions director for the athletic department where he worked with all 20 of OU's teams. He was named assistant athletic director for event management in 2004 and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2006.

In his role as associate AD for event management, Trantham oversaw more than 500 events a year, coordinated the efforts of more than 1,500 event staff members and was responsible for activities within 13 athletic facilities. He also served as OU's liaison with all postseason events including both Big 12 and NCAA championship competitions.

In this capacity, Trantham served as tournament director for more than 25 postseason championship events including the 2006 NCAA Wrestling Championship, 2006 NCAA Baseball Regional Championship, and 2005 Big 12 Women's Gymnastics Championship.

During his tenure, he helped the Sooners to record-setting attendance figures while growing revenue and community recognition for the athletic department. Trantham managed the Premier Partners Program at OU and was responsible for $1.2 million in annual revenues.

Prior to joining the Sooners, Trantham spent five seasons in professional sports in Washington, D.C.

Trantham earned his bachelor's of science degree in business management from Centenary College in 1990 and a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1998.

Trantham and wife Kristen are proud parents of two sons, William Matthew and Davis Michael.

Fayetteville's famous Dickson Street is much more than a college hangout, adding upscale condominiums and specialty retail to its long-standing reputation as the center of entertainment and dining. From hosting major national events like Bikes, Blues and BBQ or serving as the final resting place for the goal posts after Razorback football upsets, one thing remains constant -- Dickson is the heart of what's happening.

Fayetteville

From Robert Redford to James Earl Jones, the University of Arkansas hosted numerous famous speakers in recent years. Ranging from political satirist Al Franken to former Israeli prime minister Ehud Barak to CNN's Anderson Cooper, we've also had one of our more famous former law professors speak several times, President Bill Clinton.

One of America's largest motorcycle events, Bikes, Blues and BBQ adds another weekend of fall excitement.

Fayetteville: Top 10 Town

The largest city of the Northwest Arkansas region, Fayetteville was recently named the No. 7 on Kiplinger's list of the Top 10 Best Cities in America. Fayetteville is just a short drive away from several of the area's finest attractions. Fayetteville is a short drive from Beaver Lake with more than 500 miles of shoreline for water sports and the Boston Mountains for camping, caving or hiking.

And if it's big-city excitement you want, Dallas is just six hours away, with Kansas City a three-hour drive, Oklahoma City just 3 1/2 hours, Memphis five hours and St. Louis six hours.

By air, Fayetteville is literally one stop to the world. Northwest Arkansas Regional (XNA) is non-stop to America's four largest cities plus another major 15 cities.

Razorback Athletics: Home of Champions

Balance is the measure of great athletics departments, and once again the University of Arkansas ranked in the top 25 in the NACDA Director's Cup. Thanks to NCAA performances in almost every sport, the Razorbacks ranked 24th in 2007-08. With 19 varsity sports, Arkansas scored its high finish in spite of the fact all but one of the universities ahead of the Razorbacks had 20 or more teams. Athletic Director Jeff Long's vision is for each Razorback team to achieve at the highest level, both on and off the field of competition.

ARKANSAS

Why Razorbacks?

Arkansas' athletic teams have not always been called the Razorbacks. During the early years of its athletic history, the Cardinal served as the University nickname.

A lot of things changed in 1909, however, when Arkansas football coach Hugo Bezdek called his players "a wild band of Razorback hogs," after guiding his team to a 16-0 victory over Louisiana State on October 30, 1909.

Alluding to the Razorback, characterized by a ridge back and tenacious, wild fighting ability, Bezdek never forgot this idea and often called his team "a fighting band of Razorbacks." This new nickname became increasingly popular and the student body voted to change the official University mascot from the Cardinal to the Razorbacks in 1910.

In the 1920s, "Wooo, Pig, Soovie" was added as the school yell, referred to more commonly as the "Hog Call."

There are dozens of Lions, Tigers and Bears, but in all of college athletics there is only one Razorback. The distinctive logo of the Arkansas teams is officially known as the Profile Hog, but is known to many fans as the Helmet Hog — a fixture of the football team's helmet for almost half a century.

"To sit in the stands now, I still get chill bumps every time."

1989 All-American offensive tackle Jim Mabry on what it means to a Razorback to run through the "A"

Running Through The "A"

For Razorback football players, there is nothing to compare with entering the stadium for a home Arkansas game. The emotion of running through the "A" stays with a player for life.

Lloyd Phillips won the Outland Trophy more than three decades ago. The veteran of the 1964 national championship team, Phillips remembers it like it was yesterday.

"The butterflies are flowing and you are [running], but it doesn't feel like your feet are even touching the ground," the 1966 Outland winner recalls.

Two-time Doak Walker Award winner and two-time Heisman runner-up Darren McFadden agrees.

"It is hard to describe the feeling you get as a Razorback player right before you take the field for a game," McFadden said. "You can hear more than 70 thousand fans calling the Hogs and can feel the excitement building. I will always remember that special feeling of running through the 'A'."

The Razorback Marching Band sets the stage by forming a huge "A" as they march the length of the field playing Arkansas Fight. When they finish, the "A" stretches from the Razorback locker room to midfield. To the roar of the crowd and the band blasting out Arkansas Fight, the current Razorbacks run onto the field through the "A," connecting them to generations of previous men in the Cardinal and White.

"Just to be able to run through that 'A' and hear the fans cheer for you is unbelievable," 1989 All-American offensive tackle Jim Mabry said. "To sit in the stands now, I still get chill bumps every time the band starts playing and I see the guys running out."

There are plenty of powerful mascots in college athletics, but none as unique as the Razorback. Not many school mascots have escaped from their homes, not once, but twice, to ravage the local country side. By their nature, the Razorbacks are hard to contain.

A Mascot Like No Other

The wild hogs known as razorbacks native to the Arkansas wilderness bear no resemblance to the typical barnyard pig of today. The untamed razorback hog was a lean, feral animal that was ill-tempered. It fought and defeated anything that crossed its path, man or beast. Turn of the 20th century outdoor magazines lauded the razorback as "the most intelligent of all the hogs and is likewise the most courageous. . . . He has a clear, farseeing eye."

This was the mighty animal that inspired Hugo Bezdek to proclaim his team had fought "like a wild band of razorback hogs" against LSU in 1909.

Except for rare sightings in the Australian Outback, the Razorback only exists today in the form of Arkansas' players and fans. A Russian boar, which closely resembles the wild hog of Bezdek's day, currently serves as the official live mascot. He resides near campus, and attends all Arkansas home football games.

The tradition of a live mascot dates back to the 1960s with a series of hogs that have proudly represented Arkansas. In addition to appearances at games, they have gained a reputation for fierce behavior.

Big Red III escaped from an exhibit near Eureka Springs in the summer of 1977 and ravaged the countryside before being gunned down by an irate farmer. Another live mascot, Ragnar, was a wild hog captured in south Arkansas by Leola farmer Bill Robinson. Before Ragnar's spree was done, the mighty animal had killed a coyote, a 450-pound domestic pig and seven rattlesnakes. Ragnar died in 1978 of unknown causes.

RAZORBACKS

A Proper Hog Call

A chant of "Woo Pig Sooie" is known worldwide as a Hog Call. Just like any good tradition, there are lots of versions of the Hog Call (even spellings).

A properly executed Hog Call is composed of three "calls," slowly raising one's arms from the knees to above the head during the "Woo." Traditionalists prescribe an eight second "Woo." The fingers should be wiggled and the "Woo" should build in volume and pitch as the arms rise.

Upon completion of the "Woo," both arms are brought straight down with fists clinched as if executing a chin-up while yelling, "Pig". The right arm is extended up and out with the "Sooie."

A full Hog Call -- the kind one will always hear victorious Razorback teams execute after contests -- requires two more Hog Calls, followed immediately by a "Razor-Backs" yell, coordinated with a pumping motion of the right arm after the third "Sooie." So, in order, the full Hog Call is:

Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
Woooooooo. Pig. Sooie!
Razorbacks!

The Hog Hat

It is true; no Razorback fan's closet is complete without an official Hog Hat. The original style was a hard plastic hat with a long snout, rough razorback ridges across the top and wickedly sharp, pointed curly-cue tail. The modern versions are often sculpted from softer material. Regardless, the Hog Hat is undoubtedly the most recognized piece of fan apparel in college athletics. Just ask ESPN GameDay's Kirk Herbstreit as he dons the traditional Hog Hat.

Arkansas Fight

One of the first tasks of a new Razorback is learning to sing the University of Arkansas fight song. Arkansas Fight was written in the late 1920s. It is a unique tune, fitting of the only college in America with a Razorback mascot. Several other colleges have adapted the tune, but the lyrics remain unique to Arkansas.

Hit that line! Hit that line!
Keep on going!
Move that ball right down the field!
Give a cheer. Rah! Rah!
Never fear. Rah! Rah!
Arkansas will never yield!
On your toes, Razorbacks,
to the finish,
Carry on with all your might!
For it's A-A-A-R-K-A-N-S-A-S for Arkansas!
Fight! Fight! Fi-i-i-ight!

Razorback Spirit Squads

Along with being a Razorback, serving as a Razorback cheerleader has a long tradition at the University of Arkansas. Currently, the Razorbacks have two squads, a Red and White, that inspire the crowds at all home sporting events.

Arkansas also has a dance team, the Razorback Pom Squad, which performs at halftime of many events. Members of the Pom Squad also serve at baseball games as RBI Girls.

Arkansas has a team of uniformed mascots, led by the original Big Red, the Fighting Razorback. Sue E. joined the family along with kid-sized Pork Chop in the late 1990s. Boss Hog is a 9-foot-tall inflatable mascot that rounds out the team.

Jean Nail serves as the coordinator for cheerleaders and mascots. For more information on the cheer squads and tryouts, go to the Spirit Squad section of Arkansas-Razorbacks.com.

The UA Alma Mater

Brodie Payne and Henry Tovey wrote the University of Arkansas Alma Mater in the early 1900s. They were inspired by the Ozark Mountain sunrise as it illuminated Old Main.

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty,
Watches thy Soul
from the mountains of God.
Over the fates of thy children departed,
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of hope in the ways dreary lighted,
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true.
From those who adore unto one who adores us,
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM | FOOTBALL FACILITIES

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 60 years, War Memorial Stadium is slated to host Arkansas football games for at least another seven years. During that span, the facility will host three UA games in two seasons, and two UA games this year and in four other seasons.

Three-year UA letterman and Congressional Medal of Honor Winner Maurice (Footsie) Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its 60-year existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 53,727.

A complete lighting system and AstroTurf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season.

Now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, the Orville Henry Press Box at War Memorial Stadium was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America in 1974 — an honor for both the facility and the services provided.

ARKANSAS

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS), following a major expansion and renovation project completed prior to the 2001 season, gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation.

The $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, saw the capacity of the stadium increased from 51,000 to 72,000.

The concrete and steel below the stands was completely enclosed with a brick and glass facade. The look rivals that of many of the newer Major League Baseball stadiums. In addition to covering the steel and concrete, the concourses are wider, and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

The east concourse is "Championship Alley" with displays of conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse is "All-American Alley" and is dedicated to Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse is "Bowl Alley" with tributes to each bowl team.

Other than the facade covering, the other most noticeable addition is the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chairback seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats with space for an additional upper deck that would push the capacity to 80,000. The enclosure also includes a food court with space for five vendors.

Other major additions include an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, and the addition of luxury suites.

Sixty-eight suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 132, and the stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

Other additions include the 15,000 square foot Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center and the 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews "A" Club, both on the east side where an upper deck, which seats 6,500, was added along with enclosed premium club seating.

During the 2000 season, a 30x107-foot SMARTVISION LED video screen, one of the largest video boards at any sports venue in the world, made its debut in the north end zone.

The stadium's debut came on Sept. 24, 1938, as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7. Dedicated on Oct. 8 of that year, the Hogs dropped a 9-6 decision to Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

In 1950, a new press box was constructed and 5,200 more seats were built on the west side. A 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957. Expansion projects in 1965 and 1969 increased capacity to 42,678 - a figure that held steady until a year of construction on additional seats and skyboxes brought the facility to 50,000 seats prior to the 1985 season.

Other improvements during the facility's 66-year history include the addition of Astroturf in 1969 and the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center - which houses athletic administration and coaches' offices - at the north end of the stadium in 1975. The Broyles Athletic Center underwent renovations, completed in 1994, while the playing surface was returned to natural grass in 1995.

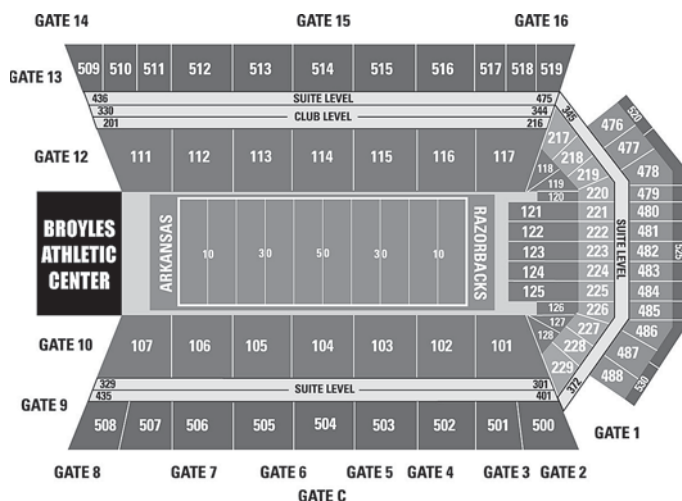

Arkansas' all-time record at DWRRS is 148-74-2 (.665). Prior to 1938, the Hogs played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.
